Be watchful!!! The four week of advent are for remembering this important advise. Each day we are given 24 precious hours to live. How many of those hours do we spend working fir material success and all the problems it brings: worry, anxiety, greed, envy and anger to name a few? As advent begins, let is make an effort to reclaim some of these valuable hours by putting ourselves in the hands of God and spending them on faith, love and concern for others.

Please join us for an afternoon of prayerful reflection
Confession at 3.30—Sunday at 4.00

AN EVENING WITH MARY ADVENT RETREAT-Facilitated by Jennifer Edwards-December 6

We celebrate Mary's feast day during every Advent on December 8th, but what do we know about her? Although she may appear perfectly put together and unfazed in statues and on holy cards, she faced incredible challenges and is more relatable than you might think! What can she teach us about how to pray? Join us for an Advent retreat facilitated by Jennifer Edwards Friday, December 6, 2019 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Church in Woodbourne, NY. $10 fee includes materials for prayer and refreshments. To register, visit www.icwoodbourne.com, pick up a form at the church, or contact Jennifer at jenhenedwards@gmail.com or 845-866-1689. Registration by December 4.

KING OF LOVE

What is your image of a king? Among other things, you probably think of power and splendor when you think of royalty. The first-century Jews had some very specific expectations concerning the messiah, the anointed king, about whom the prophets spoke. And so when some gazed upon Jesus hanging on the cross, they laughed at the idea that this could be the longed-for messiah.

Jesus was mocked by his fellow Jews, the thief who was crucified with him, and the Roman soldiers as well. His apparent weakness and disgrace on the cross were the very antithesis of the worldly idea of a king. But for Luke and the other early Christians, this crucifixion scene is the perfect image of Christ as King: The cross is the throne from which Jesus rules as the King of Love. His death is his loving gift to us.

From the cross Christ invites us to share in his reign. We participate in his kingship by sacrificing ourselves in love—by caring for the weak and the sick, by helping those in need, by sharing our time and our very selves with those around us. In the end, love itself proves to be stronger than even death. In the end, Love itself reigns forever.

CALLED TO KINGLY SERVICE

"Now Christ has communicated this royal power to his disciples that they might be constituted in royal freedom and that by true penance and a holy life they might conquer the reign of sin in themselves. Further, he has shared this power so that serving Christ in their fellow men they might by humility and patience lead their brethren to that king for whom to serve is to reign. But the Lord wishes to spread his kingdom also by means of the laity, namely, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love, and peace. In this kingdom, creation itself will be delivered from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God. Clearly then a great promise and a great trust is committed to the disciples: "All things are yours, and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's." — Vatican II Lumen Gentium, 36
