TODAY IS JANUARY 3, 2021, The Epiphany of the Lord. The Gospel is Matthew 2:2.

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he pushes stuff around, moves books, and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you turned the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept Him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation, and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

SAVE THE DATE AND PLAN TO DONATE!

The American Red Cross Blood Drive at St. John Fisher is scheduled for Monday, February 1, from 2:00-7:00pm, in the Parish Center.

There is a critical need for blood donations right now.

And, those who were diagnosed and have recovered from COVID are encouraged to donate plasma to help others. We are trying to meet a goal of 50 units. The highest standards of safety and infection control, including social distancing and face coverings for donors and staff, have been implemented to safeguard donors, volunteers and employees.

To sign up, go to redcrossblood.org and click "Donate Blood," then click "Manage my Donation." Click on "Schedule an Appointment" and enter 19061 as the zip code. Scroll down until you see St. John Fisher on Feb. 1. Tap on "See Times" and you can choose a time to donate. Volunteers also will be calling those who previously donated to schedule an appointment. Call Barbara Tarone, 610-485-6067 if you have questions.

2021 CALENDARS

The 2021 St. John Fisher wall calendars are available on the tables in the rear of church. Many thanks to the Ward Funeral Home for providing the calendars this year. Please take one for your home.

WITH HUMBLE THANKS...

We are blessed to be a part of the St. John Fisher Parish Family. This year has had many difficulties and challenges but the COVID pandemic has not dampened your steadfast faith and countless expressions of charity. As clergy and religious, we are inspired in our vocation of service and leadership by your witness in family life. We are grateful for your encouragement in person on Sundays and warm comments on Facebook as Mass is live-streamed. We received many warm expressions for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, and we want to thank you for your thoughtfulness. Many thanks for the delicious cookies, wonderful treats, and other gifts of kindness during the Christmas season. Many blessings in the New Year!

Fr. Francis Devlin, OSA
and Deacon Daniel Bingnear*

A HOLIDAY THANK YOU FROM THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 13710

The Holy Saviour Knights of Columbus Council 13710 wishes to extend its most sincere and heartfelt thanks to all parishioners and friends who so generously donated a variety of foods that helped make our Turkey and Fixin's program an overwhelming success. You almost doubled what was collected last year, and this permitted us to further expand our Christmas giveaway to those less fortunate than us. You didn't stop with donations of food, but also included numerous supermarket gift cards and cash contributions. Bravo to all of you! Together, we made the holidays happen to those in need. May God bless all of you!

WEATHER AND SAFETY

'Tis the season...for freezing rain, sleet, snow and ice! Safety is the primary concern for our parishioners when coming to Mass or attending to business on parish properties. Please stay informed of the weather conditions and use common sense for travel. We strive to keep the parish property safe with snow removal and salting the walkways.

SNACK BAGS FOR HUNGRY CHILDREN

PREP is kicking off 2020 with its "Snack Bags" service project. We are asking for your help in feeding hungry children by filling a brown lunch bag with some of the following: a 100% juice bag/box, granola bar, cheese or peanut butter crackers, applesauce, raisins or fruit cup, or any other non-perishable, healthy food. Drop in a paper napkin and a plastic spoon if you have them.

We encourage you or your children to decorate the paper bag, and include an upbeat note, funny joke, or message of inspiration. This is a great family project! It will run through February 2. Drop off Snack Bags in the Parish Center Hall in the designated bin. Thank you for helping feed hungry kids!

FINANCIAL OFFERING: STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

DECEMBER 13:

Due to advance printing schedules, the totals for December 20, 27, and Christmas will appear in the January 10 bulletin.

*Your gift to the parish helps us continue our mission to bring the Good News of Christ to the community.
Thank you for your dedicated support!*

Question: What does the Church say about suicide?

Answer: Unfortunately, despite the Church's clear teachings in resources like the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, there are still many people who are confused about what the Church teaches regarding the tragic reality of suicide.

While we hold that all life is sacred, we are also all too aware that psychological, emotional and even physical illness — as well as extreme anxiety, fear, and abuse — can lead individuals to take their own lives.

Speaking to this, the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults reflects, "Although suicide is always objectively sinful, one should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives. By ways known to Him alone, God can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance. The Church prays for persons who have taken their own lives" (pg. 294). The text also states the reality of illness or other extreme influences can "diminish the responsibility of one committing suicide" (pg. 293).

Parishes and grief support groups should show special care and concern for those families that have lost a loved one to suicide. And, communities should always try to be mindful of those who might be at risk of suicide or self-harm.

Please know that help is available for those contemplating suicide, including the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (1-800-273-8255).

NATIONAL MARCH FOR LIFE

St. Thomas the Apostle Church has rented a motor coach to go to Washington, D.C. for the March for Life. Please join with fellow Catholics for this important event on Friday, January 29. A bus will leave St. Thomas immediately following the 8:00am Mass and return at approximately 8:00pm.

With the current political climate, this year's March is more important than ever! Please come support the dignity of every human life. To reserve a spot on the bus or for additional information, please contact Teresa Santoleri at 302-345-7867.

EVERY SUNDAY IS FOOD SUNDAY

Many families are facing economic hardship during the pandemic. The Parish continues to collect food each week. Please place your donations in the cabinets at the rear of the Church Hall. If the cabinets are full, you may place the items on the counter. During the week, please drop your donation on the cart in the Parish Center lobby. We accept unopened, shelf stable food and beverages that have not expired.

There is always a need for cleaning supplies, laundry detergent, personal care products, feminine products, diapers, toilet paper, tissues, and paper towels. Take advantage of a good sale and share the bounty!

Do you know someone in Upper Chichester who could use help? The food we collect supports the following programs:

St. Katherine Drexel Parish operates a food bank at Second and Norris Streets in Chester. Food is distributed on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12 noon until 2:00pm. First time visitors do not need to register, but for continuing help, clients must register in person. (Contact 484-490-5079.)

Cokesbury United Methodist Church opens the doors to its Angel Food Pantry once a month, on the third Wednesday from 10:00am until noon. The church is located at 3307 Market Street in Marcus Hook.

Residents of Trainer must register in advance to use the Trainer Borough Food Pantry at the Community Building, 1002 Chestnut Street. Distribution is every Friday from 9:00am until 11:00am. Families and seniors are served on alternating Fridays. (Contact 610-848-8106.)

Food and personal hygiene products are dropped off at the Upper Chichester elementary, middle and high schools. The high school and the middle school social workers manage an on-site pantry for the students they serve. The are always in need of personal care and feminine products.

The children, families, and older adults that we support are some of the 'least among us.' Thank you for sharing your time, energy and resources to help care for them!

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

January 2021

St. John Fisher Parish

Rev. Robert B. McDermott, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

Tough times?

Throughout history, God has proven his faithfulness and care over and over again. He promises that He will help you through whatever tough times you face. "God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial he will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it" (1 Corinthians 10:13). Lean on Him.

Tune out the world and tune into Go

In our noisy world, it can be hard to hear God's voice over the din. Yet, listening is as important as talking during prayer. "By waiting and by calm you shall be saved, in quiet and in trust your strength lies" (Isaiah 30:15). Talk to Him often, but make a point of listening for God's voice.

"Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God" (Philippians 4:6).

Give the gift of friendship in the New Year

When times are tough, it can be our family and friends who help us through. There wasn't much Jesus wouldn't do for His friends. In fact, He was more concerned with being a good friend than with having one. In our current pandemic situation, we can care for our loved ones as Jesus would:

Make spending time together a priority.

Connections between loved ones are critical now. When meeting in person isn't possible, phone calls, letters, and emails can keep us connected. Video conferencing has become a staple of daily life; consider organizing regular get togethers with friends and family using your favorite conferencing program.

Help other people feel important. No matter how you interact, give the other person your full attention in conversation, and show appreciation and understanding for what he is saying.

Celebrate your friends' successes.

A true friend is genuinely happy when something good happens in the other's life.

Value differences. Don't try to change your loved ones.

Celebrate their diversity.

Be willing to apologize. You may let each other down but a sincere apology can bring friends closer together.

Don't forget old friends. Call someone you haven't been in touch with for a long time. Don't know what to say? Try, "I don't want another moment to go by without being in touch. I've missed you."

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics honor the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus?

The image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a symbol of Christ's love for us. It is often a heart surrounded by flame, pierced by a lance, topped by a cross, and circled by a crown of thorns.

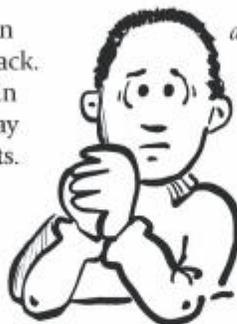

Jesus' love for us burns bright and intense like a flame. His heart is pierced by the lance representing our sins and the crown of thorns and the cross remind us of the death he suffered to bring us life.

“What do you want from me, Lord?”

God gives to us freely, but what does he want in return? Simply put, God wants us to love Him back.

Know Him. God made each of us with a space in our heart just for Him. Until we discover it, we may try to fill it with earthly things, but nothing else fits. When we turn to Him, the reward is beyond our dreams.

Love Him. Jesus said, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind” (Matthew 22:37). He wants us to surrender to his infinite love. Show your love by praying frequently, seeking Communion with Him often, and praising Him continually.

Serve Him. “Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me” (Matthew 25:40). When we make sure everyone has enough to eat, warm clothes to wear, and a place to stay, Jesus takes it personally. It’s what he wants from us.

from Scripture

Mark 1:21-28, God’s authority is not a formality

In this Gospel passage, Jesus and his apostles entered the synagogue at Capernaum where Jesus taught those gathered at the Sabbath. It was customary for learned teachers to say, “Thus says the Lord...” Instead Jesus said, “I say to you ...” He taught as one who spoke with the authority of God.

man at the synagogue recognized who Jesus was. They were forced to obey Him when he commanded them to depart, despite their reluctance. In fact, God’s power and authority isn’t just a formality. What God says, happens.

Our kind and gentle Savior is also our powerful and awesome Lord. As the Second Person of the Trinity, Jesus has supreme majesty and we will one day appear before Him to be judged. Yes, he is our divine savior and mediator. But if we say, “Jesus is Lord,” then we give Him our loyalty and obedience.

His calm authority astounded Jesus’ listeners. Just as they began to wonder what it meant, he gave them a sign. He further demonstrated his authority by performing an exorcism. Spirits that bedeviled an unfortunate

Q & A How can I choose Catholic references that are accurate and faithful?

One good way to determine whether or not a book or pamphlet accurately reflects Catholic doctrine is to look for an “imprimatur” printed in the first few pages of the book. The presence of an imprimatur generally means that a bishop’s office has determined it to be free of doctrinal or moral errors. It may be accompanied by a “nihil obstat” (Latin for “nothing stands in the way”) which means that someone well-versed in Catholic theology has reviewed the contents and found the same thing. Keep in mind that neither the imprimatur nor the nihil obstat imply agreement with the content or opinions.

It is particularly important for a book that purports to teach about the faith of the Church to carry the approval of the Catholic Church. There are many well-meaning people who intend to educate others about God’s infinite love but may have an imperfect understanding of Catholic doctrine. When choosing materials to learn more about our religion, you will want to be sure that they are accurate.

Feasts & Celebrations

Jan. 1 – Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. Today, we honor Mary, but also Jesus as God. In their honor, pray a Rosary. Because this feast day is on a Monday, Mass attendance is optional (but encouraged) this year.

Jan. 25 – The Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle (1st Century). Setting out for Damascus to carry on the persecution of the Christians, he encountered Christ (Acts 9:1-19; 22:5-16; 26:12-18) while on the road to Damascus. He was struck blind from the experience until he was baptized by Ananias three days later. He converted and began preaching the faith as he travelled around the Mediterranean.

Jan. 26 – Sts. Timothy and Titus (1st Century). Timothy was a convert of St. Paul’s and later became his trusted friend, joining him in apostolic work. He was with Paul at the founding of the Church in Corinth. Titus, also a friend of Paul’s, served the early Church as a peacemaker and administrator to a community on Crete.
