FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. — Mt 13:57-58

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St Denis,

A happy, safe and enjoyable Fourth of July to you all! My favorite verse of the hymn "America, the Beautiful" is the second, which ends like this: "America, America, God mend thine every flaw / Confirm thy soul in self-control, / Thy liberty in law."

(A disclaimer: what follows is a reprise of a "Pastor's Corner" I wrote two years ago.)

Is patriotism a virtue or a vice? That seems like a reasonable question to ask over this long Fourth of July weekend, when our nation engages in overt displays of patriotism as we celebrate our independence.

So, let's try to define patriotism. Patriotism is defined in terms of a kind of loyalty to a particular nation which only those possessing that nationality can exhibit, i.e., only a French person can be patriotic about France. Patriotism is not to be confused with a mindless loyalty to one's own particular nation which has no regard at all for the characteristics of that particular nation. Patriotism generally and characteristically involves a peculiar regard not just for one's own nation, but for the particular characteristics and merits and achievements of one's own nation.

To say this is to draw attention to the fact that patriotism is one of a class of loyalty-exhibiting virtues, other members of which are marital fidelity, the love of one's own family and kin, friendship, and loyalty to such institutions as schools and sports teams.

And if patriotism is a virtue, then, like all virtues as the great Philosopher Aristotle taught, "the virtue lies in the mean" (or "the middle"), meaning that a moral virtue is a disposition to behave in the right manner and is a mean (midpoint) between extremes of deficiency and excess, which are vices. So, for example, the virtue of courage lies at the midpoint between a deficiency of courage, which would be cowardice, and an excess of courage, which would be rashness or foolhardiness.

What would be an excess of patriotism? We might define that as chauvinism or nationalism. What would be a deficiency of patriotism? We might define that as indifferentism or, taken to the extreme, treason.

So, this Fourth of July weekend, let's exercise the virtue of patriotism reasonably and rationally, giving thanks to God, the Giver of all good gifts, for the great merits and achievements of this wonderful nation of ours.

FAITH FORMATION

Formal Faith Formation will resume in September. The Faith Formation committee will be conducting a survey of the families of our parish in the coming weeks to assess this past year and what you would like to see going forward.

Contact Jessica Cole at faithformation.stdenis@gmail.com if you have any questions or comments regarding Faith Formation, please.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd - Level I Formation Course for Adults: Do you love scripture and the liturgy? Do you love working with young children? Consider being formed as a catechist for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd - a hands-on method of faith formation based on the Montessori method of learning. We utilize this method of formation for the youngest children of our parish here at St. Denis and are always in need of more catechists willing to help.

A formation course is beginning this fall at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Concord. For more information on Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, see the National Association Website: www.cgsusa.org. For questions about the course, contact Kim Ostrowski at kostrowski.ihm@gmail.com. General questions, please contact Jessica Cole at faithformation.stdenis@gmail.com.

MOMS' MINISTRY

Moms' Ministry is an informal group of moms of all ages who gather virtually (for now) Tuesday mornings from 9:30 am -10:00 am for prayer and fellowship.

We will be meeting the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month for July and August.

If you would like to be added to join or be added to the email list, contact Jessica at faithformation.stdenis@gmail.com.

We joyfully resumed our Wednesday Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament here at St. Denis on Wednesday, April 7th, after more than a year's hiatus. Wednesday Adoration begins at 8:00 am after the morning Mass and concludes after Benediction at 4:50 pm. While all are welcome to stop by for prayer throughout the day, we are in need of some people to commit to half-hour or hour time slots to ensure that the Blessed Sacrament is always attended by the faithful in prayer. If you are interested in committing to an hour or half hour of prayer, please contact Martina Daley at admin.stdenis@gmail.com.

Knights of Columbus The St. Denis Knights of Columbus is a fraternal organization dedicated to supporting Catholic charitable activities in the Parish and Diocese. In the last year K of C Council 16697 has raised significant funds to support scholarships for seminarians and local charities as well as assist in physical plant repairs to Parish Properties. Catholic gentlemen who are interested in joining this worthwhile endeavor should contact the Knights at eabrine@gmail.com.

ROSARY GROUP

Please join our Women's Rosary Group on Friday mornings at 9:00 am for fellowship and to pray the rosary together for all our intentions. We join on Zoom whenever we are able. We usually have six or so on Zoom for the scriptural rosary and are always happy to welcome newcomers!

To sign up, please contact Mitsu Chobanian at mitsu.chobanian@gmail.com.

Some notes regarding Mass attendance

With a letter dated June 6th, Bishop Libasci of the Diocese of Manchester eased most restrictions and cautions regarding the celebration of public Masses in the parishes in New Hampshire. Social distancing is no longer required and the wearing of a face covering is optional. It is up to the individual to determine what he or she feels most comfortable with while participating at Mass.

In a second letter dated June 8, the Bishop informed the faithful of the Diocese of Manchester that the Bishops of New England would all be reinstating the Sunday obligation to attend Mass as of the weekend of June 19th/20th, 2021. Obviously, anyone who is sick is not bound by this obligation, as was the case even before the global pandemic. The Offertory Procession (the bringing up of the gifts of bread and wine), the exchange of the Sign of Peace among the people, and receiving the Precious Blood from a common chalice remain suspended.

The church is open daily for private prayer from 7:00 am - 4:00 pm. There are days when it is open later than 4:00 pm such as Wednesdays when Confessions are heard from 4:00 pm - 4:30 pm and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is celebrated at 4:50 pm.

Please join Fr. Brian virtually in prayer

OUTREACH

The title for the weekend offertory for the last 2 weekends in July is set aside for the Parish-to-Parish Support Fund of the Diocese of Manchester. This collection provides funds that allow parishes in New Hampshire experiencing financial difficulties to request grant assistance. This is one of four “assessed collections” in the Diocese of Manchester, in which the Diocese assesses each parish a certain amount of its annual income as a minimum contribution. Any amount collected in excess of the assessment will be sent in its entirety to the diocese.

The other three assessed special collections are the Diocesan Seminarian Fund (in January), the Peter’s Pence Collection (in June), and the Catholic University of America and United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (in September). All other appeals have no stated minimum.

The Haven works every day to support people experiencing poverty by providing food, shelter, education, and service coordination. We will continue to support these families and individuals, as well as anyone who may find themselves experiencing economic challenges resulting from the COVID-19 crisis. We have seen an increase in need and expect that to grow. Your financial support will allow us to offer hope and offer a sense of security in people’s lives during this challenging time. Donations will be routed to the areas of greatest need within our service areas as the situation evolves, with a focus on being thoughtful with our resources for maximum positive impact on our community. For more information or to make a donation visit uppervalleyhaven.org.

Catholic Charities NH announced on June 4th the acquisition of Greenland, NH-based nonprofit New Generation, Inc., which helps pregnant women and single mothers and their children who are experiencing homelessness to build more self-sufficient lives through a family-oriented shelter, transitional housing, aftercare services and a variety of support programs. New Generation will retain its name and become a program of Catholic Charities NH. To find out more go to <https://www.cc-nh.org/news/catholic-charities-nh-acquires-new-generation-inc/>.
