Growing in Faith—Book Review by Kathryn Lopez

There's a new book on St. Dominic, whose feast is coming up in August. It's called St. Dominc's Way of Life: A Path to Knowing and Loving God by two young Dominican priests, Fr. Patrick Mary Briscoe, O.P., and Fr. Jacob Bertrand Janczyk, O.P. They write of St. Dominic: Dominic was absorbed by his desire to be with Christ, day in and day out. And his own desire for Christ spilled over into a longing to introduce others to Christ by his preaching. And they give some tips for becoming more recollected in life, more focused on Christ:

St. Dominic understood that a balance needs to be achieved in the contemplative life – a balance between structure and freedom, a balance achieved by virtue. For Dominic, contemplation is not arrived at by putting together the right spiritual recipe, or does it just happen because we give it a try every so often. No, Dominic realized that the life of contemplation is a gift, an invitation to share in the divine life of God, to which we are all called. It is a response to God's grace that is offered to each of us, uniquely and particularly. This calls for perseverance and regular discipline in prayer…but also the freedom to dive into that prayer as men and women uniquely called by God. It can be purchased at orderosv.com

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Dear Parish Family,

As human beings, we hunger for many things besides food and material possessions. We hunger to be recognized and honored, to love and be loved, to be listened to and to be appreciated, to connect with people, and to receive gratitude. On a deeper level every human being needs spiritual resources to help heal the painful wounds of grief, guilt, resentment, unforgiveness, self-rejection, and shame. But only God can satisfy our various forms of spiritual hunger. St. Augustine said: "O God, You have made us for Yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You" (Confessions, I, I.).

Today's Gospel presents an introduction to Jesus' famous discourse on the Holy Eucharist in the form of a dialogue between Jesus and the Jews who had gone around the Lake and come to Capernaum searching for him. The people were looking for a repeat performance of their miraculous feeding. In answer to their question, "Rabbi, when did You get here?" Jesus told them that they were only looking for another free meal and that such meals would not satisfy them, saying, "Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for Eternal Life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on Him, the Father, God, has sent His seal."

Though identifying Himself as "the bread of life" (v. 35), Jesus is not yet speaking about the Sacramental Eucharist in this part of his Eucharistic discourse. Here, the emphasis is placed on the Faith-acceptance of the teaching of Jesus. In other words, Jesus offers us the life-giving words of God about the meaning of our lives. His message only gives life when we accept it and when it leads us from selfishness to selfless and sacrificial service for others. Jesus states that He is the Bread of Life only for the one who "comes" to and "believes" in Him (v. 35). Jesus offered to satisfy the spiritual hunger of the people gathered around on one condition. They must believe Jesus is the "One," that is, the Messiah, sent with the message that God is a loving, holy, and forgiving Father, and not a punishing judge. Belief in Jesus is not simple intellectual assent, but an authentic, total commitment to Him of loyalty and solidarity. There is no reference yet to eating His Body or drinking His Blood, which will come later.

It is easy to accept Jesus as a great teacher or spiritual guru. But this discourse is challenging the people around him and us the twenty first believer to move to a faith encounter. "I AM the Bread of Life": throughout John's Gospel, Jesus uses the expression "I AM …" seven times (indicative of completeness), to introduce various key images by which He describes His person and His mission: "I AM … the True Bread … the True Light … the Gate … the Way … the Good Shepherd … the Resurrection and the Life … the True Vine." However, on an even deeper theological level, the Greek expression egô eimi ("I am") relates back to the scene (Ex 3:14), when God tells Moses to use this name (a shortened form of the Divine Name YHWH, "I AM Who I AM") in asking Pharaoh to free the enslaved Israelites. "I AM" is, therefore, an explicitly Divine title, and by using it repeatedly throughout this Gospel, Jesus is making a radical claim to BE the God that the Israelites had known in the time of Moses and the Exodus. (Dr. Watson Murray).

To enter into the realm of faith is not easy as we tend to live and think primarily with sensory perceptions and intellectual acumen. When we accept the divinity of Christ in faith, we move towards the dimension of living in depth. We are asking him to guide and lead us. We are accepting that we do not know enough to make the final moves and so we need to pray. We then begin to live like spiritual beings in a material body with its physicality and needs, but still aware of our spiritual depth and connection with the divine creator.

Be blessed, Fr. Tom Kunnel C.O.

Reflections

1. Bread for daily living. In the Holy Mass, the Church offers us two types of bread: a) the Bread of Life, contained in God's Word and b) the Bread of Life, contained in the Holy Eucharist. Let us nourish our souls with this Heavenly Manna and carry Jesus to our homes and workplaces, radiating Jesus' love, mercy and compassion all around us. But we should not take for granted the Divine generosity, that so readily provides these gifts gratuitously, by sharing in the Bread of Life simply as a matter of habit, without repenting of our sins or showing due attention and proper respect.

2 We need to gain the benefits of our Holy Communion with Jesus*. Our reception of Jesus in Holy Communion acts spiritually as Food to nourish the spirit, as, similarly, bread and wine act materially for our body. Unconsecrated bread and wine, i.e., material food, (1), is assimilated by our bodies into our substance; (2), maintains physical life, promoting physical growth; (3), dispels fatigue and weakness from, and imparts strength to, the body; (4), affords a certain satisfaction by pleasing the palate; and (5), influences the mind and spirit by the medium of the body. In a similar way, the action of Jesus on our soul in Holy Communion may be described, as (1), uniting us most closely to Himself: Our Lord says: "He that eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood, abides in Me, and I in him" (Jn 6:57); (2), uniting each of us individually to each individual member of the human race by joining us to Himself; (3), imparting actual graces, including strength, the power to withstand temptation, and the desire to practice virtue, while maintaining, deepening, and increasing Sanctifying Grace in the soul Today's readings challenge us to trust in the providence of a loving and caring God and to hunger and thirst for the Bread of eternal life – the Holy Eucharist.*

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

Then the LORD said to Moses,
"I will now rain down bread from heaven for you.
Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion;
thus I will test them,
to see whether they follow
my instructions or not." (Ex 16:4)

PSALM

The Lord gave them bread from heaven. (Ps 78)

SECOND READING

... be renewed in the spirit of your minds,
and put on the new self,
created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth. (Eph 4:23-24)

GOSPEL

"I am the bread of life;
whoever comes to me will never hunger,
and whoever believes in me will never thirst." (Jn 6:35)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"You cannot see the forest for the trees" is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don't like, want, and don't want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don't move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the "now" time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

1 de Agosto 2021 -18º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Estamos en momentos difíciles de la historia. Mucha gente murmura y se pregunta: ¿Cuándo terminará la pesadilla de la pandemia? ¿Dónde está Dios en todo esto que estamos viviendo? Vivió algo similar el pueblo de Israel que caminaba en el desierto, también sentía la angustia de saber dónde estaría Dios en su experiencia de jornada, después de su salida de Egipto. Ellos basaban su realidad en el hambre, pues recordaban las ollas de carne y de comer pan hasta saciarse. Con todo esto, Dios dijo a Moisés: "He oído las quejas de mi pueblo. Diles: por la tarde comerán carne y por la mañana se saciarán de pan; así sabrán que yo soy Yavé, el Dios de ustedes" (Éxodo 16:11-12).

El maná que cae del cielo es un alimento que la misericordia de Dios da al pueblo de Israel. Pero, debía ser recogido todos los días, es decir, alimento para cada día que obliga a la gente a confiar en Dios y a darse cuenta que este maná es un alimento para el camino por el desierto. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús dice a la gente que lo buscaba: "En verdad les digo: Ustedes me buscan, no porque han visto a través de los signos sino porque han comido pan hasta saciarse" (Juan 6:26-27). Cuando participo en la Eucaristía, ¿busco a Jesús como alimento de vida, o lo busco para saciar mis caprichos? ¿Veo la Eucaristía como alimento de vida que me acerca a Jesús? Recordemos que Jesús es el Pan de vida y el que acude a él con sinceridad de corazón nunca tendrá hambre, y el que cree en él nunca tendrá sed. Pidamos, en la Eucaristía que seamos cristianos que orientamos nuestra vida a ejemplo de Jesús. ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life. God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death. After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.

St Philip Neri's Maxim for August 1: St. Peter and the other apostles and apostolical men, seeing the Son of God born in poverty, and then living so absolutely without anything, that He had not where to lay His Head, and contemplating Him dead and naked on a cross, stripped themselves also of all things, and took the road of the evangelical counsels.
