Dear Church,

Hard to believe that summer is almost over! With Labor Day around the corner, the calendar seems to be saying it's time to get back to work—at least for those of us still following the school year! Alas, the weather has not seemed to change too much: August has seemed like one never-ending hot, humid day. I like to open the windows early in the morning when I pray in our church, to catch a little bit of cool breeze. I can say I have detected almost none this last month!

But sure as summer is a cooker here in Southern Maryland, fall is coming. I started teaching again this last week—for the first time in twelve years! A lot has changed, not least of all the almost overwhelming permeation of virtual media throughout the curriculum: but at its core, teaching remains an encounter, a dialogue between the instructor and the student. Questions must be asked, curiosity must be piqued, reasoning must be done, understanding must be sought, all while not forgetting the deeper purpose of the endeavor: not job-training or test-preparation, but the love of wisdom, the compelling goal that it is truth alone that will set us free and fill our hearts.

This last month I've been preaching about the importance of the Mass. It's the most basic part of our life as Catholics. There is nothing else that so profoundly reveals who we are, what we are here for, and what we can hope in, like the Mass. As Catholics, we know that our faith is not a label nor a milestone. It is not found in a book and it is not something we get by talking about it. Our faith is a mystical reality, and so being Catholic means being a part of what God is doing now: encountering the living God today in the Word and in the sacraments.

Daily Mass is an excellent way to deepen our faith life. On account of my work teaching at St. Mary's Ryken, I've recently moved our daily Mass (Monday through Saturday) from 8.00am to 7.00am. I've seen a few new faces, no doubt some folks who can go now before work. But I'm also missing a few regulars, for whom 7.00am is a tough go.

Therefore, in order to offer another time when folks can come, starting this week we will also have Mass every Thursday evening at 6.30pm. Thursday is the day we remember the institution of both the priesthood and the Eucharist, the two sacraments which Christ began on that Thursday of the Last Supper. What a great way to deepen our experience of the divine mystical presence, by thanking God for the gift of the Mass on the day he gave it to us!

Furthermore, I want to begin offering something for our Shrine of St. John Vianney. This shrine is not only a gift for us, it is a call and mission for others. I want to raise awareness of this shrine throughout the Archdiocese, as well as of the need to pray for priests and for vocations to the priesthood—surely a cause worthy of St. John Vianney if there ever was one!

Accordingly, we will be offering our Thursday evening Mass each week for a different one of our 139 Archdiocesan parishes, for their priests and for vocations to the priesthood from that parish. I'll send out a card each week, letting the pastor know that we are praying for them. Hopefully you can join me: but even if you can't, please lift up that parish in prayer.

Our first Thursday evening Mass, on September 2nd, will be offered for our mother church, the Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle. Through the intercession of St. John Vianney, let us pray for the priests there, and that God would raise up vocations to the priesthood from that parish!

God bless you,
Fr Matt
