From Fr. Kelly

JANUARY 23, 2022:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me" Luke 1: 1-4; 4: 14-21

All of us, at one time or another, doubt we can realize the good we are called to do.

We don't think we can measure up to the expectations of others - and we're not sure we want to.

We struggle to make sense of our lives and to understand what we want to make of them.

Isaiah's vision read by Jesus in today's Gospel includes us: the Spirit of God "is upon" us, too, leading us to the other side of doubt, setting us to the work of creating God's Kingdom here and now, enabling us to see our lives and world illuminated with the peace and hope of our Creator.

As Jesus realizes his identity in the Spirit of God at his baptism, we find our identity in that Spirit at our baptisms, as well.

January 23, 2022:
Third Sunday (LK 1:1-4; 4:14-2)
A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar
In today's gospel Jesus was "praised by all" except at home in Nazareth where the "eyes of all were intently on him."
Acceptance can be hard to find at home due to unreal EXPECTATIONS.
Jesus challenges us to "proclaim liberty" to anyone "oppressed" or "captive" by our EXPECTATIONS

Many thanks to the donors and volunteers who braved the cold and snow to support our blood drive. We collected 36 units of blood that can potentially help 108 people in need during this critical blood shortage. Your donation of lifesaving blood will make a difference to so many in need. Thank you for your willingness to help others. The Red Cross also sends a BIG thank you!

Prayer for the Synod

We stand here before You, Holy Spirit, As we gather together in Your name.
 With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
 Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
 We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.
 Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
 nor partiality influence our actions.
 Let us find in You our unity
 so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
 All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

EXPANSION PROJECT - The food pantry is hoping to add an extension to the food pantry to increase the size of the pantry and add some much needed storage space. Donations and grant opportunities will be needed to be able to complete this project.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Our St. Joseph's Parish Christmas Basket project was again a huge success! Our parish provided boxes of food and/or gifts to 56 households, providing help to 211 individuals! This would not have been possible without the support of many generous parishioners and community members. Thank you to everyone who donated food, money, or gifts; filled last minute tags; helped with sorting & wrapping; packed boxes; or carried food & gifts to cars. Thank you, also, to the Lee Legion Auxiliary, Delta Lake Inn Mazzaferro's, Gone Coastal, Dippin' Donuts, Hannaford's, Walmart, Price Chopper, Tops, Delta Plumbing and Building Supplies, and Olney's who also provided contributions. Together we definitely helped to brighten the holidays for many very grateful households! May God continue to bless you as you have blessed these families.

The Knights are looking for interested Catholic males over 18 to join and help us support our area churches and community. Call 315-337-4010 to learn about the Knights or join on-line at kofc.org/joinus and use "Council 391".

St. Marianne Cope Began her ministry in Syracuse, but was called to work with the lepers in Hawaii where she lived until her death.

In Hawaii, the pineapple is often used in both sweet and savory cooking, and forms an important part of the cuisine.
