WHAT'S HAPPENING

GOSPEL MEDITATION: The Epiphany of the Lord

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

As requested by New York State and the Archdiocese of New York, masks are to be worn in all indoor spaces, please make sure you wear a mask in Church. We need to keep ourselves safe and the people around us. Thank You!

Salmo 72;

Segunda Lectura del libro de los Efesios 3:2–3a, 5–6

Lectura del Santo Evangelio según San Mateo 2:1–12

Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor

Los magos dependieron tanto de la ciencia como de la fe para ser guiados hacia el Señor. Ellos observaron el cielo oscuro, y estudiaron el movimiento de las estrellas y planetas e hicieron conclusiones basándose en los recorridos de estos cuerpos celestes. Sin saber de qué se trataba esta estrella extraordinaria se dieron cuenta de su importancia y emprendieron el largo camino hacia Jerusalén. Pero aún a unas cuantas millas para llegar a su destino necesitaron una dirección de los sumos sacerdotes y escribas para dirigirlos hacia Belén. La ciencia o la fe no fueron suficientes por sí solas, sino que tuvieron que viajar juntos para encontrar al Señor.

Isaías menciona el oro y el incienso, regalos apropiados para un rey. Pero los magos también traen mirra — usada para ungir un cuerpo después de la muerte— porque este rey es también víctima, llamado a sufrir, como el siervo sufriente de Isaías, por el pecado de todos .

Saint of the Week

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."
