PASTOR’S CORNER

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Denis,

I’ll continue this week with a bit of a tour of the Holy Land, tied to this Sunday’s Gospel, as I did with last Sunday’s Pastor’s Corner and Gospel.

The town of Cana in Galilee, where our Lord’s first public miracle took place, is not far from His hometown of Nazareth. In fact, in driving to Nazareth, one often goes through Cana. They are about 10 kms (6 miles) apart. The Apostle Bartholomew or Nathaniel (as St John refers to him in his gospel), we are told in John 21:2, was from Cana in Galilee. But there seems to have been some rivalry of sorts between the towns at the time of Jesus, because when Philip the Apostle tells Nathaniel, in the first chapter of St John’s gospel, that they have found “the one whom Moses spoke about in the Law – the prophets too – Jesus, son of Joseph, from Nazareth,” Nathaniel quips “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” And Philip tells him, “Come, see for yourself!” (John 1:45-46)

Christian pilgrims to the Holy Land visit Cana, of course, to pray at the spot of the Lord’s miracle of changing water into wine. Today, there is a Greek Orthodox church and a Catholic church a stone’s throw from each other, which both claim to be on the spot where the miracle took place! Underneath the present Catholic Church on the site, one can visit excavations of a house dating back to the time of Our Lord, and there one can see an example of the massive stone jars that were used for holding water for the ablutions that were required by the Mosaic Law. A pilgrimage’s visit to Cana is also an opportunity for any married couples on the pilgrimage to renew their marriage vows and receive a special blessing. The merchants in the area specialize in selling bottles of wine “from Cana in Galilee” to the pilgrims, as well as other religious items. On a couple of occasions, we’ve eaten in different Palestinian Christian restaurants in Cana that have very good falafel and shawarma for lunch!

Finally, if you have been watching the first couple of seasons of The Chosen, as I have, then I would recommend going back and watching the episode that covers the Wedding Feast of Cana. I thought it was very well thought out, very interesting with the characters introduced. One twist, not contained in Scripture, is that one of the two wine merchants for the Wedding Feast, who end up running out of wine and panicking, turns out to be Thomas, also known as Didymus, “the Twin”, who would end up joining the band of Apostles after witnessing our Lord’s miracle at Cana. Of course, none of this is recorded in Scripture, but I thought it was a very imaginative way, by the writers and producers of The Chosen, to portray how Thomas came to be included among our Lord’s chosen Twelve, along with Simon Peter, Andrew, James and John, Philip and Nathaniel.

Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary

The Wedding Feast at Cana

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him,
“They have no wine.”

Jesus said to her
“Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come.”

His mother said to the servers:
“Do whatever he tells you.”

John 2:3-5

Pope Francis, in his General Audience 6.8.2016, offered his reflections on “The Miracle and Message of Cana,” when Jesus initiated his public ministry. (Extracted below)

Pope Francis comments that ‘Jesus reveals himself as the spouse of the People of God in a new covenant of love. The Church is the family of Jesus into which he pours his love. In this context we are to understand our Lady’s observation: they have no wine. Wine expresses the abundance of a banquet and the joy of a feast. By transforming into wine the water of the jars used for the Jewish rites of purification, Jesus performs an eloquent sign: He transforms the Law of Moses into the Gospel, bearer of joy.’

‘The words Mary addresses to the servants come to crown the wedding of Cana: Do whatever he tells you. These are her last words recounted by the Gospels... Today too our Lady says to us all: “Whatever Jesus tells you, do it.” To serve the Lord means to listen and to put into practice his Word...’

‘The wedding feast at Cana is more than a simple account of Jesus’ first miracle...the awaited Groom starts off the wedding that is fulfilled in the Paschal Mystery. At this wedding Jesus binds his disciples to himself in a new and final covenant. At Cana Jesus’ disciples become his family and at Cana the faith of the Church is born.’

The diocese spends approximately $500,000 annually on tuition, room and board for our seminarians. The annual Seminarian Collection raises about $200,000 of that total and 100% of every dollar you give goes toward supporting the education and formation of our young men studying for the priesthood. Thank you for your generosity. For more information go to <https://www.catholicnh.org/worship-and-sacraments/vocations/priesthood/support/>.
