THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together. ©LPi

LIFTING OF THE DISPENSATION FROM THE OBLIGATION TO ATTEND MASS

Cardinal Gregory and the Bishops of the Province of Baltimore (Archdiocese of Baltimore, Catholic Diocese of Arlington, Catholic Diocese of Wilmington, Catholic Diocese of Richmond and the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston) have jointly announced that the dispensation of the Sunday and Holy Day Mass obligation will be lifted beginning on Saturday, June 26, 2021 and Sunday, June 27, 2021.

SUNDAY’S READINGS

First Reading:

But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it. (Wis 2:24)

Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30)

Second Reading:

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. (2 Cor 8:13-14)

Gospel:

He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koun,” which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!” (Mk 5:41)

A MESSAGE TO PARISHIONERS FROM FATHER MARTINO

As St. Mary’s prepares to welcome Father Matt Fish as pastor, I wanted to provide a quick update. I am moving from St. Peter’s this summer, although the details of my transfer have not yet been finalized. However, before my next assignment, I have been given a wonderful opportunity to make the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, a thirty-day silent retreat. Because of the timing of the retreat, I may be leaving St. Peter’s before I know where I am going (in which case, hopefully there will be news when I emerge from thirty days of silence!). It has been a blessing to serve St. Mary’s along with Father Woods and Monsignor McGready, and I know that Father Matt is excited to be coming to Newport. Please know that I will keep you all in my prayers, and please pray for me, especially during my retreat! God bless, Father Martino.

DAILY MASS UPDATE:

There will be no daily Mass at St. Mary Newport on June 28, 29, 30, July 1, 2, 5, 6, 7. Daily Mass will resume Thursday, July 8. Weekend Masses remain the same, no changes.
