PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We the people of St. Vincent de Paul Church see ourselves as a congregation of believers among whom Jesus is living. We do what we believe we are called to do, and we educate ourselves to proclaim our commitment to build, strengthen and enliven our parish community. We strive towards the goal of making our witness more constant and more credible by our actions, and to devote ourselves to serving one another and all others in our community as did our patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

La Iglesia de San Vicente de Paul, se propone construir, fortalecer y dar vida, a nuestra comunidad. Para esto es importante servir los unos a los otros, sin exclusión alguna, siguiendo como modelo nuestro patrón, San Vicente de Paul.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Aug 15, 2021.

La Asunción de la Virgen María al Cielo (Lucas 1: 39-56)

Hay tres grandes fiestas en honor a la santísima virgen Maria.

1. María la Madre de Dios (enero 1).
2. La Inmaculada Concepción de María (diciembre 8).
3. La Asunción de María al cielo (agosto 15). 1950 por el Papa Pío XII. María, sin macha alguna de pecado, fue llevada, en cuerpo y alma, al cielo.

Estas tres solemnidades son consideradas días de obligación para los católicos.

Debido al papel de María en el plan de salvación de Dios, ella no sufre los efectos del pecado, que son la muerte y la decadencia. María es la primera en recibir la plenitud de la redención que su hijo ha ganado para toda la humanidad. La Iglesia, por tanto, reconoce a María como signo de la salvación prometida a todos.

La fe de María le permitió reconocer la obra de Dios en la historia de su pueblo y en su propia vida. María es modelo, ejemplo y símbolo de fe. Y estamos llamados a imitar sus virtudes.

Sacramentos

Bautismo – La iglesia pide que los niños sean bautizados un poco después del nacimiento. Padrinos deben de ser católicos y haber recibido los sacramentos. (Bautismo, Eucaristía y Confirmación).

Matrimonio – La regulación diocesana exige una preparación de un año antes de recibir el sacramento.

Ordenes sagradas y la vida Religiosa – Si siente el llamado de servir a Dios como Sacerdote o Diacono comuníquese con la parroquia o la oficina de vocaciones 973-313-6190 o pagina web www.newarkpriest.com

Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos (RICA) – Cualquier adulto que esté interesado en recibir los sacramentos comunicarse con la iglesia.

Unión de los enfermos – Si tiene un familiar enfermo en el hospital o en casa comunicarse con la iglesia.

Teléfono de la Iglesia: (201) 436-2222

Summer office hours are in place if you would like to or need to speak with Sr. Rita or one of our secretaries: Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays – 9am to 1pm. Sr. Rita is in the process of hiring part-time teachers' aides for our Pre-K and Kindergarten grade levels. If you would like more information about these positions, please call the office during office hours or email her at rfritzen@ascabayonne.org. Registrations are still being accepted for the 2021-2022 school year. We will be offering full in-person instruction. Registration forms are available online at our school's website (ascabayonne.org). For questions, please call the school office (201-443-8384) to speak with our principal, Sr. Rita, or one of the secretaries. You may also request to be put in touch with any of the teachers if you would like information about the grade your child will be entering. Remember to designate All Saints Catholic Academy as your charity of choice when shopping on AmazonSmile. A percentage of your monies spent will be donated to our school.

By Abigail C. R. Gripshover

The Holy Spirit may seem like the most elusive Person of the Trinity. We think about Him during Baptisms, Confirmations, and around the Feast of Pentecost but, it may be easy to forget about his importance the rest of the year. Our charismatic brothers and sisters share miracles through his power and bear witness to his integral role in keeping the fire of Faith burning within our souls. And yet, for those of us who may not share those same gifts or personalities, he may seem difficult to connect with and understand. Here are three easy ways to start to rebuild a relationship with the Holy Spirit. The best part is, you are doing some of these things now!

1. Strengthen Your Relationship with Jesus AND the Holy Spirit

I know, I know, why are we talking about the second person of the Trinity when you came here to learn about the third? This is because the Second Person of the Trinity- who may be more accessible to most of us- is intrinsically connected to the Third! The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: In their joint mission, the Son and the Holy Spirit are distinct but inseparable. To be sure, it is Christ who is seen, the visible image of the invisible God, but it is the Spirit who reveals him. CCC 689 This means that, as you grow your relationship with either Jesus or the Holy Spirit, you are also growing your relationship with the other. To experience this, practice focusing on the qualities often attributed to one as they are present in the other. For example, reflect on Jesus turning over the tables of the money-changers. Recognize the fiery passion of the Holy Spirit within him. Or, watch the flames of fire rest upon the heads of the Apostles at Pentecost. See the perfect mirroring of Christ's unfailing obedience to the Father. You can also do this by just acknowledging the presence of one when you invoke the other. As you sit down to pray to Jesus, take a moment to acknowledge that the Holy Spirit is there as well. Or, as you prepare for or attend the Sacraments of Initiation, think about how it is through Christ that they are available to us.

2. Read the Bible to Hear the Holy Spirit

The books of the Bible are all inspired by the Holy Spirit. It was the Holy Spirit who filled the writers with God's Word and helped make it present and clear in their minds. It was the Holy Spirit who filled the Apostles with the courage to hand down Jesus's teachings. He was certain those teachings were recorded so future generations could hear them. And, it is through him now that we are given the eyes to see and ears to hear the love and the message God has for us within his Word. This also relates to the first point about Jesus Christ. The Catechism beautifully says: "When the Father sends his Word, he always sends his Breath" (CCC 689). Jesus is God's Living Word, and the Holy Spirit is the breath through which it is articulated. Every moment spent reflecting on the Bible is time spent sitting with the Holy Spirit and the words he wanted to be sure we heard.

3. Tap into Your Unique Gifts

Each of us has been given gifts from God, uniquely chosen to help us achieve his will for our lives. When we take time to discover, cultivate, and use those gifts to achieve God's will, we are cooperating with the Holy Spirit's promptings within us. These gifts can include virtues, but also charisms and particular callings. If you are not sure what your gifts are, then ask the Holy Spirit to help you find them! Take time to consider your strengths and how they might be used to achieve a greater purpose or serve others.

Take time to quietly listen to the Lord and invite the Holy Spirit into that moment. You may be surprised, as you consider the events of your life, what things stand out at patterns that reveal your ultimate purpose. I have found that, for some, considering what made them distinct as children can indicate what their inherent gifts are. As children, we act more freely, uninhibited by responsibilities or preoccupations about other's opinions. This helps us engage in the things we find most rewarding, things we may have set aside as our lives became more demanding. It is also possible that things which you never considered gifts are your gifts! You may just need to re-frame your perspective, with the help of the Holy Spirit. Not everyone's gifts are going to be stereotypical or obvious.

A Fire No Longer Hidden

Through these simple things, you can tap into this hidden power of the Holy Spirit within you. Growing closer to him will help fill you with a burning fire for God's will and give you both the passion and courage to pursue it. When feeling weak, tempted, or discouraged, you can always whisper "Come, Holy Spirit". Then, you can proceed with the confidence that this Divine Helper will be right beside you, giving you the strength you need to keep running the race. With his help, you can stay on that course, always "running so as to win" (1 Cor. 9:24)!

Stewardship Reflections

August 15, 2021

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

"And Mary said, "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior." Luke 1: 46 After Jesus, we look to Mary as our model of stewardship. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God's will. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we too are called to reflect Christ to the world. We do this by living grateful and generous lives. We do this by putting other's needs before our wants.

How to Report Abuse

The Archdiocese takes very seriously any and all allegations of sexual misconduct by members of the clergy, Religious and lay staff of the Archdiocese. We encourage anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform us immediately so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and provide support to victims of sexual abuse. Individuals who wish to report an allegation of sexual misconduct may do so by calling the Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection at (201) 407-3256 or (973)-497-4254.

Gospel Reading

God speaks to us in many ways, including through the Sunday Scripture readings. Each Sunday to better understand the Gospel, we include in our church bulletin the background on the Gospel Reading which will help you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way.

Luke 1:39-56

Mary greets Elizabeth and sings God's praise.

Today's feast celebrates Mary's Assumption into heaven. It is one of three feasts of Mary that are Holy Days of Obligation for Catholics in the United States. January 1 is the feast of Mary, the Mother of God, and December 8 is the feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. The assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven has long been held as an important Catholic belief. The belief was not defined as dogma, however, until 1950 by Pope Pius XII. The dogma teaches that Mary, who was without sin, was taken, body and soul, into the glory of heaven.

The Gospel for this holy day recalls Mary's actions after the announcement of Jesus' birth by the Angel Gabriel. Mary goes to visit her cousin Elizabeth who is also with child. Elizabeth greets Mary with full recognition of the roles they and their unborn children will play in God's plan for salvation. Mary responds to Elizabeth's greeting with her song of praise, the Magnificat. Both women recall and echo God's history of showing favor upon the people of Israel. Mary's Magnificat, in particular, echoes the song of praise offered by Hannah, the mother of Samuel.

The Gospel for this day reminds us that Mary's Assumption into heaven is best understood with regard for the full spectrum of Catholic beliefs about the person of Christ and the person of Mary. Only Mary, who was born without stain of original sin—the Immaculate Conception—could give birth to Christ, who is fully God and fully human. This is called the Immaculate Conception. Because of Mary's role in God's plan of salvation, she does not suffer from the effects of sin, which are death and decay. Mary is the first to receive the fullness of the redemption that her son has won for all of humanity. The Church, therefore, recognizes Mary as the sign of the salvation promised to all.

Today's Gospel highlights Mary's faith. Mary's faith enabled her to recognize the work of God in her people's history and in her own life. Her openness to God allowed God to work through her so that salvation might come to all. Mary is a model and symbol of the Church. May we be like Mary, open and cooperative in God's plan of salvation.

We welcome into our parish family the following children who were brought to the Lord through the Sacrament of Baptism: Bryan David Blaney and Amelia Hope DelBanco.
