Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's liturgy is full of strong imagery, hard words and challenging exhortation, yet it also offers comfort and encouragement. Denunciation rings most strongly in the letter of James, as the writer lambastes the rich for their ill-gotten wealth--amassed by withholding the wages of workers--while simultaneously reminding them that their riches have no lasting value. Jesus seems to demand something harsher: We should "cut off" anything that causes us to sin. Walter Burghardt reminds us in his homilies of the Semitic style of exaggeration that Jesus employs; at the same time, we can't let ourselves off the hook easily. There's much in our lives that keeps us from God.

The liturgy's prayers, on the other hand, refresh us with God's mercy. Inspired by our confidence, we pray that God will help us to become "heirs to the treasure of heaven". Today's liturgy is a mixed bag, indeed, yet it offers a marvelous balance between our own duty to seek the kingdom and the ultimate power of God to overcome our failings.

The reading from James fairly demands that we lift up to God the needs of the working poor and those who suffer the injustices of our economic systems, as well as embrace the prophetic ministry we received in baptism on their behalf, and fulfill Moses' wish: "Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!"

Reflection taken from Liturgy.com, OCP

IF YOU KNOW OF SOMEONE WHO IS HOMEBOUND AND WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE THE EUCHARIST, PLEASE HAVE THEM CONTACT EITHER ONE OF OUR PARISH RECTORIES, SO THAT WE MAY ARRANGE FOR A EUCHARISTIC MINISTER TO BRING THEM COMMUNION. GOD BLESS AND THANK YOU ALL FOR BEING PART OF OUR MINISTRY OF FAITH.

Remembering Your Loved Ones
Mt. Hope Catholic Community of
St. Francis of Assisi & St. Dominic
2021 Mass Book

It is very easy to remember a loved one in our own personal way, but what better way than a Mass or Mass Card. Both are available at St. Francis of Assisi and St. Dominic's. All you need to do is contact the appropriate Rectory to schedule a Mass or acquire a Mass Card. Masses are now available in both churches for the 2021 Mass Book through December. Candles are available at St. Dominic's. Candles at St. Francis are booked for 2021.

Every attempt will be made to accommodate your requests for specific dates, but we cannot promise. Your understanding is appreciated. Please call the rectories during business hours.

NEWS FROM FR. TOM

First Friday Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament & Mass:

Beginning October 1st, we will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament after the 8am Mass on every First Friday of the month. The Church will be open until 12 noon. We will alternate Churches every month and for October the devotion will be celebrated at St. Dominic Church. What am I supposed to do on First Fridays? Go to Mass and receive Holy Communion with the intention of honoring Christ's Sacred Heart. If necessary attend the Sacrament of Reconciliation. "The First Friday Devotions are a set of Catholic devotions to especially recognize the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and through it offer reparations for the sins of the world. In the visions of Christ reported by Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque in the 17th century, several promises were made to those people who practiced the First Friday Devotions."

First Saturday Mass & Confessions:

We will alternate churches each month beginning October 2nd with Mass at St. Dominic Church at 8am. There will also be the opportunity for confession afterwards. Catholics believe that on these first Saturdays of each month, we help our Heavenly Father, our Lord, Jesus Christ and our Lady, Christ's mother, to console us. The Mass is offered for all of our recently deceased parishioners and friends. The devotion which, according to Sister Lúcia of Fátima, was requested by the Virgin Mary in an apparition in December 1925, has been approved by the Roman Catholic Church.

Blessing of the Animals and Pets (Drive up blessings)

We invite you to come and celebrate the Feast Day of St. Francis with us on Sunday, October 3rd from 5PM to 5:30PM at St. Francis of Assisi Church. The Catholic Tradition respects animals as God's creatures, worthy of our care. St. Francis wrote a Canticle of the Creatures, an ode to God's living things: "All praise to you, Oh Lord, for all these brother and sister creatures." Bring your favorite pet or animal, everything from dogs, cats, hamsters, birds, fish, ferrets, turtles, lizards and giraffes, for a special St. Francis blessing.

St. Peregrine Cancer Prayer Ministry:

Five years ago, began this ministry to pray for those with cancer and their families /caregivers. The ministry continues its support, even during these covid-19 times. Names can now be sent confidentially by email to frtomcswanseae@gmail.com. St. Peregrine is one of the Patron Saints of Cancer Patients and many miracles have been attributed to his intercession. We may not always have the right words to say, but we can pray for you. Names are not made public, but please know your intentions are being prayed for every day. A prayer request can be made for free by emailing, but please mention St. Peregrine cancer ministry in your email. Once your intention is registered into this ministry of prayer, your intention will always be lifted in prayer every day confidentially. In the coming weeks there will be packets at the doors of the Church with more information.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion:

We missed your involvement during the pandemic, but it is now time to bring this necessary ministry back. The plan is to begin the weekend of October 16th and 17th for weekends Masses and daily masses. A schedule will be provided. Face coverings and hand sanitizing is required. Welcome Back! We will also be bringing back the procession of offertory gifts that weekend.

Even though they may look alike and share many responsibilities, deacons are not priests. By Deacon Gary M. John Sometimes going to Mass can be confusing for a Catholic unfamiliar with deacons. Both clergy members wear vestments at Mass and in the Fall River diocese, both even wear Roman collars. To clear much of the confusion priests, wear black colored clerical shirts and deacons gray-colored clerical shirts.

However, while deacons and priests may sometimes appear to be the same, their roles in the Church are very different.

The USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) provides a succinct definition of a deacon and his particular role in the Church.

"A deacon is an ordained minister of the Catholic Church. There are three groups, or 'orders,' of ordained ministers in the Church: bishops, presbyters, and deacons. Deacons are ordained as a sacramental sign to the Church and to the world of Christ, who came 'to serve and not to be served.' The entire Church is called by Christ to serve, and the deacon, in virtue of his sacramental ordination and through his various ministries, is to be a servant in a servant-Church."

Deacons have been around the Church since the very beginning, frequently being referenced in the New Testament. The most well-known reference to deacons in the New Testament is from the Acts of the Apostles. It reads, "And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, 'It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty'" (Acts 6:2-3).

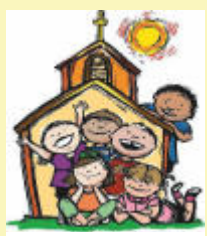

Practically speaking deacons can do many activities that priests are also ordained to perform. Deacons can baptize, deliver Homilies during Mass, officiate/witness at a Catholic wedding, and even run a parish (with the permission of the local bishop). Deacons can also lead communion services that look and feel like a Catholic Mass.

Deacons, however, can NOT consecrate the Eucharist or hear confessions. They can NOT administer the sacraments of Confirmation or Anointing of the Sick.

Simply put, deacons are meant to be servants, assisting the pastor (and Church) in whatever way he can.

All priests and bishops are also deacons because the diaconate is the first of the three stages of Holy Orders. Deacons who go on to be ordained priests are known as transitional deacons. They are vowed to celibacy. Men who serve in the permanent diaconate — meaning they will not, as a rule, proceed to priestly ordination — may be married at the time of their ordination, but may not remarry if their spouse passes away.

The permanent diaconate is a specific vocation in the Church, one that depends on the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. God is the one who calls deacons to service in the Church through the sacrament of Holy Orders. It is important to remember that it is not something that is gained by going through the ranks of the Church, but something that is given (and received) through the grace of God. In a future writing I will address my road to Diaconate Ordination.
