A people of prayer...

Graduate Blessing

This weekend we will be blessing graduates of high school, college, vocational programs and all institutions of higher learning.

Altar Server

If you would like to be an altar server and you are an adult or a student in 4th grade or older, please schedule a training time with Michele Harris mharris@visitsfrancis.org or 410-742-6443.

Memorial Day

There will be one Mass celebrated on Memorial Day, May 30th at 9:00 a.m. in St. Francis de Sales Church. Parish and school offices will be closed that day.

Be Prepared

Take time to reflect on God’s Word in preparation for the Sixth Sunday of Easter:

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Second Reading: Revelations 21:10-14, 22-23

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Daily scriptures may be read or listened to at www.usccb.org.

Livestreamed Mass

We livestream two weekend Masses: Saturday at 5:30 p.m. and Sunday at 12:00 noon (Spanish). You can access the link to our YouTube channel on our website homepage www.visitsfrancis.org.

Altar Flowers

Flowers on the altar of St. Francis de Sales next weekend are in loving memory of Huong Ngo from the Pham family.

Flowers on the altars of one of our churches may be donated in memory of a loved one or for a special occasion. Please call the parish office for details.

Safety Reminder

Parents, please escort young children to the restroom. We ask that all large bags or backpacks be left in your car so as to not hinder movement in and out of the pews. Please use the handicap spaces for wheelchairs and strollers for ease of movement down our aisles. Thank you!

May They Rest in Peace

Each week at Mass we pray for those within our parish community who have recently died. We will pray for a parishioner’s immediate family from another parish. Please call the parish office with the loved one’s name.

Reflecciones del Parroco

The Glorious Mission

If you knew you were about to die, what wisdom would you impart to your loved ones in your final moments? What's most important for them to learn from you? In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus knows that his time is short. The first thing he says to his friends are words of praise for God (the Father) while equating himself with God. He even calls his friends "children" as if he himself is God the Father! In so doing, he makes it clear that he is one with the Father -- so totally that the lines between Father and Savior are blurred. And he does it humbly. He could have said, "Hey guys, in case you're not sure, I am divine. I am God. Worship me." But instead, he focuses on the glory of God. Glory is the radiating light of God's presence: his love, his joy, his holiness, his peace, his wisdom, his creativity, and everything else that he imparts on those who want to bathe in his glory. When we glorify God, we are reflecting back to him this same glory. How much of this glory is illuminating your life? After describing the exchange of glory between Father and Son, Jesus imparts to his disciples the highest wisdom of the universe: the key to successfully joining Jesus in the glory of God is to love as he loves. Love is not love unless it unselfishly gives itself to others. Jesus unselfishly gave himself to us completely, even in death. Followers of Jesus are not true followers, disciples are not true disciples, priests are not true priests, lay leaders are not true leaders, unless they serve with love, in love, and through love. The glory of God is love that gives itself completely, even sacrificially. Why does the Gospel reading give us a scene from the Passion of Christ while we're celebrating the season of Easter? The other readings are full of Easter: "Behold, I make all things new" (Rev. 21:5a). And yet here is Jesus preparing for betrayal, torture, and death. Why? This Gospel reading is Jesus imparting to us today the key to continuing the mission of sharing God's glory, which Jesus began and now calls us to do. By loving one another in a spirit of sacrifice, we are showing the world that Jesus is real, he is risen, and he is alive in us. © 2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. FORMED ON DEMAND

FORMED: Ninth Day

The Ninth Day transforms an ethical crisis into a nail biting showdown and unspeakable horror into transcendent redemption. From inside the hell of the Dachau concentration camp "Priest Block". Father Henri Kremer clings to a fragile life and challenged faith.

La Misión Gloriosa

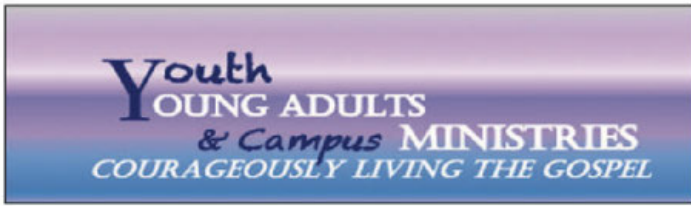

Si supieras que estás a punto de morir, ¿qué sabiduría impartirías a tus seres queridos en tus últimos momentos? ¿Qué sería lo más importante que ellos aprendan de ti? En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús sabe que le queda poco tiempo. Lo primero que le dice a sus amigos son palabras de alabanza a Dios (Padre), mientras se equipara a sí mismo con Dios. ¡Incluso llama a sus amigos "hijos" como si Él mismo fuera Dios Padre! De este modo, deja claro que Él es uno con el Padre – tanto así que las líneas entre el Padre y Salvador están borrosas. Y lo hace con humildad. Podría haber dicho, "Chicos, en caso de que no estén seguros, soy divino. Yo soy Dios. Adórenme." Pero, en cambio, se centra en la gloria de Dios. La gloria es la luz que irradia la presencia de Dios: su amor, su alegría, su santidad, su paz, su sabiduría, su creatividad, y todo lo que imparte en los que quieren sumergirse en su gloria. Cuando glorificamos a Dios, estamos reflejándole, de vuelta, esta misma gloria. ¿Cuánto de esta gloria está iluminando tu vida? Después de describir el intercambio de gloria entre el Padre y el Hijo, Jesús imparte a sus discípulos la mayor sabiduría del universo: la clave para unirse exitosamente a Jesús en la gloria de Dios es amar como Él ama. El amor no es amor a menos que, desinteresadamente, se entregue a los demás. Jesús, desinteresadamente, se nos entregó por completo, incluso en la muerte. Los seguidores de Jesús no son verdaderos seguidores, los discípulos no son verdaderos discípulos, los sacerdotes no son verdaderos sacerdotes, los líderes laicos no son verdaderos líderes, a menos que sirvan con amor, en el amor y por el amor. La gloria de Dios es amor que se entrega por completo, incluso con sacrificio. ¿Por qué la lectura del Evangelio nos da una escena de la Pasión de Cristo mientras estamos celebrando la Pascua? Las otras lecturas están llenas de Pascua: "He aquí, yo hago nuevas todas las cosas" (Ap 21, 5a). Y, sin embargo, aquí está Jesús preparándose para la traición, la tortura y la muerte. ¿Por qué? Esta lectura del Evangelio, es Jesús impartiéndonos hoy, la clave para continuar con la misión de compartir la gloria de Dios, que Jesús comenzó y nos llama ahora a nosotros a hacer. Amándonos unos a otros en un espíritu de sacrificio, estamos mostrando al mundo que Jesús es real, ha resucitado, y está vivo en nosotros. ©2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Formed: El noveno día

El noveno Día transforma una compleja crisis ética en una historia para comerse las uñas, y un horror impronunciado en una historia de redención trascendente. Desde el infierno que se vive al interior de la "celda de los curas" del campo de concentración de Dachau, el Padre Henri Kremer se aferra a una vida sin fuerzas y a una fe que ha sido puesto a prueba.

Our last faith formation event of the year was a success! It was moved inside due to rainy weather, but families still got to celebrate a wonderful year growing as brothers and sisters in Christ.

2022-23 Religious Education Registration

Be on the lookout for information about registering for next year’s Faith Formation! If you are interested in becoming a catechist or would like more information about Children’s Faith Formation, please email me at the above email address.

First Reconciliation and Eucharist

Thank you to all our volunteers who made our First Eucharist Retreat a success! Our families had a wonderful time preparing to receive the gift of Christ. Our next gathering will be the practice on Thursday, June 16th at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Francis de Sales Church. If you have not yet received your First Reconciliation, please email me to schedule a time. Thank you! Please be working on your blue First Eucharist book at home.

If you are interested in participating in the sacramental preparation process for the 2022-2023 year, please email me at the email address above for more information. Thank you!

Thoughts from the Principal

Debbie Traum

dtraum@sfdscs.org

Each year the middle school students participate in a STEM competition. This year we tried something different. Rather than hosting a small scale, in-house competition, we chose to venture into an outside platform.

Our students submitted their projects to eCybermission. This is an online science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) competition for students in grades six through nine that promotes teamwork, self-discovery, and the real-life applications of STEM. Students work in teams, with the help of a Team Advisor, to choose a problem in their community to explore with science or solve with engineering. Students experience STEM firsthand and learn how they can use it to change the world while interacting with STEM professionals and competing for state, regional, and national awards. eCybermission students have applied for and received patents, expanded their projects into businesses, and achieved further national recognition, including the first ever TIME's "Kid of the Year". eCybermission is part of the U.S. Army Educational Outreach Program (AEOP) and administered by the National Science Teaching Association (NSTA).

The team advisor, Miss Jen Kirchner, stated that students worked hard and chose some current topics to explore. Several of our school teams earned accolades for the State of Maryland. First Place winners received $1,000 U.S. savings bonds for each member and Second Place teams earned a $500 bond for each member. One team advanced to the regional competition as finalists for which they won an additional $1,000 savings bond for each member.*

Our State of Maryland Winners

6th Grade

1st Place – Beach Club (Ehrin Dorsey, Gianna Parks)

Honorable Mention – Chemistry Clan (Leo Darrigo, Brandon Ortega, Gabby Kelley, Makinley Conway)

7th Grade

1st Place – Kakorrhaphiophobia Quartet (Elise Garde, Ashley Pineda, Vilma Allison, Evan Bozick)

2nd Place – The People (Anna Nizza, Redding Nizza (6th), Carson Halfpap, Keily Arcos-Gandarilla)

Honorable Mention – The Rectangles (Sam Wilhite, Kristen Johnston, Jaxon Thomas, Leah Rodriguez)

Congratulations to our teams for winning $10,000!

Parish Council

Congratulations to the following: Debbie Meyers, Helen Darmetka and Bernie Pagliaro who were elected to three-year terms on the Parish Council; Diane Lockwood who was elected to a two-year term to replace Nancy Evans; and to Vince Luca, Ronnie Dorr and Andrew Illuminati for their one-year terms. Thank-you to Kim Anderson, Brian Trader and Nancy Evans for their service to the Parish Council.

Please Pray for Our Priests

This coming week we will celebrate the anniversary of the deaths of four priests who served the Diocese of Wilmington: Gaudens Gregory (1978), Frederick Campbell (1946), William McElwaine (1969), and Leo O'Neil (1986). Gaudens Gregory served St. Francis de Sales as an Associate in the 60's.

The Matter of Life

The Matter of Life is a documentary being shown at Regal Cinemas in Salisbury on Monday and Tuesday, May 16th and 17th at 7:00 p.m. Our Loving Life Committee will be attending the Tuesday showing. If you would like to join them, purchase your ticket and meet them in the theater. The movie looks at the complexities of the abortion issue through science, philosophy, history and powerful personal stories. The film addresses hard questions and provides hope for the future.

The cavernous ceiling in our St. Francis de Sales Church often makes it difficult to understand what is being said by those who are speaking on a microphone, despite our state-of-the-art sound system. We have installed a Hearing Assist program to be used from your smartphone with a headphone or earbuds for those who have experienced this issue.

1. Get the App - WaveCast Audio Receiver
2. At SFdS Church connect to the internet: SFdS Sound [password: digimix24]
3. Open App: click on St. Francis de Sales when it pops up on the top line.
4. With headphones on, adjust the sound.
