TODAY IS AUGUST 2, THE 18th SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME. THE GOSPEL READING IS MATTHEW 14: 13-21.

Many people in our world are hungry and thirsty. This hunger and thirst go well beyond physical needs for food, security, and shelter. Many are emotionally and spiritually parched, too. Behind every act of violence is a soul who hungers. People live with relationships that actually starve them. They are abused, exploited, disrespected, laughed at, and marginalized. Every person longs to be understood and loved, even when inner demons or their own personality make it difficult. Some folks wander through life without any real direction or purpose and take their cues from what seems satisfying or popular at the moment. They can find themselves without grounding, purpose, or real happiness. Life becomes shallow in the hunger and thirst for an ultimate love.

It's easier to see the physical hungers and thirsts. We try to respond to these as best we can. Much more needs to be done. With all that God's earth can provide, nobody ought to face sleep at night with a belly that's empty. It's sinful. It's unjust. But isn't all hunger unjust?

Just as no one ought to be physically hungry and thirsty, there is no need to be emotionally or spiritually deficient either. Folks need to know where to look for nourishment. They need the right friends to help them find it.

We may not think that we have enough to respond to and to satisfy all of the needs, but we do. It doesn't take much. Five loaves and two fish provided for a huge crowd. With God, all things are possible. Our faith provides the direction for where God's children must go to find the nourishment they seek. It also tells us how to structure life so that justice and equity can be a reality for all. Jesus tells us how to respond to pain, sinfulness, and confusion. Come to the water and then help another get there.

MISSION APPEAL

The needs of the overseas foreign Missionary groups are supported each year with the Mission Appeal. Envelopes for the annual Mission Appeal have been distributed with the August monthly parish giving envelopes. The date on the envelope is August 1-2. All envelopes will be forwarded to the missions.

Father Raju Pilla will be visiting St. John Fisher Parish next weekend. Father Pilla, who is in residence at Our Lady of Grace in Pennel, will speak at each Mass about the works and needs of the Latin Archdiocese of Trivandrum in India. The Archdiocese is bordered by the Arabian sea, and ninety percent of the people are traditional fishermen. Fishing has been strictly forbidden during the pandemic, leading to rampant unemployment and poverty within the community. The Archdiocese of Trivandrum depends on outside assistance to support its clergy, seminarians, catechists, and to continue its developmental programs. Your sacrifices for the Missions is deeply appreciated!

ST. JOHN FISHER OFFICE HOURS

Parish office hours will increase beginning Monday, August 17, to provide on-site service to our parishioners.

The office will be open the following times:

Monday-Thursday 8:30am-Noon; 1:00pm-4:30pm
Saturday 10:00am-1:00pm
Sunday 9:00am-1:00pm.

Limited staff will be on-site during these hours. If you leave a phone or email message, we will strive to reply promptly.

Food donations and meals for the Aid for Friends freezer can be dropped off during office hours, and the Chapel will be open for private prayer. Thanks for your continued support and understanding!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

- ◆ A Catechist is needed for the Guardian Angel Club Sunday school program for preschoolers. The Club meets 9:30-10:30am on Sundays during the school year. If you are willing to help, please contact Kathy Aaronson by calling the PREP office (610-485-0441, ext. 5).
- ◆ PREP is in need of volunteers for the upcoming school year. We are looking for a few classroom aides that can assist the primary instructor during class time. If you have questions or are interested, please call Kathy Aaronson (610-484-0441, ext. 5). All volunteers will need a background check and child abuse clearances; we will guide you through that process.
- ◆ We are still accepting registration for the upcoming school year. Please return the forms for PREP 2020-2021 as soon as possible. A tuition discount is applied for all registrations received by August 16.

WELCOME OUR NEWEST MEMBER!

The people of St. John Fisher Parish are pleased to welcome our newly baptized member, LAINY RUTH LANTZER, daughter of Shawna and Timothy. Please pray for Lainey and her parents, as they commit to raising her in the Catholic faith.

We are also pleased to celebrate the Baptism of LEVI GABRIEL JOHNSTON, son of Anna and Christopher, of St. Olaf Parish in Poulsbo, Washington. Levi is the grandson of Brendan and Mary Stover of St. John Fisher. Congratulations to both families!

WELCOME BACK TO MASS

We are happy you are here! Please take the time to read the guidelines for attending Mass during this period:

In General, the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation continues to be lifted. You are not required to attend Mass at this time. Please stay home if you are sick, someone in your household is sick, or if your health is compromised, putting you at higher risk of severe illness with COVID19. We will follow the regular Sunday Mass schedule. Weekday Mass will be held in the church at 7:30 a.m. The Saturday Vigil Mass is available via live-stream. View it on our website home page (stjohnfisherchurch.com), or on the parish facebook page (Saint John Fisher).

Before coming to Mass, please wash your hands before leaving home. Every person age 3 and older must wear a face mask or cloth covering when entering Church.

Use the parking lot entrance or the main entrance nearest the parish center. Once inside, please use non-touch hand sanitizer, and have your non-touch temperature taken.

Every other pew is taped off for social distancing. Those living in the same household can sit together. Please sit 6 feet away from another person or family. The Church Hall is available for seating.

To receive Holy Communion, please leave 6 feet of space when walking in the Communion line. Parishioners are requested to receive the Eucharist in the hand. Wear your mask, receive the Sacred Host in your hands, step to the side, lift/lower your mask, receive Holy Communion, refit your mask and proceed back to the pew. Anyone who prefers to receive the Eucharist on their tongue is asked to join the end of the line for the priest.

Before leaving the Church, check the pew and make sure you have everything with you. You may pick up a bulletin from the table in the church foyers. When you exit the Church, please do not congregate; proceed directly to your car. Please leave your mask on until you reach your automobile.

Cleaning will be done after each Mass. We'll ask for volunteers to help disinfect the surfaces of pews and chairs. Supplies are provided. The Church and bathrooms will be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected during weekdays in preparation for Sunday Masses.

FINANCIAL OFFERING: STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

WEEKEND OF JULY 19

TOTAL: $ 13,946
NUMBER: 330

Your generous support throughout this period of uncertainty is most appreciated! Thank you!

FEAST DAY OF ST. JOHN VIANNEY - AUGUST 4
PATRON SAINT OF PARISH PRIESTS

Jean-Marie Vianney was born in a small town, near Lyon, France, in 1786. He was the fourth of six children of a devout Catholic couple. During the French Revolution, anti-clerical regulations forced Catholic priests into hiding, and although it was against the law, faithful Catholics, including John's family, traveled to secretive locations to attend Mass held by priests on the run. John looked upon the priests as heroes. His catechism instruction was interrupted by the war, but he finally received his first Eucharist at age 13.

When John was 16, the Catholic Church was permitted to resume its work in France. He longed to go to school and pursue a vocation, but it was four more years before he was allowed to leave the farm. He wasn't the best student, but he persevered. Then John was drafted into the Army. He fell ill and was unable to join his unit. He was drafted again, fell behind the unit, and wound up being led into the mountains to a group of deserters. He hid there for 14 months, changing his name and starting a school for village children. In 1810, amnesty was granted to all deserters, so John was able to return to his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained in 1815.

He was assigned as parish priest in 1818 to the village of Ars. He realized that the Revolution led to religious ignorance or indifference among the people. Sundays in rural areas were spent working in the fields or dancing and drinking in taverns. Little by little, the tiny hamlet underwent a change. The people of Ars were unable to remain aloof for long from the grace which radiated from the remarkable personality of their priest. Father Vianney spent time in the confessional and gave homilies against blasphemy and the temptation of the taverns. He instilled a love for the Virgin Mary in his parishioners.

People began hearing of Father Vianney, and pilgrims began to come to Ars to consult him. During the last 10 years of his life, he often heard confessions 12 hours a day. Seeking a life of a contemplative monk, Father Vianney left Ars four times, finally leaving for good in 1853. He became a champion of the poor as a Franciscan. He died in 1859 at age 73. John Vianney was canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1925.

THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY
AUGUST 15

On the Feast of the Assumption, the Church remembers Mary's death and passage into eternal life. As Pope Benedict said in 2011, "It is a mystery of hope and joy for all of us. In Mary, one can see the goal of all of those who have joined their lives to Jesus."

While not a Holy Day of Obligation this year because it falls on Saturday, St. John Fisher Parish will celebrate Mass at 9:00am in the Church.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Were you baptized as a child but have not celebrated the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation? Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic?

RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, is not a program or class or lecture, but a journey by which women and men can learn about the Catholic faith through prayer and formative activities. RCIA prepares individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and/or Confirmation during the Easter season. For more information, please contact Deacon Dan Bingnear, by calling him at 610-494-3929 or via email at daniel.bingnear@gmail.com

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

For those who are unable to attend Mass in person

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The Aid for Friends freezer could use restocking.

Pans area available in the Parish Hall Kitchen. If you have 'left overs', please consider packaging them in the provided pans, freeze it, and bring it to the freezer in the Parish Hall Kitchen. These meals serve seniors and other hungry people in our community. On behalf of those in need, we thank you!

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM: Celebrated on the First, Second and Fourth Sundays of each month at 12:45pm. Pre-Jordan baptismal instruction is held on the Third Sunday at 12:45pm. Please call or visit the Parish Office to arrange baptisms.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: Saturdays, 3:00 - 3:45pm; other times by appointment.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY: One party must be a registered member of Saint John Fisher Parish. Couples must make arrangements with the Pastor at least six months prior to the intended date. Weddings can be held at Saint John Fisher or at Immaculate Conception Church. Couples are required to attend the Archdiocesan Sacramental Preparation Program for Marriage (four sessions) or a Pre-Cana program.

PARISH REGISTRATION: We welcome new members to Saint John Fisher! If you are new to our parish, please call or visit the Parish Office to register.

LETTERS OF ELIGIBILITY: If you need a Letter of Eligibility from Saint John Fisher Parish to be a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation, you must be

- a registered member of the parish,
- at least 16 years of age,
- a practicing Catholic (have received the Sacraments and attend Mass regularly).
- If married, you must be in a 'valid' marriage.

The pastor is unable to sign a letter unless you meet these requirements. To request a letter, please speak with Father McDermott after any Mass or call the Parish Office at 610-485-0441, ext. 2.

PARISH ON-LINE GIVING: Visit the parish website, www.stjohnfisherchurch.com and click on the We Share icon to sign up for the electronic giving program.

PARISH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM (PREP): The PREP program provides religious education for public school children from September through May. Please call the PREP office at 610-485-0441, ext. 5, for more information and to register.

HOLY FAMILY REGIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL: Grades Pre-K through Eight: St. John Fisher parishioners support Holy Family Regional Catholic School. Children from the parish who enroll there receive the supporting parish tuition rate.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

August 2020

St. John Fisher Parish

Rev. Robert B. McDermott, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Alphonsus Liguori

Born near Naples, Italy, St. Alphonsus left his successful legal career for the priesthood. He founded the Redemptorists to educate the faithful. Internal problems resulted in the Order's rejecting St. Alphonsus. Despite failing health, he was made a bishop. He lived simply and was generous with the poor. He combatted Jansenism, which imposed a burdensome, legalistic morality, and promoted a more moderate, realistic morality – one driven by love rather than guilt. He is a Doctor of the Church.

Pay God first

It takes money to do God's work in the world and the top funding source for the Catholic Church's ministries is her generous people. Set aside a portion of every paycheck for charity just as you do for your rent or mortgage. Write that check first. Your parish needs your support now, more than ever.

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?" (Psalm 27:1).

Lean on our Faith during tough times

Throughout the history of God's dealings with humanity, He has continually brought good out of evil. During this unprecedented time of pandemic, we can remember this history and lean on Him.

Participate in weekly worship. If public Mass is not an option for you, find ways to join in worship safely. Participate in Mass online and don't miss a Sunday. Support others by setting up a prayer group or Bible study with friends through calls, chats, or online meets.

Practice listening during prayer. Even though our schedules may have slowed down, our thoughts probably have not. Make mental space to listen to and hear from the Holy Spirit, and allow Him to bring truth and consolation.

Look for the ways God is working in the crisis. Our fear and anxiety can arise from worrying about what might happen. It helps to look for the good coming out of the crisis.

Can you spot unexpected blessings?

Create a safe space in your home. Create a place – a corner, a chair, a large closet – where you spend at least 15 prayerful minutes each day.

Take this time to remember that you are not alone.

Be not afraid. Choosing to trust God is a decision we can each make. It comes from a determination to surrender with confidence knowing His love is enough.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have so many titles for Mary?

Everything we say about Mary, ultimately, is about Jesus, including her "devotional" titles. Each title highlights an aspect of God's saving plan and Mary's role in it. Many of them have to do with her sinlessness and her motherhood. For example, Mary is called the "Mirror of Justice," Theotokos ("God bearer"), "Seat of Wisdom", "House of Gold," etc. Mary's titles like Mary – are meant to draw our focus not to Mary, but to Jesus. Mary always leads us to her Son.

Turn conflict into growth

Criticism can bring you down if you let it. Instead, finding a gracious way to handle criticism can be the key to improving your life, attracting new friends, and becoming a better Christian.

Stay calm. The person delivering the criticism may be having a bad day or seeking attention. Or, she may really want to help and just not be skilled in delivering criticism. Staying calm and avoiding defensiveness helps you look for the rose among the nasty thorns.

Thank the commenter, no matter what is said or how it is delivered. People who make rude comments don't expect you to listen to them, much less be grateful for their comments. Being appreciative is disarming. That's how to turn a critic into a friend.

Weigh the criticism. Do the comments contain something helpful you can use to become a better person? Is the person trying to help, to make things better, to keep you from repeating mistakes, to suggest positive improvements? If not, forget it and move on without anger.

from Scripture

Matthew 16:21-27, Our ways are not God's ways

This passage seems like bad news. First, Jesus predicts his own death. This must have shocked the disciples, to whom it was just revealed that their Master was the long-awaited Messiah. Instead of an epic, Roman-conquering battle plan, Jesus told them he would be executed – seemingly tragedy and defeat, not joy and triumph.

Second, Peter did what we often do when God permits setbacks and suffering. He saw the Cross and wanted to flee – and was harshly rebuked. Yet, if Jesus listened to Peter and turned aside, we would have died in our sins, unable to get into Heaven. Instead, he chose the Cross – for us. He chose us. Through our post-Resurrection lens, what seemed a devastating defeat was actually a decisive victory against sin and death.

Let's be clear: our Father wants us to be happy, but he wants us to be happy forever, not just for today. The key is not to avoid the crosses he sends us, but to accept them trustingly, peacefully, as Jesus did. Jesus helps us carry our crosses, with him taking the heavier end.

Q & A Can the seal of Confession ever be broken?

The seal of Confession refers to the silence binding a priest, under severe penalties, about what he hears in Confession. "[The priest] can make no use of knowledge that confession gives him about penitents' lives." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1467). The penitents are not bound by the seal.

The only two "exceptions" are: If the penitent wants to discuss his previous confession to Fr. X with him, Fr. X must first ask the penitent's permission. Or, if a priest needed guidance from another confessor, he must still ask the penitent's permission and keep the penitent's identity a secret.

In truth, in the Sacrament of Confession the penitent is really addressing Jesus Christ, not the priest, who is simply the "phone line" between the two parties. The purpose of the seal is to encourage people to approach the Lord in complete confidence and experience his mercy. While this enforced silence may seem strange and possibly problematic, the first priority is the salvation of souls. The rest is entrusted to God.

Feasts & Celebrations

Aug. 10 – St. Lawrence (258). A Roman deacon to Pope St. Sixtus II. St. Lawrence presented the poor and destitute as the Church's treasure, in answer to Rome's demands for the church's gold. He was martyred shortly afterwards.

Aug. 15 – The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1950). Declared a dogma of our faith by Pope Pius XII, the Assumption celebrates Mary being taken up into Heaven body and soul at the end of her life. Note: This year, this is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation.

Aug. 25 – St. Joseph Calasanz (1648). Seeing the suffering of neglected children, this Spanish priest founded the Clerks Regular of Pious Schools, called the Piarists to educate them. He suffered opposition for his work, which he bore with patience and humility.

Aug. 27 – St. Monica of Hippo (387). St. Monica is best known for converting her wayward son and pagan husband by her patience, piety, and prayers. Her son, St. Augustine, became a great saint of the Church.
