From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As we begin Ordinary time, John the Baptist is again mentioned in the Gospel this weekend. Starting this new period of the liturgical year, John's statement "Behold, the Lamb of God" is filled with theological significance. It helps us to understand that Jesus has been consecrated and set apart for a holy purpose. It was the blood of a lamb that led the captive Israelites out of their bondage in Egypt. This image, Jesus as the "lamb of God" would have had a very deep meaning for those who heard John speak those words. So deep, that two of them began to follow him. Peter and Andrew heard these words and they changed their lives. The first reading this weekend also presents us with another invitation and a life changed. Young Samuel hears a voice calling to him in the night and by listening to that voice, Samuel began to follow God's word and allow it to change and challenge his life. Many people seek meaning in their lives. They want to live more fully, more joyfully, more effectively. A new year gives us all the chance to take stock and change some things we may have been wanting to change. So often we have the desire, but do not follow the harder part, which is bringing about the actual change we desire. In short order, the failure to bring about what it is we long for can create a sense of failure. or at least a sense of our being unable at our core to bring about what we most want to change in our lives. But in fact, we do have the ability to bring it about. God works with us and calls us gently, as he did Samuel. We sometimes look for the big sign, only to find that God more often speaks to us quietly, if we are willing to be quiet! If we can stop looking in all the wrong places we might just relax enough to hear what God is trying to tell us! During these long, cold winter days, let us do what we can to deepen our relationship to God through prayer, both spoken and quiet, taking comfort in the ever present love of God, calling us to a deeper sense of his love and presence. Fr. Elston

E-MAIL ADDRESSES

Some of you may have received a letter asking for your e mail address. This indicates that we do not have your e-mail address on file. The letters are going out in batches so you may not have received yours yet. If you don't get one, it might mean we already have your e mail. Having as many e mails from our parishioners as possible will help us to establish an easy way of keeping in touch and informing you of events, etc. If your e-mail has changed within the past year or so, please let our offices know. We will not share your email address with anyone. Thanks!

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

So much hard work went into the celebration of Christmas and other special days that have just past! We had many special services available on line such as our Masses for these special days, concerts, Lessons and Carols (which was TREMENDOUS!) and more. It is a great deal of work on the part of so many to get these events planned, taped, and put up so you can enjoy them! I am very grateful to all who are so creative and never say no in being asked to do whatever it takes for us to bring these types of events and services to more and more of our parishioners. Since we are unable to have these events in person, be grateful to so many who make them happen the best way we can! We are planning to do similar things for Easter! Unfortunately, we will most likely be in the same situation for the season of Lent and celebration of Easter. We will make the best of it! Thank you to everyone who makes these things happen, not only for the Christmas season, but every day!

Welcome to St. John the Evangelist!

We are glad that you chose to join us here this weekend for the celebration of the Eucharist!

Whether you are currently a parishioner or are interested in becoming one, we love having you here! Choosing your church can be as vital to your family as it is selecting the town in which you live. THOUGHTFUL MOMENTS

POPE EMERITUS ON JOY

"The Holy Spirit gives us joy. And he is joy. Joy is the gift in which all the other gifts are included. It is the expression of happiness, of being in harmony with ourselves, that which can only come from being in harmony with God and with his creation." (Pope Benedict XVI)

KINDNESS

In today's world, sharing kindness can make a difference. Remember how good it felt the last time someone showed you an unexpected favor? Look for ways to be kind, even when it's unexpected. It can be something simple, like holding the door for the person behind you or offering prayers for those who need them.

"Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7)

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious, or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee, or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse Hotline (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313, or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis. It is also the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to adhere to all civil and state regulations. To this end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being. As such, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (570) 862-7551 or any Diocesan official.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING

We are grateful for your Christmas offering of $ 21,170.00 to date. The Christmas collection helps us catch up on some of our outstanding bills. Thank you for your kindness and support, you are our greatest gift, the way you live your faith and provide for our many ministries. And may God continue to bless you for your generosity!

REMEMBER

The dispensation from attending Mass is still in effect and will be for some time. This dispensation means there is no obligation to attend Mass each week. For the duration of the pandemic, Bishop Bambera has said that safety of parishioners is of the utmost importance during this time. If you feel uncomfortable in any way, please do not feel it is necessary to come to Mass. It is still completely acceptable to participate in Mass virtually, either through the Masses we provide online through YouTube and our media pages, or through televised Masses on EWTN or CTV. If you are uncomfortable attending confession, the prayer of Perfect Contrition will be more than adequate during this time. For reference the rite is reprinted below. With the increasing difficulty for individuals to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation due to the current health crisis, the faithful of the Diocese of Scranton are reminded that by having perfect contrition one can receive the forgiveness of sins, apart from going to confession.

Perfect contrition requires the following three things:

-A love of God above all else
-A sincere desire for the forgiveness from sin
-The resolution to go to confession as soon as possible when this health crisis subsides.
