New York State has instituted a mask mandate in all public places effective December 13 to January 15. It is being done as a safety precaution and out of the utmost concern for one's neighbor. Bishop Lucia expects that all parishes in the Diocese of Syracuse will cooperate with this important public health matter and comply with the mask mandate. It is suggested to have some masks on hand for those who may not be equipped.

JANUARY 2, 2022: Baptism of the Lord

"I am baptizing you with water,
but one mightier than I is coming .

He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Luke 3: 15-16, 21-22

Baptismal moments

Our lives are filled with "baptismal" moments when we are "submerged" in the waters of change, of discovery, of decision, of illness, of death.

Baptism is not just a one-time ritual or milestone but a continuing experience of transformation in the spirit of Christ, the suffering servant of God, in the many "baptisms" we experience. Baptism is to take on a faith that becomes part of the very fabric of our lives, to embrace an identity in which God and the things of God become both our life's journey and destination.

January 9, 2022:
Baptism of the Lord
(LK 3:15-16, 21-22)

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

In today's gospel Jesus was publicly AFFIRMED by his Father:
"You are my beloved son, with you I am very pleased."

As parents we can become so focused on misbehaviors we overlook the good behaviors.

Jesus needed AFFIRMATION
and so do our children

Prayer for the Synod
 We stand here before You, Holy Spirit, As we gather together in Your name.
 With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
 Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
 We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.
 Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
 nor partiality influence our actions.
 Let us find in You our unity
 so that we may journey together to eternal life
 and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
 All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Epiphany
 Over sand-scapes, soft and dapple-deep in moonlight,
 A crest, a peak, a sweep and still another over-
 Down the valley sweeping sand surmounted,
 Another, and another.
 Broken sky expands, and sinks, in borne again
 In sight, moonlight,
 Ignited by revealing ray
 Reveal, relieve, and reach.
 The night is cold and old and long awaiting
 Caravans grow faint and still the silken strand,
 Scarlet on the golden sand, winds on.
 Still the new moon
 holding darkened route in hand,
 taunts stubborn and believing band.
 To stop? In darkness?
 folly flee, from her nothing firm has ever founded,
 Earth alone had floundered,
 Until star struck stone against iron in that foreign sky
 Fire-faith first formed above horizon's eye-
 They could not see for wrestling rounds of road
 They could not speak for silence telling sold
 They could not break what cast their body-mold
 Stark Soul!
 Alive, are drawn on and on-
 Reveal, through secret night, forgotten plight-
 Drawn on, God-Son!
 Then mystery cracked against a stable door,
 And spilling out upon the straw-strewn floor,
 The savior seen.

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

He bowed his head in humility as an example, not because he suffered imperfections

Who would not want a doctor who, before he cuts, lifts his shirt a little, shows his own scar, and says to the patient, "I had the same. It's going to be alright"? What soldier would not be just a little braver, stand a little taller, seeing medals for valor on his commander's uniform? We want our heroes, our leaders, and our guides to lead through personal example. To have been there. To have done that. And we want our Savior to do the same. To empathize. To participate. To identify. To accompany. Actions resonate more than words.

Our sinless God "became" sin, in the words of St. Paul. Jesus identifies with sin but never sinned. Jesus carries sin but is not a sinner. Why? Because to become sin is to become man. In order for God to enter into human reality, He had to identify with all that sin entails. God wanted to stand with us shoulder to shoulder. He did not fake becoming man. He really became man. And if God came to forgive sins and sinners, and to shed His blood for them on the cross, He had to bear the burden they bore yet retain His perfection. This is why our sinless God was baptised on today's feast. God lays to the side His perfection and dignity and bows His head in the dirty waters of a river. He lined up with sinners to receive in humility what He did not need. To attend a school whose subjects He had mastered. Our God knew the value of empathy. He knew the power of example. And He knew that His ministry to mankind had to start not on a golden throne but in the mud with other men just trying to start again and again.

The fullness of the Holy Trinity, first revealed more subtly at the Annunciation, is present and spoken for at the Lord's baptism. The Holy Spirit, in the form of a dove, hovers. The voice of God the Father intones favor toward His Son. And the Son enters into the essential Christian pact with man—I will become like you so that you can become like me. Sins will be taken away through water and blood. I will suffer for your benefit. This is the promise. And the Church's priests will carry on the baptising and forgiving and consecrating until the sun sets for the last time. God comes to us in many ways, but most intensely through the Sacraments. Jesus' actions prove this.

O Lord, your Baptism shows us that you are not remote. You are at our side. You know sin but are not a sinner. Give us the grace to renew our baptism through a frequent reception of confession and the Holy Eucharist. By receiving one, we strengthen the others. By receiving You, we receive God Himself.

In the Ukraine the faithful gather in the front of the church where a cross of ice is placed. Since there are no rivers near churches, a tub is filled with water and is placed in front of the ice cross. During special and very unique services the water is blessed and brought home. This is taken in before breakfast is eaten. The remains are kept during the year to keep the home safe from fire, lightening and sickness.

The priest visits his parishioners to bless their homes with the holy water that the New Year may be one of cooperation with the gift of God; His Son and the participation in the Life He has come to lead us in toward Salvation.

The evening meal is very much a repeat of the Holy Supper except that there are no restrictions on meat and dairy products.

It starts with Kutia, which has been saved from Christmas Eve.

{Kutia – a mix of boiled grains, honey, nuts, poppy seeds, dried fruits, and other toppings }
