We know that Confession is crucial for our salvation, but it's easy—and normal—to feel embarrassed and guilty about telling your sins to the priest. In the story of the Prodigal Son, Jesus tells us that the Father always welcomes us with joy and mercy when we return to Him. When we go to Confession, Jesus sets us free from shame. Before you head out to Confession, ask the Holy Spirit to help you examine your conscience. And, after saying a prayer for guidance, peacefully consider which sins you have committed. As you stand in line and wait your turn, know that Jesus is with you.

MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

La Iglesia de San Vicente de Paul, se propone construir, fortalecer y dar vida, a nuestra comunidad. Para esto es importante servir los unos a los otros, sin exclusión alguna, siguiendo como modelo nuestro patrón, San Vicente de Paul.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

July 18

Jesús invita a sus discípulos a descansar después de su ministerio, y se compadece de las multitudes que los persiguen (Marcos 6: 30-34).

Hoy el evangelio nos presenta la parte mas humana de Jesús.

Sabe que sus discípulos están cansados, que necesitan descansar, recargar sus fuerzas y los lleva a un lugar aparte. Después de sus compromisos, merecen un descanso. Su corazón es bondadoso por excelencia.

De igual manera su compasión es desbordante, se compadece de las multitudes que les siguen. No les manda a casa sin un alimento o una palabra de aliento.

Es el Buen Pastor que cuida sus ovejas, que las conoce y ellas le conocen. Las lleva a frescos pastos y aguas abundantes. En las próximas semanas, escucharemos la historia de cómo Jesús alimentó a la multitud.

Nosotros, que somos discípulos de Jesús hoy, también hemos sido enviados a compartir el Evangelio con otros. Quizás nuestro compromiso de seguir a Jesús como su discípulo nos deja cansados y abrumados. También nuestras carreras diarias, con el trabajo, la escuela, las responsabilidades de la casa nos desgastan y roban la paz. Ya no hay igual concentración en la oración, en el silencio, en el encuentro con Jesús. Pidámosle al Señor que nos de esa gracia de descansar en su presencia de tantas cosas que nos agobian a diario, que nos roban el sueño y la paz. Y que sea el Buen Pastor que guie nuestras vidas. Amen.

Por favor, recuerde tenernos en cuenta este verano!!

Le deseamos viajes seguros y mucha diversión durante sus vacaciones de verano. Sabemos que estará fuera de la ciudad durante unos pocos domingos este verano, pero eso no significa que no pueda participar a través de sus diezmos regulares. Por favor, continúe apoyando a su parroquia mientras está ausente, continuando haciendo su donación semanal. Sin su apoyo continuo, la Parroquia no podrá operar y mantenerse al día con sus facturas mensuales. Puede continuar contribuyendo cada semana mientras está ausente registrándose para darte electrónicamente o antes de irse de vacaciones o a su regreso de vacaciones hacer una donación única para los domingos que estuvieron ausentes. Ustedes son la línea de vida de la iglesia y sin su generosidad: la iglesia estaría atrasada en el pago de sus gastos.

Confesión

Es la Santa Cena lo que hace que muchos de nosotros nos sintamos incómodos. Sabemos que la confesión es crucial para nuestra salvación, pero es fácil y normal sentirse avergonzado y culpable por decirle sus pecados al sacerdote. En la historia del Hijo Pródigo, Jesús nos dice que el Padre siempre nos recibe con alegría y misericordia cuando regresamos a Él. Cuando vamos a la Confesión, Jesús nos libera de la vergüenza. Antes de dirigirte a la Confesión, pídele al Espíritu Santo que te ayude a examinar tu conciencia. Y, después de decir una oración para guía, considera pacíficamente qué pecados has cometido. Mientras haces fila y esperas tu turno, sabe que Jesús está contigo.

Zapato conducir - Recaudación de fondos

El Padre Sergio, el Padre Juan, el Padre Carl y Maryann quisieran agradecer a todos por superar la meta de 100 bolsas y apoyar este evento de recaudación de fondos parroquial. Su respuesta a este evento es muy apreciada.

The Holy Spirit

The Book of Acts contains one of my favorite Scripture verses. Just before He ascends to heaven, Jesus promises the disciples He will not leave them alone.

“But you will receive the power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” (Acts 1:8)

It is the power of the promised Holy Spirit to which we turn in faith to expect and experience miracles. The Greek word for power in Acts 1:8 is dunamis, the root form of our English words “dynamic” and “dynamite”. In other words, the power of the Holy Spirit is explosive!

When we call upon the Holy Spirit, our lives as Christians explode with strength and dynamic power to conquer evil with the love of Christ, as Paul so clearly tells the people of Corinth.

“For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power.” (1 Corinthians 4:20)

Power against Fear

So many people are afraid—afraid of what might happen to them or their families, scared of illness, fearful in an often violent world where God’s love seems lost to so many. But fear stands for:

“False Evidence Appearing Real.”

The devil is a liar and wants us to doubt our present circumstances and our future destiny. Yet, we need not fear anything! The dynamic power of the Holy Spirit is with us always, greater than any force we can imagine.

“You belong to God, children, and you have conquered them, for the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.” (1 John 4:4)

Paul echoes this assurance in his letter to the Philippians:

“I have the strength for everything through him who empowers me.” (Philippians 4:13)

In traveling many places in the United States and the world, I have met so many people who believe they are alone and that God will not meet their needs. Nothing could be further from the truth! We see this clearly, again, in Philippians.

“My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:19)

The Holy Spirit’s Powerful Gifts

Faith in the power of the Holy Spirit leads us to receive His many gifts and fruits. We receive His wisdom to make the right decisions, His courage to endure trials and hardships, the knowledge that we are not alone.

The New Testament mentions twenty-seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. In particular, 1 Corinthians 12 lists nine classical charismatic gifts: wisdom, word of knowledge, faith, healing, miracles, prophecy, discernment of spirits, tongues and interpretation of tongues. We are commissioned to use these gifts of the Holy Spirit in the work of the Church.

The Second Vatican Council’s Lumen Gentium, Dogmatic Constitution of the Church, speaks directly of the charismatic gifts:

“...Whether they are the more outstanding or the more simple and widely diffused, they are to be received with thanksgiving and consolation, for they are exceedingly suitable and useful to the needs of the Church.” (n. 12)

Each of us is blessed with particular gifts, as Paul’s Letter to the Romans teaches us. “For as in one body we have many parts, and all the parts do not have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them: if prophecy, in proportion to the faith; if ministry, in ministering; if one is a teacher, in teaching; if one exhorts, in exhortation; if one contributes, in generosity; if one is over others, with diligence; if one does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.” (Romans 12: 4-8)

But we need each other—all members of the body of Christ—to use our own gifts for the work of the Church as Paul reminds us in First Corinthians:

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given to some benefit.” (1 Corinthians 12: 7)

That is why prayer communities are so critical. It is through the gifts of the Body of Christ that great miracles are manifested. Luke’s description of the early Church clearly demonstrates the power of the Holy Spirit working in community:

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.” (Acts 2:42-43)

The Spirit Today

What does this mean to us Catholics in the 21st century?

First, the sacramental life of the Mass and Eucharist in community is mandatory to receive the power and promises of Christ.

Second, solid teaching is essential. So many Catholics live in partial, if not complete ignorance, of the power of the Holy Spirit.

Finally, the faith of the community leads to boldness and boldness leads to releasing the Holy Spirit’s power and miracles in our lives.

The Holy Spirit’s power makes the impossible possible! And, that’s dynamite! Dynamite that will lead us to expect and experience miracles!

Celebrating the Eucharist

Celebrating the Eucharist is an important part of our faith life at Saint Vincent de Paul Parish. We cordially invite you to share the Eucharist with us on the weekends or anytime during the week.

Attending Daily Mass

Attending daily mass can be a wonderful way to stay grounded during the week, to center yourself during a stressful day or to pause and give thanks for the special ways God is working in your life.

Sanctuary Gifts and Mass Intentions

Offering a Holy Mass or a Sanctuary Gift for the repose of the soul of our beloved departed, for the sick, and for the living is one of the means to remember and pray for them, and thus express our love and affection. “In Thanksgiving” Mass intentions can be offered as well.

Gospel Reading

God speaks to us in many ways, including through the Sunday Scripture readings. Each Sunday to better understand the Gospel, we include in our church bulletin the background on the Gospel Reading which will help you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way.

Mark 6:30-34

Jesus invites his disciples to rest after their ministry, and Jesus is moved with pity for the crowds who pursue them.

In this today's Gospel, we read the report of the return of the Twelve, who were sent by Jesus to preach repentance, heal the sick, and drive out demons. When the Twelve return to Jesus, he invites them to come away from the crowds and rest. But the crowds will not give them peace. As the Twelve have shared in Jesus' ministry, they now appear to share in his popularity. The crowds continue to approach them, and Mark reports that the disciples don't even have time to eat. In an effort to get away, Jesus and his disciples board a boat in hopes of finding a deserted place. But the crowds notice this and arrive ahead of them. The crowds are so persistent that Jesus and his disciples cannot find a place to be alone. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus is moved with pity and begins to teach the crowds.

Our Gospel for today stops here, but Mark's report of the unyielding demands of the crowd continues in the verses that follow. If we were to continue reading from Mark's Gospel, we would hear Jesus instruct his disciples to feed the crowd in the familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. The work of Jesus and his disciples appears to be a round-the-clock job. In the next few weeks, we will hear the story of Jesus' feeding of the multitude, but our Lectionary will turn to the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John to report and reflect on this story.

In today's Gospel, we hear the Twelve referred to as "apostles." The word apostle is a Greek word meaning "one who is sent." Jesus chose twelve men from among his disciples whom he sent to share in his ministry of preaching and healing. The first report of this is found in the third chapter of Mark's Gospel, where the Twelve are also called apostles and the names of this select group are listed.

We who are Jesus' disciples today have also been sent to share the Gospel with others. Perhaps our commitment to following Jesus as his disciple leaves us feeling tired and overwhelmed. In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times of rest and renewal. Jesus wanted his disciples to come away and spend time alone with him. This is what we seek and find in our life of prayer and in our celebration of the Eucharist.
