The Nature of Our Calling

Whenever I read this Sunday's Gospel story, I have to wonder, how did Jesus catch the fish he was barbecuing when the disciples came ashore? Did he have a net, too? Did he buy it in town with the bread? If so, didn't anyone recognize him? Or maybe the fish just jumped out of the water onto the fire! And maybe he turned stone into bread, like Satan had once tempted him to do. Reflect back upon the miracle of the multiplication of loaves and fishes. Same foods: bread and fish. Same miracle! It does not matter how little we have or even whether we have anything at all. God the Creator has an infinite supply and is able to produce an abundance of everything. It's never based on what we have; it's always based on the love he has for us. What he wants from us is the willingness to do the work of sharing what God provides. In the miracle of feeding the crowd, the disciples were asked to distribute the multiplied food. In the miracle of the huge catch of fish, the disciples were asked to "bring some of the fish you caught" and add it to the meal that Jesus was already cooking. Afterward, Peter was asked to share the love he had for Jesus with the "sheep". From where does love come? Peter didn't love anybody by his own efforts; none of us do. Peter was created with God's love already in him, as we all were, for we were made in the image of God who is love. Peter's calling was to share the abundance of God's love, so that the kingdom of God could continue to spread throughout the earth. What is God asking you to do? The answer does not lie in what you have, but in what you are willing to do with what God already has. © 2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Printed by permission. La naturaleza de nuestro llamado

Cada vez que leo la historia del Evangelio de este domingo, tengo que preguntarme, ¿cómo pescó Jesús el pez que estaba asando cuando los discípulos llegaron a tierra? ¿Tenía una red también? ¿Lo compró en la ciudad con el pan? Si fue así, ¿es que nadie lo reconoció? ¡O tal vez el pescado saltó fuera del agua sobre el fuego! Y tal vez convirtió la piedra en pan, como lo había tentado Satanás una vez. Reflexiona, nuevamente, sobre el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes y los peces. Los mismos alimentos: pan y pescado. ¡El mismo milagro! No importa lo poco que tenemos, o incluso si no tenemos nada en absoluto. Dios el Creador tiene un suministro infinito y es capaz de producir de todo en abundancia. Nunca se basa en lo que tenemos; siempre se basa en el amor que tiene por nosotros. Lo que quiere de nosotros es la voluntad de hacer la obra de compartir lo que Dios provee. En el milagro de alimentar a la multitud, se pidió a los discípulos distribuir la comida multiplicada. En el milagro de la enorme cantidad de peces, se les pidió a los discípulos "traer algunos de los peces que atraparon" y añadirlo a la comida que Jesús ya estaba cocinando. Después, se le pidió a Pedro compartir con la "oveja" el amor que sentía por Jesús. ¿De dónde viene el amor? Pedro no amaba a nadie por su propio esfuerzo; ninguno de nosotros puede. Pedro fue creado ya con el amor de Dios en él, al igual que todos nosotros, porque fuimos hechos a imagen de Dios que es amor. El llamado de Pedro fue compartir la abundancia del amor de Dios, para que el reino de Dios pudiese seguir extendiéndose por toda la tierra. ¿Qué está Dios, pidiéndote que hagas? La respuesta no está en lo que tienes, sino en lo que estás dispuesto a hacer con lo que Dios ya tiene. ©2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Impreso con derechos. Growing in Faith...

Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal

In today's gospel, we once again hear of the disciples encountering Jesus. And Jesus calls the disciples to "tend my sheep...feed my sheep...follow Me." The disciples show us time and time again, Walking By Faith, ordinary people accomplish extraordinary things. As men and women of faith, we are like those disciples, living our lives in the real world, walking along with Jesus who is always there accompanying us. Our Lord asks us: to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked and attend to the needs of our brothers and sisters not only in our parishes and diocese but throughout the world.

The Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal, with its theme "Walking By Faith", challenges each of us to bear witness to our faith and open our minds and hearts to bring those less fortunate closer to God's table. To know Christ is to know His message of salvation; to love Christ is to imitate His love for all people; and to serve Christ is to manifest His teachings through acts of Christian Stewardship.

This weekend you are invited to participate in the 2022 Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal. Please respond by pledging a sacrificial gift to this important campaign.

It's the Universal Church

We have been invited by the Holy Father, Pope Francis, to participate in Pre-Synod preparation for Synod 2023. He has called this Synod gathering of Bishops throughout the world to be a time for the Church to focus on the topic of synodality itself. The two fundamental questions that will guide this process are: "How does this 'journeying together' take place today on different levels (from the local level to the universal level), allowing the Church to proclaim the Gospel?" and "What steps is the Spirit inviting us to take in order to grow as a synodal Church?" (Preparatory Document, 2).

Here is a message from our Bishop William Koenig, last year, "I am eager to share with you that on Sunday, October 17, 2021 we will be joining dioceses throughout the world in commencing our own Diocesan Pre-Synod here in the Diocese of Wilmington. Pope Francis has challenged our Church to "journey together" and our Pre-Synod will provide us the opportunity to live out this calling.

Our parish sent five representatives to participate in the Deanery Listening Session and now we will have Listening Sessions in our parish community. Our general gathering will be Monday, May 16th at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Francis de Sales Church Hall.
