True Repentance

First reading : Isaiah 11:1-10

On that day, a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom.
The spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him:
a spirit of wisdom and of understanding,
a spirit of counsel and of strength,
a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the LORD,
and his delight shall be the fear of the LORD.

Second Reading: Romans 15: 4-9

Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed
you, for the glory of God.

Gospel: Matthew 3: 1- 12

John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!"
It was of him that the prophet Isaiah had spoken
when he said:
*A voice of one crying out in the desert,
Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight his paths.*

God is faithful even when man, instead of responding with love to God's love, opposes him and treat him like a rival, deluding himself and relying on his own power, with the resulting break of relationship with the one who created him. In spite of this transgression on man's part ,
God remains faithful in love .

Pope John Paul II.

Pray with great confidence, with confidence
based upon the goodness and infinite generosity of God and upon the promises of Jesus Christ.
God is a spring of living water which flows unceasingly into hearts of those who pray.

St. Louis de Monfort

"If you want peace, work for justice"

Pope Paul IV

Few souls understand what God would accomplish in them if they were to abandon themselves unreservedly to Him, and if they were to allow
His grace to mold them accordingly.

St. Ignatius of Loyola
