ARMY OF LEADERS

An "Army of Leaders" is defined as "Volunteers willing to take ownership of an area of ministry." This is what parishioners of Christ the King Parish have done in recent months.

To all of you who volunteer, please know that our gratitude is immeasurable. We are inspired and blessed by your generosity of time, your humbleness of spirit, and your willingness to lead. May God bless you richly for coming together as a Parish Family to serve Christ and one another.

Thank you for all that you do.
 In Christ's Love, Fr. Jim & Nora

Test Your Knowledge of The Catholic Faith

Do I need to attend mass and receive Holy Communion regularly?

- Yes, the church advises us to attend mass at least once a week for our own benefit.
- You don't need to attend more than once a year.
- It's not too important as long as you pray regularly.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

A. The Church very strongly advises believers to attend and participate in the Mass every Sunday. To miss this regular practice is to harm our own spiritual life. We are God's family, and we can't be family if we don't come together in "communion" to profess our faith and share the Eucharist. For more of an explanation, see: <https://www.pacatholic.org/bishops-statements/eucharist>.
