A Note of Thanks

On this final day of the Easter Octave, and as we continue in the coming weeks to live the Easter Season—50 days of feasting that follow the 40 days of fasting—I wish to express my deepest thanks for all who so generously shared time, talent, and treasure over the 40 days of Lent and the most solemn days of Holy Week and this past week of the Octave. We can never take for granted all we are blest with!

Whether visible or behind the scenes, investment in care and deep faith by many have enabled us to offer the beautiful opportunities held out in these days, for our renewal and the glory and praise of God! Liturgical ministers, music ministers, schedulers, Martha/Mary Ministry, those who recorded our celebrations for YouTube, our office staff producing all the materials and coordinating the reservations, Richard from Woodbury Florist, and all who helped clean, set up, and break down, and all details done lovingly for the Lord and His people; all deserve our deepest thanks! I pray for abundant graces to flow in these Easter days upon all who made so much possible, and who continue to do so day in and day out!

Generosity in Lenten almsgiving, as reported elsewhere, will allow us to continue our efforts of outreach, both locally and in our adopted parish mission. I extend, once again, my thanks for your weekly faithfulness in offer-tory support and your extra effort in the Easter collection and in the memorial Flower Fund as well. Although we still had to maneuver around Covid limitations, your cooperation and kindness, along with the efforts of so many, have moved us forward in a hopeful direction.

May the unfolding days of this Easter Season find us opening up more and more, and, may the “fasting” that characterized our lives in so many ways over the past pandemic months, lead us to feasting, with deeper zeal and appreciation, for faith, family, relationships and opportunities to be, more and more, that community of disciples of the Risen One we hear described in the liturgies of these days! Know I give thanks from the depth of my heart!

~Fr. Gary

Alleluia!
Christ is risen!
He is risen, indeed!
Alleluia!

The Pastor's Letter

Dear Family in the Lord,

In our Church, Easter has always been a celebration of the great restorative love that God has for His Creation—love that was shown when the Divine Son became incarnate and dwelt among us, sharing in our lot, showing us the way to the Father, and making the perfect offering in atonement for our sins, conquering sin and death!

On this first Sunday after Easter, the Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast based upon the private revelations of Jesus to St. Faustina. In extending this Feast to the entire Church, Pope John Paul II re-emphasized the resurrection context of Easter, citing St. Faustina's diary: "Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy." In describing this feast, Pope St. John Paul II says: "Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ, a gift which it offers to all humanity."

The first epistle of St. John declares to the entire world that "God is love;" and in his encyclical letter, Rich in Mercy, St. John Paul II wrote "Mercy is love's second name." If we understand mercy in the Biblical sense, then without any fear of error contrary to the faith, it can be said, as John Paul II said, that mercy is the greatest attribute of God. This Biblically formulated relationship between love and mercy is expressed by St. Faustina when she says: "Love is the flower, mercy the fruit."

Divine Mercy is the form that God's eternal love takes when He reaches out to us in the midst of our misery and our brokenness. Whatever the nature of our need might be—sin, guilt, suffering, or death—He is always ready to pour out His merciful, compassionate love for us, to help us. Where there was only despair, loneliness, and heartache before, comes joy, fruitfulness, and abiding love.

The message of Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us and wants us to approach Him in constant prayer, repenting of our sins while asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world. He wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others, extending our love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

We must realize that God does not do anything in portions. He is infinite and the amount of His Divine Mercy available to us is infinite. The only limiting factor is us. The more we trust in Jesus, the more graces we will receive and the more all will come to share His joy. This is the message Jesus is giving us through today's devotion to His Divine Mercy, a mercy which He tells us is unfathomable, and which He wants us to spread throughout the world through our own actions and love for others. As we entered Lent, our parish motto invited us to dive deeply into the mystery of the Lord's great gift—"Even while we were still sinners, Christ died for us," as St. Paul reminded us. That simple motto now propels us to live Divine Mercy, recognizing that it is a gift offered "for us and for the whole world," and we are agents used by the Lord to make mercy tangible. We celebrate this day in response to the call of the motto: Know Mercy, Show Mercy!

Blessings as these Fifty Days of Easter Unfold!

for Gary

NEW! Living & Present Among Us!

As we “revel in Resurrection” in these Easter days, perhaps we can renew our zeal to draw close to the Risen Lord, substantially present among us—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—in the Holy Eucharist! We remind you that our center church door is open every day for you from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM. In addition, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration opportunity from 7:00 to 7:55 AM Monday through Saturday, prior to Daily Mass. Each Wednesday we observe our Parish Adoration Day with Exposition from 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM. What a wonderful opportunity to step away, come before His Real Presence, and rest in Him! As the gospels relate, we too are invited to “come and see” and then “go and tell” the Good News of the Risen One present among us in the great gift of the Holy Eucharist, given on the night before He died. Moments spent before Him, receptive of Him in Holy Communion, are the means we have here and now to get closer to Him than any other time, as He fulfills His promise: “I will be with you always!” Seize an opportunity! Carve out space! As Lent was about “cutting out,” so let Easter be about “pulling in” and drawing closer!

NEW! Divine Mercy Celebration

We observe this solemn day at each Holy Mass this weekend, and, in addition, invite you to join us this afternoon at 3:00 PM for the sung Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. For those who wish some personal adoration time, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at 2:00 PM. Confessions will be heard from 2:00 until 2:45 PM as well. Veneration of the Relic of St. Faustina Kowalska, to whom our Lord entrusted the message of Divine Mercy, will follow the afternoon devotions.

SHARE Update

Dear Parishioners,

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. The message of Divine Mercy reminds us that God loves us. All of us are called to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. During this past Lenten Season, SHARE received an enormous amount of love from the Corpus Christi Parish. We were overwhelmed by the of generous donations from so many parishioners. Thank you to everyone for extending this love to our clients just as God does to us.

NEW! Recently Baptized

We warmly welcome Tess Crimmins, who was given new life through water and the Holy Spirit in our parish community! To her parents and godparents we extend our congratulations and prayerful support as they live out the commitment they made to be “the first teachers of these children in the ways of faith.” In the words of the rite, “may they be the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith in what they say and do.”

NEW! Priestly Ordinations Drawing Near!

It’s been good to have Deacon Joseph home this week! He has been studying most of the day each day for his comprehensive exams—an overview of all these past years of formation—required for the Masters of Theology degree.

He heads back to the seminary tonight for just a few more weeks, then goes away for a weeklong retreat starting May 10th in preparation for his Ordination to the Priesthood. Let’s especially lift him up in prayer this Friday, April 16th, the day of the comps.

Deacon Joseph will be ordained a Priest for the Diocese of Manchester on June 5th at St. Joseph Cathedral in Manchester, and will offer his First Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving here in our church at 2:00 PM on June 6th—the Solemnity of Corpus Christi! Later that evening at 6:00 PM, he will preside at Solemn Vespers and carry the Blessed Sacrament in our outdoor procession.

Deacon Bobby will be ordained a Priest for the Archdiocese of Boston on May 22nd at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston, and will offer his First Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving on May 23, the Solemnity of Pentecost, at the parish he has been assigned to, St. Paul’s in Cambridge.

More details to follow. Let’s be united and intentional in our prayers for these men in these Easter days as Ordination draws near!

NEW! Wedding Bells!

This weekend, Elizabeth Liguori and Robert Roche III will pledge life and love in the sacrament of Marriage in our parish. We extend our congratulations and prayerful best wishes to them! May He who brought you together bless you in abundance in the years ahead as you live out this wonderful vocation.

NEW! Called Home to the Lord

We remember in prayer the repose of the souls of Louise Bosse and Gloria Collins, whose funeral service/Mass were celebrated this week in our parish, and Dakota “Cody” Yergeau, grandnephew of parishioner Bill Niland. To their families we extend our heartfelt sympathy and prayerful support as well.

Easter Flower Offerings

In addition to all those printed in last week's bulletin, the following intentions have also come in, after our printing deadline, but were remembered in the Masses of the Easter Octave as well. Thanks to all of our generous donors!

FRASSATI FRATERNITY

*"Learn to be stronger in spirit than in your muscles.
If you are, you will be real apostles of faith in God."*

~ Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati

Hey guys, 18 to 30 something, you're all invited as we gather for this month's Frassati Fraternity on Wednesday, April 21st, starting with dinner at 6:30 PM at our rectory, Vianney House. Join us on for some fellowship and faith enrichment. Bring a friend. This month we'll focus on the importance of having Mary as a woman of influence in our lives! Good way to gain insights into authentic devotion to our Lady and insights to share with non-Catholics who may not understand where Mary fits into the life of a Christian. To have a dinner count, RSVP by Monday, April 19th to frgary.ccnh@gmail.com.

Sanctuary Lamp & Votives

The sanctuary lamp will burn this week in memory of Frank Collins, as requested by the Laverdiere Family.

The votives at the Mary altar will burn with Birthday Blessings for Donna Barrett.

At the Diving Mercy Shrine, the votives will burn for Claire Rowney, as requested by David and Coreene Rowney.

The votives at the Black Madonna Shrine will burn with Birthday Blessings for Terry Sofarelli.

Diocesan News

New Online Support Group

Divorce/separation can be an uncomfortable and often misunderstood topic, and for those directly impacted, a painful process with many questions often left unanswered. Catholic Charities NH will be hosting its next online support group, "Divorce/Separation: Why me? What can I do?" for those navigating the divorce process or trying to find their way afterward. Participants will learn more about the dynamics of divorce, better understand their options, learn helpful coping strategies, and support others on the same journey. The program will be held via Zoom for six consecutive Wednesdays (at noon) starting April 21. To register, visit www.cc-nh.org/supportgroup or call 603-752-1325.

2021 White Mass

The White Mass is a special opportunity to ask God's blessings for healthcare professionals and to affirm the profound service they give to the sick according to the model of Jesus Christ. The White Mass will be held at St. Joseph Cathedral in Manchester on Wednesday, April 14, at 5:00 PM, and will also be livestreamed at stjosephcathedralnh.org. At that time the New Hampshire Guild of Catholic Healthcare Professionals will also recognize the recipient of the 2020 St. Martin de Porres Award, since no White Mass was held last year. The St. Martin de Porres Award is awarded by the Guild to an individual who has exemplified the virtues of Catholic healthcare in her or his career as a healthcare professional.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

The Catholic Church in New Hampshire is absolutely committed to the safety of children. For information about our Diocese's policies, training programs, and resources, please visit: <https://www.catholicnh.org/family2/youth/child-safety/prevent/>
