There are a number of ways to donate to the Catholic Appeal this year: filling out a pledge envelope found in the vestibules and receive payment reminders, using online bill pay for single or ongoing payments, using your credit card or simply writing a check! Please go to our parish website for more information about how the Appeal helps the social justice and educational ministries in our diocese and our parish.

May They Rest in Peace

Please pray for those who have died and those who have lost a loved one. Last week in our prayer intentions we prayed for Jean Moaney, sister of Doris Butler.

Using IRA Distributions for Charity

An increasingly popular way to transfer IRA assets to charity is via a tax provision which allows IRA owners who are 70½ or older to direct up to $100,000 per year of their IRA distributions to charity. These distributions are known as qualified charitable distributions, or QCDs. The money given to charity counts toward the donor's required minimum distribution (RMD), but doesn't increase the donor's adjusted gross income or generate a tax bill.

Keeping the donation out of the donor's AGI (annual gross income) is important because doing so can (1) help the donor qualify for other tax breaks (for example, having a lower AGI can reduce the threshold for deducting medical expenses, which are only deductible when they exceed 10% of AGI); (2) reduce taxes on the donor's Social Security benefits; and/or (3) help the donor avoid a high-income surcharge for Medicare Part B and Part D premiums (which kick in if AGI is over certain levels).

Further, because charitable contributions will not yield a tax benefit for those taxpayers who no longer itemize their deductions (thanks to the larger standard deduction for 2018 and thereafter), those who are age 70½ or older and are receiving RMDs from IRAs, may gain a tax advantage by making annual charitable contributions by way of a QCD from an IRA. This charitable contribution will reduce RMDs by a commensurate amount, and the amount of the reduction will be tax-free.

As always, be sure to consult with your tax advisor on how you may benefit.

Partnering with Jesus in the Power of his Spirit

John 20:19-23 is one of two possible Gospel readings for Pentecost Sunday. In it, Jesus says “peace be with you” twice. First, he gives his disciples the gift of peace so that they can take their focus off of their worries to look at him and recognize him standing in their midst. Then he says it again while giving them the vocation of continuing the mission that he had started. This time, “peace be with you” is to be the fruit of a life lived in the Holy Spirit while serving God for the sake of the world. It’s one thing to feel peaceful because we know that Jesus is with us. It’s quite a challenge, though, to feel peaceful when telling others about Jesus, for we feel inadequate and overwhelmed, and we’re afraid of being persecuted and rejected. That’s why he gave us his Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit gives us whatever we need for doing the work that the Father asks of us, and thus we are not really inadequate nor does God fail to comfort us when people reject us. One of the fruits of partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit is an inner peace that does not depend on what happens, nor on what others do or don’t do to us, nor on how they respond to the Good News that we share with them. Peace is the result of being alive in the Spirit. Peace is the Spirit’s activity within us. At the end of this Gospel passage, Jesus gives the Apostles (the first Catholic priests) the authority to forgive sins as surrogates of his divine presence. He is instituting the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which provides to us Jesus himself in the form of the human priest. The same forgiving power of the Spirit enables all of us to experience peace in a sinful, tumultuous world. Even when forgiving is most difficult, in the Spirit of Christ we can do it. We can forgive those who hurt us, even if they never repent. And this is what restores our peace. © 2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. ### Asociándonos a Jesús en el poder de su Espíritu

Juan 20, 19--23 es una de las dos posibles lecturas del Evangelio para el Domingo de Pentecostés. En ella, Jesús dice “la paz esté con ustedes” dos veces. Primero, le da a sus discípulos el don de la paz para que puedan sacar su atención de sus problemas, mirarlo a Él y reconocerlo parado en medio de ellos. Luego lo repite, mientras les da la vocación de continuar con la misión que Él había comenzado. Esta vez, “la paz esté con ustedes” deberá ser el fruto de una vida vivida en el Espíritu Santo mientras sirven a Dios por el bien del mundo. Una cosa es sentirnos en paz porque sabemos que Jesús está dentro de nosotros. Pero, es todo un desafío sentirnos en paz cuando hablamos a los demás acerca de Jesús, porque nos sentimos incapaces y abrumados y tenemos temor de ser perseguidos y rechazados. Por ello es que nos dio su Espíritu Santo. El Espíritu Santo nos da todo lo que necesitamos para hacer la obra que el Padre nos pide que hagamos y, así, no somos verdaderamente incapaces y Dios puede consolarnos cuando las personas nos rechazan. Uno de los frutos de asociarnos con Jesús en el poder de su Espíritu es una paz interior que no depende de lo que sucede, ni de lo que otros nos hacen o dejan de hacernos, o de cómo responden a las Buenas Noticias que compartimos con ellos. La paz es el resultado de estar vivos en el Espíritu. La paz es la actividad del Espíritu dentro de nosotros. Al final de este pasaje del Evangelio, Jesús le da a los Apóstoles (los primeros sacerdotes católicos) la autoridad de perdonar los pecados en representación de su divina presencia. Está instituyendo el Sacramento de la Reconciliación que nos da a Jesús mismo en la forma de un sacerdote humano. El mismo poder de perdón del Espíritu nos capacita a todos para experimentar la paz en un mundo pecador y tumultuoso. Aun cuando perdonar sea más que difícil, podemos hacerlo en el Espíritu de Cristo. Podemos perdonar a los que nos dañan incluso si nunca se arrepienten. Y esto es lo que restaura nuestra paz. ©2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Impreso con derechos. It is so very well done and has the elements to really speak to your heart. This movie really brings to light the mind-disturbingly, difficult, and un-reconcilable situations the early disciples (and others) had to grapple with." Snacks will be provided, RSVP not needed for this free event.

KNIGHTWATCH!

For as long as most parishioners here can recall, our Knights of Columbus Council #3489 held its business meetings and social events in its own premises, generally referred to as "the Council home" or more recently as "the Columbus Club" on Emerson Avenue, quite a distance removed from the parish church campus on Riverside Drive. Managing and maintaining the premises had, in recent years, become difficult and increasingly expensive. Faced with that reality, and the prospect of having to commission various repair and costly maintenance projects, it was decided to consider disposing of the property, and seeking an alternative venue for Council meetings. A membership poll favored this, so we are now conducting our meetings in the St. Francis de Sales Church Hall, which in a way is a highly appropriate venue, "in the heart of the parish"! Indeed it was in the basement of his church that Fr. Michael McGivney and his fellow charter Knights conducted the business of the first-ever Knights of Columbus council. We will be remembering that!

The Knights of Columbus, St. Francis de Sales Council #3489. We meet at 7:30 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month in the St. Francis de Sales Church Hall. To attend virtually, via ZOOM, contact Financial Secretary Ernie Matthews at ernie29@comcast.net for authorization and access instructions. General information on joining the Knights may be found on the Internet at www.kofc.org where you may conveniently complete a membership application form at "Join Us".
