MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

La Iglesia de San Vicente de Paul, se propone construir, fortalecer y dar vida, a nuestra comunidad. Para esto es importante servir los unos a los otros, sin exclusión alguna, siguiendo como modelo nuestro patrón, San Vicente de Paul.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO Agosto 29, 2021.

Jesús enseña: Lo que sale del corazón lo que nos contamina (Marcos 7: 1-8,14-15,21-23).

Después de una larga reflexión sobre Jesús, el pan de vida bajado del cielo (Juan 6). Hoy pues, regresamos al Evangelio de Marcos.

El tema de hoy son las leyes judías de la pureza ritual.

Jesús enseña que una persona no está contaminada por la comida que entra en su cuerpo, sino por lo que surge de sus palabras y acciones.

¿Controlo mis emociones, mis pasiones?

O por el contrario vivo de desenfrenos. Me dejo llevar por la ira, la envidia...

¿Como alimento mi mente y mi espíritu? Lecturas, oración, buena interacción con otros. Evitando los comentarios y enojos.

¿Cuales son los hábitos buenos que trato de cultivar?

El respeto, la tolerancia, la humildad, la sencillez, la buena comunicación. Todas estas son obras que se cultivan en el corazón y hace virtuoso al individuo.

Misa especial que se celebrará en la Catedral Basílica del Sagrado Corazón en recuerdo del 20 aniversario del 9/11 el miércoles 8 de septiembre de 2021 a las 5 p.m. El cardenal Joseph W. Tobin y el Fondo de Becas para niños del centro de la ciudad invitan a los fieles a una misa especial que se celebrará en la Catedral Basílica del Sagrado Corazón, Newark, en recuerdo del 20 aniversario del 9/11 el miércoles 8 de septiembre de 2021 a las 5 p.m. Los acontecimientos del 11 de septiembre de 2001 cambiaron irrevocablemente las vidas de las familias y amigos de las víctimas, sobrevivientes, socorristas, trabajadores de rescate y recuperación, voluntarios y millones de estadounidenses y personas en todo el mundo. Hoy en día, los legados de los ataques siguen afectando la política exterior, la seguridad nacional, el discurso cívico y un sinnúmero de vidas individuales. Los ataques también proporcionaron numerosos ejemplos de individuos que ayudaron a otros de cualquier manera que pudieran, a menudo a expensas de su propia seguridad, en circunstancias difíciles. Su humanidad y abnegación ofrecen un contrapeso al horror de ese día y proporcionan un ejemplo a medida que enfrentamos momentos difíciles hoy y avanzamos. Si tiene alguna pregunta, no dude en comunicarse con 973-497-4279.

Message from the Office of Secretariat for Evangelization Archdiocese of Newark

The upcoming Masses for Our Country resumes in September. The masses are always held on the First Thursday of the month at Holy Spirit Church 970 Suburban Rd Union, New Jersey 07083. (July 4, 1776 was a Thursday, that's why the mass is celebrated on Thursday). The mass begins with praying a "Patriotic Rosary" at 7:00 PM. The Patriotic Rosary is one in which each of the fifty states is mentioned before each decade of the Rosary (10 at a time) as well as the various branches of local, state, and federal government before each Our Father.

The Mass begins at 7:30 PM and is, very simply, a time to pray for our country. We avoid 'politics' and just seek to pray and intercede for this country.

Masses in 2021 (September 2, October 7, November 4, December 2)

Masses in 2022 (January 6, February 3, March 3, April 7, May 5, June 2)

Special Mass to be held at Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in remembrance of 20th Anniversary of 9/11 on Wednesday, Sept. 8, 2021 at 5 p.m.

Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin and the Scholarship Fund for Inner City Children invite the faithful to a special Mass to be held at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart, Newark, in Remembrance of the 20th Anniversary of 9/11 on Wednesday, Sept. 8, 2021 at 5 p.m.

The events of Sept. 11, 2001 irrevocably changed the lives of victims' families and friends, survivors, first responders, rescue and recovery workers, volunteers, and millions of Americans and people around the world. Today, the legacies of the attacks continue to affect foreign policy, national security, civic discourse and countless individual lives.

The attacks also provided numerous examples of individuals helping others in whatever way they could, often at the expense of their own safety, under difficult circumstances. Their humanity and selflessness offer a counter to the horror of that day and provide an example as we face difficult moments today and moving forward. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to 973-497-4279.

Gospel Reading

God speaks to us in many ways, including through the Sunday Scripture readings. Each Sunday to better understand the Gospel, we include in our church bulletin the background on the Gospel Reading which will help you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way.

Mark 7:1-8,14-15,21-23

Jesus teaches that it is that which comes from our hearts that defiles us.

This Sunday, our lectionary returns to Mark's Gospel after a number of Sundays in which we heard the Bread of Life discourse from the Gospel of John. Recall that we focus on the Gospel of Mark in Lectionary Cycle B, but substitute John's report of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes for Mark's report of this event.

In today's Gospel, Mark provides a significant amount of information about the Jewish observance of ritual-purity laws. Most scholars believe that Mark includes this information because his audience includes Gentile Christians who have no knowledge or experience of these laws. We can infer, therefore, that many in Mark's community were not Jewish Christians.

In this Gospel, Mark addresses the question of which Jewish practices would also be observed in the newly emerging Christian community. This was a significant question for the early Christian Church, especially in communities that included both Jewish and Gentile converts to Christianity. We also hear this question addressed in the letters of Paul with regard to table fellowship. In Gospel passages such as the one today, we see the Gospel evangelists finding justification for a Christian practice distinct from Judaism in the remembrances of Jesus' teaching and the practice of his first disciples.

Jesus first criticizes the Pharisees for putting human tradition above God's Law. Here, Jesus is referring to the tradition of the elders, the teachings of the Pharisees, which extended the ritual-purity laws of Temple worship to everyday Jewish life. Jesus criticizes the Pharisees for making this tradition equal to and as binding as the Law of Moses.

Next, Jesus comments on the meaning behind the Pharisees' language of holiness—clean and unclean. Jesus teaches that a person is not defiled by the food that enters his or her body, but rather by sin that emerges from his or her words and actions. In this teaching, Jesus unmasks a deeper question behind the one posed to him by the Pharisees. The real issue is holiness, which is not found in external acts alone. Holiness comes from within and is evidenced in the actions and attitudes that emerge from a person's life.

If we read today's Gospel carefully, we will see a pattern in Jesus' teaching method that will be repeated in the weeks ahead. Jesus' first teaching is directed to the Pharisees who questioned him. Jesus' words are then directed to the crowd, teaching that a person is defiled by his or her words and actions, not by the food that he or she eats. In verses omitted in today's reading, we learn that Jesus returned home with his disciples, who in turn questioned him about what he had taught. The words we read at the conclusion of today's Gospel are addressed to Jesus' disciples. Mark's narrative shows several audiences for Jesus' teaching: his antagonists, the crowds, and Jesus' disciples. As we see in this reading, the words to the Pharisees are often words of challenge. The teaching to the crowds is often a general, sometimes cryptic, message. With the disciples, who often misunderstand Jesus' words, further explanation is offered about his message and its meaning.

Jesus' words challenge us as well. In our desire to show that we are holy, we might also give too much credence to externals, following rules without thinking about the intention behind them. Jesus reminds us that we do not make ourselves holy by our actions. Rather, we become holy when we allow God's Spirit to transform us. Our actions should be an expression of the conversion of our heart to God and to God's ways.
