REPENT!

"Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. . ." (Acts 2:38)

I know, I know. Today's readings are about the coming of John the Baptist and his baptism of Jesus and not necessarily repenting. However, John the Baptist came "preaching the baptism of repentance" (Matt. 3:1-1, Mark 1:4, Acts 13:24) and that was always the focus of his message.

I know what you're thinking. Jesus didn't have anything to repent of, did He? And you're right. Strange as it might sound, I think His baptism was more His "ordination" because His ministry didn't begin until after He was baptized. Of course, at that point the Holy Spirit visibly descended on Him in the form of a dove, and God thundered from heaven "this is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (Matt. 3:16-17). If ever there was an occasion for a viral video, that would be it.

All of this, according to Jesus, was done "to fulfill all righteousness" (Matt. 3:15). It was a physical manifestation of what happens spiritually to us at baptism. However, that is based on whether you have repented or not.

You see, there are three key elements to salvation. The very first one is to admit you are a sinner. In other words, repent – have shame and remorse about the wrong things you've done in your life. The second is to believe or have faith – you know that Jesus is the Son of God, and that salvation comes only though Him. The third is to confess or speak about your conversion to others.

The problem that arises is that anyone can "say" they believe in Christ and even talk about it to others. Joshua Harris, famous author of "I Kissed Dating Goodbye" and former pastor would be one of those. He denounced his faith recently, so in all those years, he was pretending. His faith wasn't real. Rather than repent, he chose to walk away from God. There are a multitude of TV preachers who are equally guilty.

On the other hand, we have stunning examples of people who have repented from truly debauched lives evidenced by how they live. We have the late Chuck Colson of Watergate fame; David Berkowitz, who was serial killer Son of Sam, still in prison and teaching bible studies. And let us not forget the Apostle Paul, murderer of Christians. Some of the best preachers I know have the shadiest pasts.

So, we need to be cautious of John the Baptist's demand that we repent. Repenting doesn't mean to say "sorry". It means to feel bitter remorse, actual shame about the things you've done and admit they were wrong. To see your sin through God's eyes without any attempt to justify what you've done. It's sin, it's wrong and there is no justification in God's eyes.

We love to remind you of 2 Chron. 7:14, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

God is calling the CHURCH (not the building but the individuals in it: clergy, lay ministers and the people in the pews) to repent (turn from their wicked ways). If you want to know why this country is literally going to hell, it is because the church has not repented. Rather, the church has embraced the world and all it's sins, justifying them as "love" and "tolerance". To preach the gospel in its purest form (meaning from scripture) is offensive and exclusive. Isaiah 8:14 says, "And He will become a sanctuary and a stone of offense." John 14:6 says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." They are right and by saying so, fulfill these scriptures.

Today, God is calling every individual in the churches to truly repent and stand firm in the gospel as it was handed down by the apostles. Are you willing to do that or are you going to continue to justify your sin nature to please man? Time is short, repent while you still can.

A Family Perspective from the Office of Family Life Education: In today's gospel, Jesus was publicly AFFIRMED by his Father: "You are my beloved son, with you I am very pleased." As parents, we can become so focused on misbehaviors we overlook the good behaviors. Jesus needed AFFIRMATION and so do our children.
