PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We the people of St. Vincent de Paul Church see ourselves as a congregation of believers among whom Jesus is living. We do what we believe we are called to do, and we educate ourselves to proclaim our commitment to build, strengthen and enliven our parish community. We strive towards the goal of making our witness more constant and more credible by our actions, and to devote ourselves to serving one another and all others in our community as did our patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

Baptism:

The church asks that children be baptized soon after birth. Please note that Godparents must be Catholic and have received Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation. Baptisms will be scheduled for 2pm on the first Sunday of the month and class will be held the week before the Baptism at three (3) PM.

Please call the Parish office in advance of your desired month for Baptism.

Marriage:

According to Diocesan regulations, arrangements should be made one year prior to the marriage by personal appointment with a priest. Please contact the Parish Office for an appointment.

The Sacrament of Holy Orders and Religious Life:

If you are considering serving God as a priest or deacon, you may contact your parish Priest, Deacon, or the Diocesan Vocation Office at 973.313.6190. You can also visit www.newarkpriest.com.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA):

The RCIA is a process of prayer, study and spiritual formation which prepares adults for their possible entrance into the church. Any adult who is interested in learning about the fullness of Christ present in the Catholic Church is invited to call the Rectory Office at 201.436.2222 and speak to Deacon Michael for further information. Meetings have returned to the rectory meeting room on Sundays

Devotions

MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

La Iglesia de San Vicente de Paul, se propone construir, fortalecer y dar vida, a nuestra comunidad. Para esto es importante servir los unos a los otros, sin exclusión alguna, siguiendo como modelo nuestro patrón, San Vicente de Paul.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Marcos 10:46-52

Jesús devuelve la vista al ciego Bartimeo

Jesús no solamente ha venido enseñando sobre el reino de Dios y que debemos hacer para alcanzarlo. Por ejemplo, compartiendo lo que tenemos. No buscar puestos, antes bien ser humildes, y dispuestos a servir. Hoy pues, el mismo se pone de ejemplo.

Le llamamos maestro, y que bien, por que el maestro hoy muestra su compasión y su misericordia por el desvalido, el que sufre.

Dos cosas bien importantes:

- La compasión de Jesús—Le ve y no tiene ningún reparo, en parar de su larga jornada y sanarle. Jesús conoce el sufrimiento, y en su amor infinito, se compadece y le regala la sanación.
- La insistencia de Bartimeo... el mismo Jesús en otra ocasión ya nos ha llamado a pedir con fe... “El que pide recibe, pero pidiendo con fe...” Bartimeo es un claro ejemplo del siervo sufriendo que clama al cielo y Dios lo escucha.

Jesús es un Dios misericordioso, sin pretensiones, o buscan reconocimientos, lugares de honor o privilegios, le sana y nos quiere sanar hoy, pero pidiendo con fe y nada os será negado... amen.

Sacramentos

Bautismo – La iglesia pide que los niños sean bautizados un poco después del nacimiento. Padrinos deben de ser católicos y haber recibido los sacramentos. (Bautismo, Eucaristía y Confirmación).

Matrimonio – La regulación diocesana exige una preparación de un año antes de recibir el sacramento.

Ordenes sagradas y la vida Religiosa – Si siente el llamado de servir a Dios como Sacerdote o Diacono comuníquese con la parroquia o la oficina de vocaciones 973-313-6190 o página web www.newarkpriest.com

Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos (RICA) – Cualquier adulto que esté interesado en recibir los sacramentos comunicarse con la iglesia.

Unión de los enfermos – Si tiene un familiar enfermo en el hospital o en casa comunicarse con la iglesia.

Oraciones de los Fieles

Que reconozcamos todos los dones que hemos recibido y la presencia activa de Dios en nuestra vida cotidiana.

Reflexión sobre la mayordomía

Domingo 30 del Tiempo Ordinario

“y Jesús le dijo. ‘Sigue tu camino; tu fe te ha curado’. E inmediatamente pudo ver y lo siguió en su camino” (Marcos 10:52)

La fe es creer en algo aun cuando no pueda verlo físicamente. Muchas personas piensan que los milagros ya no suceden. Esto es difícil, pero trate de centrarse en las cosas positivas de su vida y no en las negativas. Cuando se centra en sus bendiciones en lugar de hacerlo en sus dificultades, los milagros parecerán comunes. Verá la presencia activa de Dios en su vida cotidiana. Usted comenzará a desarrollar una actitud de gratitud.

La grandeza del hombre no está contenida en sus posesiones, estatus sociales, triunfos y placeres, pero antes bien, reside en sus buenas obras. En un corazón dispuesto a amar, a perdonar, a servir. Y esto es precisamente la idea de Reino de Dios.

En recuerdo del Día de los Difuntos tenderemos una ofrenda de velas. Recuerda a tu ser querido en la paz de Cristo con una oración y una vela. El costo de las velas es $15 y permanecerá encendida durante una semana. Envíe su formulario con los nombres de aquellos a quienes desea recordar antes del domingo 24 de Octubre.

Prohibiciones del matrimonio: Las siguientes parejas celebraron el sacramento del matrimonio mientras responden al llamado de Dios a vivir en su amor: Sean Brow y Samantha Argueta, José Miranda y Ramona Damaris Estévez

We All Are Called to Sainthood; Why Do So Few Get There?

By Larry Peterson

The word “catholic” means universal or all-inclusive. You find out how true this is if you write about different saints.

I have written articles about saints who came from many places around the world. These places include France, Portugal, Belgium, Germany, Mexico, the United States, Ireland, etc. Yet, I have only scratched the surface. There are also saints from places such as Korea, Poland, Uganda, Brazil, Britain, Australia, and many more.

I have found that the common denominator among all of these people is that when it came down to fully answering Christ’s call, they all invariably emptied themselves, offering their very lives up to Him. Their own needs, comforts, and desires took a permanent back seat to their love of Jesus. First and foremost, they wanted to do for Him whatever He called upon them to do.

Some willingly went through unimaginable pain and torture in doing so. They never wavered from the all-consuming love of the Savior whose warm embrace was awaiting them at His door. These are the people that represent the “best of the best” in our Catholic world and are shining examples for all of us.

St. Therese of Lisieux was quoted long ago as saying, “My soul is at peace, for long ago I ceased to belong to myself.” All saints eventually cease to belong to themselves and surrender to Christ.

Canonization Process

The journey to sainthood is available to all of us. It should be what our ultimate goal always is. However, most of us (like myself) often let the things of the world get in our way.

Those who have been declared Saints by the Church and those in the queue (this includes the Blessed, the Venerable, and Servants of God), however, have either reached the mountaintop or are on the way up. Since these folks are dead, how do we know this for sure? We accept the process and decision as put forth by Holy Mother Church. It is the Canonization process, and it is not an easy one.

The first steps in the process begin at the local or diocesan level. After a person is dead for five years, the person’s name may be presented to the local Bishop. The Bishop will decide whether or not the evidence warrants his calling a Diocesan Tribunal together to open an investigation into the person put forth. If he chooses to move ahead, he will appoint a Postulator who is usually one of the priests assigned to the diocese.

Servant of God

The Postulator assigns several others to help in the investigation. These people conduct interviews and investigate the character of the proposed candidate. The person’s writings are checked, and their overall life is opened and inspected.

If the Diocesan Tribunal and Bishop approve the person, they are declared a “Servant of God.” All documentation is then forwarded to the Vatican.

Venerable (a life of heroic virtue)

The second step involves the Congregation of Saints. Nine theologians determine whether the case should move forward. If so, it is presented to the Bishops and Cardinals in the congregation. Approval by the Bishops and Cardinals moves the case to the Pope for a decision. If the Pope agrees, the person in question is deemed to have lived a life of “heroic virtue.” The person is then declared “Venerable,” i.e., Venerable Fulton J Sheen.

We All Are Called to Sainthood - Continued One Miracle or Martyrdom

The third step is the beatification process. This process begins when a miracle has supposedly taken place through the intercession of the Venerable person in question. Once the miracle is validated, the person can be beatified and is called “Blessed.” In the case of martyrdom, the miracle can be waived, and the Holy Father can declare the person “Blessed,” as he has done in the case of Father Jacques Hamel.

Canonization

The final step is the actual Canonization of the beatified person by the Holy Father in Rome. This step is usually predicated on a second irrefutable miracle. This miracle must be the result of the future saint’s intercession. Note that a miracle must be spontaneous, complete, and defy a medical explanation.

Once the miracle is approved, the person is declared a saint. A huge celebration is scheduled at the Vatican and a date is set to elevate the person to Sainthood. Tens of thousands of people are often on hand for a Canonization. Obviously, reaching that saintly mountain peak is no easy task.

We are all family

I call the Catholic saints and those following them up the ladder members of the Catholic Hall of Fame. They are the “best of the best,” from the Apostles and the earliest saints, down through the ages to St. John Paul II and St. Teresa of Calcutta.

Our heritage is filled with such rich and abundant spirituality. The inspiration, motivation, perseverance, patience, humility, and fortitude of the saints are all available at all times. All we have to do is reach out, grab hold of one of our saints and ask for a bit of help. They are there for us. After all, we are all family.

Mother Angelica perhaps said it best:

“Where most men work for degrees after their names, we work for one before our names: ‘saint.’ It’s a more difficult degree to attain. It takes a lifetime, and you don’t get your diploma until you’re dead.”

How to Report Abuse

The Archdiocese takes very seriously any and all allegations of sexual misconduct by members of the clergy, Religious and lay staff of the Archdiocese. We encourage anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform us immediately so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and provide support to victims of sexual abuse. Individuals who wish to report an allegation of sexual misconduct may do so by calling the Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection at (201) 407-3256 or (973)-497-4254.

Gospel Reading

God speaks to us in many ways, including through the Sunday Scripture readings. Each Sunday to better understand the Gospel, we include in our church bulletin the background on the Gospel Reading which will help you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way.

Mark 10:46-52

Jesus restores sight to the blind man, Bartimaeus Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel. In this Gospel, we find evidence of Jesu' fame in the sizable crowd that accompanies him as he journeys to Jerusalem. Jesus' reputation as a healer has preceded him. When the blind man, Bartimaeus, hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, he calls out to him, asking for his pity. When Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus, the crowd around him tries to silence him. Yet Bartimaeus persists, calling out more loudly and with greater urgency. He will not be silenced or deterred from getting Jesus' attention. We notice how quickly the crowd's reaction changes when Jesus calls for Bartimaeus. Those who sought to quiet him now encourage him. When Jesus restores Bartimaeus's sight, no elaborate action is required. (In other healing stories in Mark's Gospel, actions accompany Jesus' words). In this instance, Jesus simply says that Bartimaeus's faith has saved him. Throughout Mark's Gospel, the success of Jesus' healing power has often been correlated with the faith of the person requesting Jesus' help. For example, it is because of her faith that the woman with the hemorrhage is healed. When faith is absent, Jesus is unable to heal; we see this after his rejection in Nazareth. Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. In Mark's Gospel, Bartimaeus is the last disciple called by Jesus before he enters Jerusalem. Bartimaeus hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, but he calls out to Jesus using words of faith—"Son of David." Many in Jesus' time believed that the anticipated Jewish Messiah would be a descendent of King David. Bartimaeus's words prepare us for the final episodes of Mark's Gospel, which begin with Jesus' preparation for the Passover and his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. As Mark has shown us in our readings over the past few Sundays, however, Jesus will be the Messiah in a way that will be difficult for many to accept. Jesus will show himself to be the Messiah through his suffering and death.

Stewardship Reflection

"And Jesus said to him, 'Go your way; your faith has made you well.' And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way." (Mark 10:52) Faith is believing in something even though you may not be able to physically see it. Many people think that miracles don't happen anymore. This is hard, but try to focus on the positive and not the negative things in your life. When you focus on your blessings instead of your hardships, miracles will seem common. You will see God's active presence in your daily life. You will begin to develop an attitude of gratitude.

DONATIONS NEEDED!

The Newcomer Conservation and Humanitarian Fund A New Jersey Non-Profit

- Water Assessment and Purification (WASP)
- A man-portable system permitting rapid water evaluation, production, and purification to meet military water quality standards
- WASP is a portable toolkit for water assessment and purification, weighing in at 44 lbs. Point-of-use water filtration in remote areas

Donations are needed to provide WASP Systems in areas of the world where water purification is needed. The WASP permits smaller military units or civilian groups to evaluate water sources, produce water as needed, and ensure that the end results meet physical water quality standards. The system mitigates reliance on bottled water or unsafe water sources to allow increased field responsiveness. It also reduces costs associated with larger scale water production and transport.
