MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

La Iglesia de San Vicente de Paul, se propone construir, fortalecer y dar vida, a nuestra comunidad. Para esto es importante servir los unos a los otros, sin exclusión alguna, siguiendo como modelo nuestro patrón, San Vicente de Paul.

Sept. 19.

Jesús predice su pasión, muerte y resurrección a sus discípulos (Mark 9:30-37).

Jesús ah tenido diversos incidentes con las autoridades religiosas judías y sabe que su momento esta cerca.

Al predecir su pasión, Jesús está reconociendo el peligro que enfrentarán y está tratando de preparar a sus discípulos para ello. Pero, ellos continúan sin entender lo que Jesús quiere decirles. Por eso se centran mas en buscar puestos, uno a la derecha y otro a la izquierda de Jesús. La intención de fondo no es mala, Juan y Santiago, hijos de Zebedeo, quieren como todos nosotros ser herederos del reino de los cielos. Participar del banquete celestial.

Sin embargo, ellos están olvidado lo mas importante, que para ser herederos del reino de los cielos, una de las claves es el servicio.

No se puede llegar al cielo sin haber servido, ayudado, tendido la mano al necesitado. Al enfermo, al desvalido, al hermano que nos necesita. Nosotros estamos llamados a caminar con el otro. El servicio es clave en la vida de discipulado. La vida seria mas sencilla, mas llevadera si nos ayudáramos los unos a los otros. Es cuestión de humildad, sencillez. Imitemos el corazón de Jesús y sus muchas virtudes y encontraremos la paz que tanto necesitamos.

Sacred Relics of The Saints: Treasures of The Church

St. Henry Parish will present a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Wednesday, October 6th at 7pm in Saint Henry's Church. Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2,000 years.

Among the treasures will be relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and thousands have occurred through this ministry. Do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. For most, this will be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Please spread the word.

Stewardship Reflection

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." (Mark 9:35)

Jesus teaches us that we are called to love one another. Love involves sacrifice. Sacrifice is a word that many of us don't like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

Gospel Reading

God speaks to us in many ways, including through the Sunday Scripture readings. Each Sunday to better understand the Gospel, we include in our church bulletin the background on the Gospel Reading which will help you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way.

Mark 9:30-37

Jesus teaches his disciples that the greatest are those who serve all.

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus again predict his passion, death, and Resurrection to his disciples. The setting here is important. Jesus and his disciples are preparing to journey through Galilee, a Jewish territory in which Jesus has already encountered problems with the Pharisees. Perhaps this is why Mark indicates that Jesus was trying to journey in secret. In predicting his passion, Jesus is acknowledging the danger they will face and is trying to preparing his disciples for it. Yet Mark tells us that the disciples did not understand what Jesus was saying and were afraid to ask what he meant. Such hesitation on the part of the disciples is not characteristic behavior. Peter had no fear about rebuking Jesus in last week's Gospel. Perhaps this is an indication that the disciples were aware that a new situation was emerging.

Mark paints a vivid picture in today's Gospel. Having arrived at Capernaum, Jesus and his disciples enter a house. In this private place, Jesus asks his disciples about the argument they had while they were journeying. Again, the disciples are uncharacteristically silent and afraid to answer. They have been found out. Jesus then summons the Twelve, whom Mark identified earlier in his Gospel as those chosen by Jesus to preach and to drive out demons. To this select group of disciples, Jesus teaches that those who would be first in God's kingdom must be servants of all.

Jesus then calls forward a child and teaches the Twelve that to receive a child in Jesus' name is to receive both Jesus and the One who sent him. We might easily fail to understand the significance of this action. In first-century Palestine, children were without status or power, possessing no legal rights. In this action, Jesus is teaching his disciples and us that when we serve the least ones among us, we serve Jesus himself. Who are the people without power or status in our society that Jesus is calling us to serve? Do we do so willingly? Jesus teaches that God's judgment of us will be based on this criterion alone.

We welcome into our parish family the following children who were brought to the Lord through the Sacrament of Baptism: Brayden R. J. Norton and Leo Jude Short. May the grace of the sacrament remain with them always.
