Rejected, Misunderstood, Disbelieved

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, we see the painful truth of what happens when we share our faith with those who knew us before we became alive in our faith. Like Jesus, we are rejected, misunderstood, and disbelieved by people who don't understand why we changed. They feel threatened by our example; they don't want to consider their own need to change. We sound like fanatics to them, and they use this as an excuse to remain uninfluenced by our testimony. Jesus changed after he quit living an ordinary life in an ordinary town with an ordinary job to begin a ministry that would instigate persecution, and he invited everyone to follow his example. How crazy does that sound? Making matters worse, he was now spending all of his time trying to change the status quo of everyone's normal life and their normal ways of relating to others and their normal attitudes about religion -- even affecting the status quo of those who did not want to follow him and become like him. People don't like to be challenged, especially when it means giving up what's familiar and comfortable. However, this is not a reason for us to keep silent. We have been called by Christ to share the good news about him. We must make it known that conversion is important, or else we are sinning against him and against those who need to learn more about him. We fulfill this mission by sharing our personal conversion stories and our spiritual insights, and especially by making this an invitation rather than by demanding that others change. If you're being rejected because of this, remember that Jesus understands how you feel. Let the sting of their rejection be replaced by an awareness that God is very pleased with you. © 2021 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Printed by permission.

Parish Council

Normally we elect our Parish Council in May, but because of the adjustments due to COVID, things have been delayed. We have ten candidates for three elected positions and three appointed positions. The list of candidates is in this week's bulletin. We will vote for the candidates the weekend of July 10th & 11th. I meet with Parish Council September 14th, November 9th, January 18th, March 8th, and May 10th. Our meetings run between 60 and 90 minutes.

Rechazado, Malinterpretado, no Creído

En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, vemos la dolorosa verdad de lo que sucede cuando compartimos nuestra fe con aquellos que nos conocían antes que esa fe fuera reavivada. Como Jesús, somos rechazados, malinterpretados y no creídos por las personas que no entienden por qué cambiamos. Se sienten amenazados por nuestro ejemplo; no quieren considerar su propia necesidad de cambio. Parecemos fanáticos para ellos y usan esto como una excusa para permanecer inmovibles ante nuestro testimonio. Jesús cambió después de abandonar una vida ordinaria, en un pueblo ordinario, con un trabajo ordinario, para comenzar un ministerio que instigaría la persecución, e invitaría a todos a seguir su ejemplo. ¿Qué tan loco suena eso? Para empeorar las cosas, ahora pasaba todo su tiempo tratando de cambiar el status quo de la vida normal de todos y sus formas normales de relacionarse con otros y sus actitudes normales hacia la religión -- incluso afectando el status quo de aquellos que no querían seguirlo y ser como él. A las personas no les gusta que se las desafíe, especialmente cuando significa abandonar lo que es familiar y confortable. No obstante, esta no es una razón para que permanezcamos en silencio. Hemos sido llamados por Cristo para compartir las buenas nuevas sobre él. Debemos hacer que se sepa que la conversión es importante o, de lo contrario, estaremos pecando contra él y contra aquellos que necesitan conocer más de él. Cumplimos con esta misión compartiendo nuestras historias de conversión personal y discernimiento espiritual y haciendo de esto una invitación en lugar de demandar que los demás cambien. Si estás siendo rechazado por esta causa, recuerda que Jesús comprende cómo te sientes. Deja que el aguijón de su rechazo sea reemplazado por la seguridad de que Dios está muy complacido contigo. © 2021 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either. ©LPi

Thoughts from the Principal

Debbie Traum
dtraum@sfdscs.org

Educators and parents know that along with the fun of summer comes a backwards slide in student content and skill knowledge. For this reason, St. Francis de Sales Catholic School has always encouraged its students to continue to work and learn over the break.

Teachers of grades kindergarten through eighth provide reading and math activities that give students practice to keep up their stamina in these subject areas.

This requirement is a sample of the rigorous curriculum and expectations that St. Francis de Sales has been associated with for more than 70 years. Our alumni consistently share that they have been well prepared for high school and beyond.

Another example of our expectations is the profile of our eighth grade graduates which grew out of our Middle States Accreditation standards recently.

"A St. Francis de Sales graduate models Jesus in thoughts, words, and deeds while:

- Recognizing God in others while acting with kindness, courage, and peace.
- Living out faith, mercy, empathy, and justice through service.
- Possessing critical thinking and problem solving skills.
- Demonstrating academic integrity and effective study habits.
- Listening actively and communicating effectively.
- Utilizing and adapting to technology.
- Aspiring to higher education and career readiness."

If you would like to learn more about our school, please contact our advancement director, Sarah Passarell. You can call the school for a tour at 410-749-9907 or email Sarah directly at spassarell@sfdscs.org.

Did you know that you are called to be a saint? This seems like an overwhelming task and such a big responsibility! Saints are people who love God with all of their heart. Saints are people who love all other human beings. And saints are people of prayer. It doesn't seem so tough when you break it into smaller pieces. Brainstorm some ideas that can help you become a saint!

How can I love God with all my heart?

How can I love others?

When can I pray?

KNIGHTWATCH!

Independence Day is a time to set aside our political and social differences and endeavor to celebrate the American dream in its very best sense and be, together: one nation under God, with liberty and justice for all. We Knights of Columbus espouse Patriotism as one of our four core principals. Once, President Ronald Reagan, the son of a Knight, said in a speech: "All that you do as Knights of Columbus arises from the fundamental values that you hold dear - your belief in a just and loving God, in the validity of hard work, in the central importance of the family." Receiving Reagan in the Vatican, Pope John Paul II expressed to him the hope "that the entire structure of American life will rest on the strong foundation of moral and spiritual values". Later, referring to the Pope's words, the president stated: "Let us do what the Knights of Columbus have always been especially good at. Let us WORK to make it so." Good words then, good words now.

The Knights of Columbus, St. Francis de Sales Council #3489. We meet at 7:30 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month in the St. Francis de Sales Church Hall, down the steps from the church parking lot. As a COVID-19 virus precaution, these meetings may also be accessed remotely via ZOOM. To request ZOOM access, please contact Ernie Matthews at: ernie29@comcast.net. Additionally, general information on joining the Knights may be found on the internet at www.kofc.org. There you may conveniently complete a membership application form at "Join Us". Thank you!
