The Key to Successfully Loving as Jesus Loves

As this Sunday's Gospel reading points out, to love Jesus means to live by his commandments and teachings. In our hearts, we do want to do this. We want to honor Christ by imitating him. We want to love like Jesus loves. We know that God dwells in us when we do this. However, it isn't easy. Every day, stuff happens that challenges our ability to keep his word and imitate his ways. Either we forget what Jesus would have done in a similar situation, or we don't know. When people afflict us with their faults and failings and unloving behaviors, we fumble around in uncertainty and guesswork and sinful reactions. There is no list in scripture that spells out clearly how to follow Christ in each and every circumstance. This is why Jesus assured us that he'd give us his Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is here to remind us of Jesus and his holy ways every time we face another challenging situation, from the moment we wake up in the morning till the moment we're sleeping again. Then, our problem is not that we don't know how to keep the commandments of Christ. Our problem is that we forget to rely on the Holy Spirit who teaches us how to keep the commandments. Or we don't know how to be aware of his guidance. We have God's full assistance, but we react to life's challenges as if we must handle it by ourselves. Here's a spiritual exercise that can help you remember to stay open-eared to the sound of Holy Spirit guiding you: Sanctify each hour. Set your watch or a timer app on your cell phone to beep an alarm at the top of each hour. Whenever it beeps, say a few words thanking the Holy Spirit for being with you and guiding you through the next sixty minutes. After doing this for few weeks, you'll become automatically and constantly aware of the presence of God and his ever-available help © 2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. ### Ascension Ascension is celebrated in the Diocese of Wilmington on the 7th Sunday of Easter (next weekend).

La clave para amar con éxito igual que como ama Jesús

Como lo señala el Evangelio de este domingo, amar a Jesús significa vivir según sus mandamientos y enseñanzas. En nuestros corazones queremos hacerlo, queremos honrar a Cristo imitándolo. Queremos amar como ama Jesús. Sabemos que Dios mora en nosotros cuando lo hacemos. Sin embargo, no es fácil. Cada día, hay circunstancias que desafían nuestra habilidad para cumplir su palabra e imitar su ejemplo. O bien nos olvidamos de lo que Jesús hubiera hecho en una situación similar, o no lo sabemos. Cuando as personas nos afligen con sus faltas, errores o comportamientos desagradables, nos enredamos con confusiones, adivinaciones y reacciones pecaminosas. No hay una lista en las Escrituras, que diga claramente cómo seguir a Cristo en todas y cada una de las circunstancias: Por esto es que Jesús nos aseguró que nos daría su Santo Espíritu. El Espíritu Santo está aquí para recordarnos a Jesús y sus caminos cada vez que enfrentamos una situación desafiante, desde el momento en que nos despertamos hasta el momento en que nos dormimos otra vez. Entonces, nuestro problema no es que no sabemos cómo guardar los mandamientos de Cristo. Nuestro problema es que nos olvidamos de confiar en el Espíritu Santo, que nos enseña cómo guardar los mandamientos, o no sabemos cómo ser conscientes de sus indicaciones. Tenemos toda la ayuda de Dios, pero reaccionamos a los desafíos de la vida como si tuviéramos que manejarlos nosotros mismos. He aquí un ejercicio espiritual que puede ayudarte a recordar que debes tener los oídos abiertos al sonido del Espíritu Santo guiándote: santifica cada hora. Ajusta tu reloj o una aplicación de alarma en tu teléfono celular, para que suene a cada hora. Cada vez que suene la alarma, di unas palabras agradeciendo al Espíritu Santo por estar contigo guiándote por los próximos sesenta minutos. Después de hacer esto durante unas semanas, te sentirás automática y constantemente consciente de la presencia y la ayuda de Dios siempre disponible. ©2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Alumni News!

Salisbury University junior Emily Alessandrini was named the 2022 Student Paper Award winner by the American Society for Clinical Laboratory Science (ASCLS). Emily graduated 8th grade from St. Francis de Sales in 2015. Alessandrini, a medical laboratory science major from Quantico, Maryland, and member of SU's Glenda Chatham and Robert G. Clarke Honors College, submitted her honors thesis paper, "Survivability of Clinically Significant Organisms on Blood Glucose Test Strips," to the national competition of the Education Scientific Assemblies at ASCLS.

The research, completed with faculty mentor Dr. Diane Davis, chair of SU's Medical Laboratory Science Program, included testing the survivability of clinically significant bacteria and yeast on glucose test strips used to assess blood sugar in diabetics. When diabetics prick their skin to test blood glucose, if the strips are contaminated with microorganisms, they can be infected. Infections are problematic in anyone, but particularly in diabetics, making the results of this study impactful to many.

The award is not the first accolade Alessandrini has earned for this research. She received a national American Proficiency Institute (API) scholarship and a University Student Academic Research Award (USARA) grant, and her work was selected for presentation at the 2021 Northeast Regional Honors Council (NRHC) Annual Conference and the 2021 National Conference on Undergraduate Research (NCUR).

The award will be presented at the 2022 ASCLS annual meeting in Grand Rapids, MI.

Congratulations to Emily for her STEM-focused research!

Growing in Faith...

Please Pray for Our Priests

This week we celebrate the anniversaries of the deaths of two priests and two bishops: James Comiskey (1923); Eugene Clarahan (1999); Bishop Mardaga (1984) and Bishop Burke (1994). Neither of the priests were assigned to Saint Francis de Sales. Both bishops conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation here.

Synod—What Now?

Thank you to those who took the time to participate in one of our parish Synod Listening Sessions. Our parish reports have been collated and the results sent to Fr. Evers in our diocesan office. He and his committee will compile the reports from all the parishes in the Diocese of Wilmington and send a report to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Bishops Conference will then send a report to Rome where the strengths, challenges and action steps will be shared with the bishops of the world as they discern the needs of the whole Church as we journey together in faith.

You are invited to a Pre-Synod Gathering with Bishop William Koenig on Wednesday, June 22 at 6:00 p.m. at Holy Cross Church in Dover.

KNIGHTWATCH!

For many years our Council annually organized a golf tournament as, primarily, a social event. Then, in 2006, a few friends of the Little Sisters of Jesus and Mary and their Joseph House Ministries, intent on raising much-needed funds to help The Joseph House in its work as a crisis center, set about staging a JOSEPH HOUSE CHARITY GOLF TOURNAMENT at Green Hill Country Club. A group of our members agreed to serve on the committee. The tournament succeeded in raising over $14,000. That led to the idea of an annual tournament, so in 2007 the 2nd JHCGT was staged, and again proved highly successful. So much so that our Council decided to abandon its own tournament, and throw its manpower support instead to that of the Joseph House. It was a good decision! Having missed two years due to Covid, we will return, on Friday, October 7th, to Green Hill Country Club for the (belated!) FIFTEENTH Annual Joseph House Charity Golf Tournament. We'll be swingin' for the Little Sisters!

The Knights of Columbus, St. Francis de Sales Council #3489. We meet at 7:30 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month in the St. Francis de Sales Church Hall. To attend virtually, via ZOOM, contact Financial Secretary Ernie Matthews at ernie29@comcast.net for authorization and access instructions.
