6th SUNDAY OF EASTER

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another." - Jn 15:16-17

6^o DOMINGO DE PASCUA

"No son ustedes los que me han elegido, soy yo quien los ha elegido y los ha destinado para que vayan y den fruto y su fruto permanezca, de modo que el Padre les conceda cuanto le pidan en mi nombre. Esto es lo que les mando: que se amen los unos a los otros" - Jn 15, 16-17

How to be a Good Friend of Jesus

Servanthood is the mark of true Christian living. Jesus emphasized this during the Last Supper, saying that he came not to be served, but to serve, and that likewise we should serve one another. In his parables, he often referred to believers as “servants” of the Kingdom. But in this Sunday’s Gospel reading, Jesus says that he wants us to be his friends, not his slaves. Is he contradicting himself? Not at all! Friends serve because they care. Slaves serve because of duty and the fear of punishment. Jesus said, “If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love.” Do we hear this as a friend or as a slave? Slaves are afraid of what will happen if they fail to keep God’s commandments; they are self-protective. Friends are eager to find out what God commands, because they view the commandments from the perspective of love, as opportunities to serve; they are other-oriented. Jesus said, “This is my commandment: Love one another the way I love you.” It’s the supreme commandment; call it the Commandment of Friendship. He says, “You know how I love you, my friends: I openly share with you everything that the Father tells me.” His friends realize that what he shares (through scripture and through the Church) reveals our opportunities to love. Every commandment is rooted in love. Every Church teaching is based on scriptures that help us know when and how to love. When we fail to obey, do we lose God’s love? Never! Do we lose our place in his love? Yes. By living outside of his commandments, we feel unloved even while being loved. This is slavery. We’re enslaved by fear or by false beliefs or by our wounds that have caused us to think that we’re not loved enough. God’s commandments then feel confining, and if we try to escape, we commit rebellion. Those who don’t rebel accept their slavery and obey dutifully in the hope of winning God’s love. Friends, on the other hand, know that God always loves them, and in this love, they are free to serve one another joyfully. © 2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Cómo Ser un Buen Amigo de Jesús Servicio es la marca de la verdadera vida cristiana. Jesús lo enfatizó durante la Última Cena, diciendo que no vino a ser servido sino a servir, y que nosotros deberíamos hacer lo mismo unos con otros. En sus parábolas, se refería a menudo a los creyentes como “sirvientes” de su Reino. Pero en la lectura del Evangelio de este Domingo, Jesús dice que quiere que seamos sus amigos, no sus esclavos. ¿Se está contradiciendo a sí mismo? ¡Para nada! Los amigos se asisten porque se preocupan. Los esclavos sirven porque es su deber y por temor al castigo. Jesús dijo: “Si guardan mis mandamientos, permanecerán en mi amor.” ¿Escuchamos esto como amigo o como esclavo? Los esclavos temen lo que sucederá si fracasan al guardar los mandamientos de Dios; se autoprotegen. Los amigos están ansiosos por saber qué manda Dios, porque ven los mandamientos desde la perspectiva del amor, como oportunidades para servir; están orientados hacia los demás. Jesús dijo: “Este es mi mandamiento: ámense los unos a los otros como yo los amo a ustedes.” Es el mandamiento supremo; llámalo el Mandamiento de la Amistad. Él dice: “Ustedes saben cómo los amo, mis amigos: comparto con ustedes todo lo que el Padre me dice.” Sus amigos se dan cuenta que lo que comparte (a través de las escrituras y a través de la Iglesia) revela nuestras oportunidades para amar. Cada mandamiento está enraizado en el amor. Cada enseñanza de la Iglesia está basada en escrituras que pueden ayudarnos a saber cuándo y cómo amar. Cuando fracasamos al obedecer, ¿perdemos el amor de Dios? ¡Nunca! ¿Perdemos nuestro lugar en su amor? Sí. Viviendo fuera de sus mandamientos, no nos sentimos amados, aún mientras somos amados. Esto es esclavitud. Estamos esclavizados por el temor o por falsas creencias o por nuestras heridas que nos hacen pensar que no somos amados lo suficiente. Entonces, los mandamientos de Dios parecen limitarnos y si tratamos de escapar, cometemos una rebeldía. Aquellos que no se rebelan, aceptan su esclavitud y obedecen por obligación con la esperanza de ganarse el amor de Dios. Los amigos, por otra parte, saben que Dios siempre los ama, y que en este amor, son libres de servirse unos a otros alegremente. @2020 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com.

Motherhood Matters

God cares about all of your motherhood matters, both big and small. Jesus tells us that the “very hairs of your head are all numbered” and that God knows when a sparrow falls. “Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows” (Luke 12:7). When you are drowning in diapers or losing arguments to tweenagers, God is there with you and he cares about all of these matters.

Cuarto Mandamiento: Fortalecer tu familia

“Honra a tu padre y a tu madre” (Éxodo 20,12). Con este mandamiento, el Señor reveló la importancia y la gran dignidad de la vida familiar. La familia, que es un ícono de la Santísima Trinidad, fue creada para ser nuestra primera experiencia de amor, y como Iglesia doméstica, la familia nos enseña cómo darnos a los demás en amor y gozo. Esta sesión explorará el propósito de la vida familiar en el plan de Dios.

Serving in Love...

Congratulations to our Youth in receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation!

It is always a joy to share this day with our students. Let's remember that the Holy Spirit is always at work in all our young people and that we should continue to pray for them as they continue their journey of faith!

Thoughts from the Principal Debbie Traum

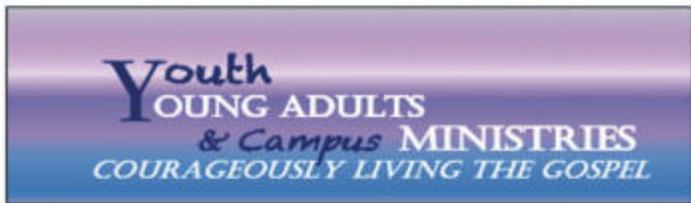

Happy Mother's Day!

She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.
She speaks with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her tongue.
She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:

Janet Hastings, jhastings@visitstfrancis.org

This weekend we celebrate many things with our Religious Education families. Sunday morning will conclude our year with a prayer service devoted to Mary and mothers. We will be having crafts and activities that are centered around Mary and a special craft just for our mothers. Thank you to all the families who have faithfully participated in our Religious Education program this year! I know that it has been tough and I thank you for being patient and flexible. And thank you to all our volunteers this year! It would not have happened without you! Thank you and God bless all of you!

First Reconciliation and Eucharist

There are still a couple families who will be receiving their First Communion in the month of May. They will be part of our regularly scheduled Masses. What a wonderful reminder of our very First Communion and the day we got to receive this special gift! Please continue to pray for our students who are receiving First Communion. If you have not yet scheduled your First Communion, please contact Janet Hastings.

Do you know a kindergarten or above student who needs to prepare for Reconciliation and Eucharist? Please have them register for next years religious education program through the parish or the parish school. Doing this ensures they are ready to prepare for sacraments by second grade or in two years. If you are interested in preparing for sacraments please email Janet Hastings or call the parish office, 410-742-6443. Thank you!

Growing in Faith...

Memorial Wall

Would you like to remember a loved one with a memorial candle that will be lit for an entire year? An engraved label identifying who the candle is in memory of or as a tribute to a loved one is placed on one of the candles in the hall as you enter the Chapel of the Saints in St. Francis de Sales Church. Please call the office for more information.

Our Parish App Stay Connected!

Our app is available to give you information about our parish community at your fingertips. The parish calendar, bulletin, sacrament information, daily readings, Sunday prayer intentions and last-minute changes in the schedule are all accessible on our app!

To download, go to your app store and search WeConnect Parish App. Once the app is downloaded you will need to select our parish by typing in Salisbury. If you would like help with this, please contact the parish office. The app is a great way to stay connected to what is happening in our parish.

Parish Needs Campaign Update

Just an update on how the campaign is going. So far to date we have collected $268,124.15 of the $863,867 that is needed to complete the three large projects.

- The Holy Redeemer Project for $53,000 which replaced the HVAC in the hallway and hall. This project has been completed.
- The Parish School HVAC for $455,867.00 a contract has been signed and the work will begin starting the day after school closes for the summer, June 16th, 2021.
- The St. Francis de Sales church Roof $355,000 (estimate). We are still working on estimates, project pending.

We are continuing to pursue grants that may be available for these projects. So far we have received $50,000 in one grant and $6,357 in another grant from the State. These funds are not included in the above figure. We just wanted to let everyone know that all funds are considered restricted to ensure that all monies will be held for these projects and can't be used for other projects. When we complete the projects any funds we receive at a later date will go toward mortgage debt at that time. If you wish to pledge funds you can do so by using our online giving program at www.visitsfrancis.org and choose the pledge that fits your budget. The program will accept weekly/bi-weekly/monthly/quarterly and annual pledges. If you have any questions, please call the parish office at 410-742-6443. Thank you for your continued generosity, it is greatly appreciated.

KNIGHTWATCH!

HAPPY MOTHERS DAY! For all who are blessed and fortunate enough to have mothers living, what a beautiful opportunity today presents to thank them for the gift of life, and for all that they've done to nurture, teach and guide. For those whose mothers' earthly lives have ended and who have been called to life eternal, what a joy to think that they are today enjoying unimaginable happiness in the presence of our Heavenly Mother, Mary, the Mother of God, and perhaps also in celestial reunification with their own mothers. Let us remember all mothers in our prayers today, including expectant mothers, especially those who are expecting their first child! Let us not forget those mothers who are experiencing difficulty in their motherhood, that they may place their trust in the love and mercy of Mary's Divine Son. As has become our custom, Knights will today honor our Blessed Mother and show appreciation for all who choose life, by handing out marigolds to those departing parish Masses. Marigold, Mary, GOLD!

The Knights of Columbus, St. Francis de Sales Council #3489. We meet at 7:30 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month in the St. Francis de Sales Church Hall, down the steps from the church parking lot. As a COVID-19 virus precaution, these meetings may also be accessed remotely via ZOOM. To request ZOOM access, please contact Ernie Matthews at: ernie29@comcast.net. Additionally, general information on joining the Knights may be found on the internet at www.kofc.org. There you may conveniently complete a membership application form at "Join Us". Thank you!

Please Pray for Priests

This coming week we will celebrate the anniversary of the deaths of three priests who served the Diocese of Wilmington: Charles McGoldrick (1928), John Tierney (1941) and John Daly (1933). None of these priests were assigned to St. Francis de Sales.

SFdS Playground Tile Fundraiser - Order Form

The Playground Committee is holding a Tile Sale Fundraiser to help fund our new playground. We are selling tiles that our students, alumni, and church members can sign. These will then be put in the fence links to make a design on the fence beside Riverside Drive! Along with funding our playground, this will be a great way to advertise our awesome school! The design that we'll make together as a school is shown above. You can look at this website to see what the tiles will look like: <https://www.putincups.com/>. Please put the signature that you would like on each tile below, and we will mark the tiles in school for you! You can put your initials, name, or dedicate the tile to a friend or family member. The tiles are 2" by 2" and will be signed with a sharpie marker, then coated with a sealer. Please turn in the order form below by May 21st if you would like to purchase tiles.

Tile prices are as follows, and one volunteer hour can be earned for every $10 spent!

$10 - 1 tile

$30 - 5 tiles

$50 - 10 tiles

Tiles will be sold after all Masses at St. Francis de Sales Church on Saturday, May 15th and Sunday, May 16th.

Please indicate the signature that you would like on each of your tiles!
