OCTOBER 24, 2021:

Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Mark 10: 46-52

In today's reading from Mark's Gospel, a blind man asks Jesus to see. Jesus responds not by mixing mud or touching the man's eyes or looking to heaven in prayer; Jesus says, basically, Pay attention. Look with the eyes of the faith you already possess. The man receives his sight - but Jesus also affirms the vision that Bartimaeus already possessed by faith: to realize God's compassion in his midst, to see the possibilities for transforming hope and re-creating love to heal the brokenness in his life, to comprehend God's call to be the means for justice and reconciliation for others. Jesus opens our "eyes," as well, enabling us to look at our lives and world with the eyes of faith: to realize the opportunities to bring life and light, healing and peace along our way to the dwelling place of God. Christ comes to our restore our "sight" to see God's sacred presence in our lives, to heal us of our blindness to the sins of selfishness and hatred we too easily rationalize away and see, instead, our world with a grateful eye.
