Be baptized and sent—on Mission in the world

Today World Mission Sunday , in this Extraordinary Missionary Month, we are called to personal encounter with Jesus Christ alive in the Church, and to offer, through this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for the propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we are “sent” out to witness to Mission in the world through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world. As little as...

- $25 helps support a catechist for a month in remote Latin America
- $ 75 provides for the work of religious Sisters caring for the orphaned children in Africa
- $ 100 assists poor children in boarding schools in Asia

AS always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLDS MISSION SUNDAY , support mission priests, religious Sisters and brothers and Lay catechists who are Christ’s witnesses to a world so in need of His healing , love and peace.

Today there is a second collection to support world mission. God bless.

Healing mass in Holy Cross Parish

As the gospels relate, the sick came to him for healing; moreover, he loves us so much that he died for our sake. Through the apostle James, he has commanded us: “ are there any who are sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and the priests pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of the faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up: and if they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them”.

Hence we are planning to have healing mass on October, 27 (SUNDAY Evening) at 4.00 pm in Holy Cross Church. All are invited to participate in the mass and be healed. If you participate in the weekend masses, still you can participate in this special mass. If you have any clarifications, please speak to Fr. Joe.

At times it is easy to lose one's faith

A wise person of the Old Testament summarizes the accumulated life experiences: "From my youth to old age, I am yet to see the righteous forsaken or their children begging for alms. For the Lord loves justice and right and never forsakes his faithful ones. The wicked instead will perish and their breed will be cut off" (Ps 37:25,28).

Beautiful words, would we subscribe to them without any reservation? Who does not know occurrences that contradict it? Two weeks ago we have heard Habakkuk lamenting to the Lord. He said: In the country the evil ones dominate, doing all sorts of injustice and You, Lord, do not intervene.

In the Bible one finds stupendous invocations to God asking his intervention when life on earth becomes intolerable. The Psalmist implores: "But you, O Lord, who have seen, do not keep silent. Do not stand far from me. Stir yourself up, stand up for my rights and my cause, my God and my Lord" (Ps 35:22-23). In the Book of Revelation, the martyrs raise their cry to the Lord: "Holy and righteous Lord, how long will it be before you render justice and avenge our blood on the inhabitants of the earth?" (Rev 6:10).

Why is it that God does not respond always and immediately to these pleadings? If, although he could, he does not put an end to injustice; could he perhaps be considered innocent? How would he justify his silence?

To internalize the message, we repeat:

"Even if I am not always aware, you, Lord, protect me in the shadow of your wings."
