The Pastor's Letter

Friends, today I'm relinquishing my letter page to share a recent blog post made by Nate Bald, the young man of our parish discerning the priesthood and currently teaching English as a Fulbright scholar in Madagascar. I found it spot on! I'm happy to share it with you! Let's continue to keep him, his current work, and his discernment of priestly vocation in our prayers!

Fr. Gary

When we consider that Christ is King, we should think exactly what is worthy of a king. When an important person comes to visit, we obviously prepare the place. We clean up, we get a welcoming party together, we put up decorations, and we offer welcoming gifts. It's no different at Christmas. We get dressed up, we celebrate Mass, we decorate our homes and churches, and we, ourselves, are the welcoming gifts to the King. Now put into perspective that Christ is not just King, but the King. Does it not make sense then that we should go out of our way to make His arrival the most spectacular? Is it not right that our dress, conduct, and décor reflect the inward desire we have to give honor, glory, and reverence to the King of kings, the one for whom our ancestors waited generation after generation to come into the world? Say what you want about excessive Christmas decorations. When I see them, I cannot help but think, "Yes, He is coming. Not just on December 25th, but every day, every moment. And He will come again. Is my heart ready to receive Him? Do my actions reflect this?" Let us not forget that we are physical and spiritual, that our physical actions are to manifest our spiritual disposition.

The second point I make is in reference to Christ as Love. Love is self-giving. Love is an outpouring. Love is a sacrifice. When we consider these aspects of love, it is necessary to recognize that Christ, the Word, took on the form of man, lowering Himself for our sake in an absolute outpouring of love. In other words, He made of Himself a complete and total gift, one unlike any other because, indeed, this gift from God to mankind is nothing less than God Himself. With this in mind, we should ask ourselves how do we imitate this love. Do we give of ourselves? Do we sacrifice ourselves, especially our own wills, for the benefit of those around us?

There is a reason why we exchange gifts at Christmas. And it is because this tradition mirrors, even if ever so slightly, the Love of Christ. The giving of a gift is a symbolic and physical way of manifesting love. Mind you, we should not be excessive or stress ourselves. All good things can be taken to extremes. If the thought or process of buying a gift causes anxiety, drop it all together. Anxiety never comes from God. But if there is a gift that you want to give, and the thought of giving this gift gives you peace, by all means, please give it. Peace comes from God alone. Anxiety is always a sign that there are contrary forces at work. Nonetheless, the exchanging of gifts, even to what may appear to be excessive levels, should never be sacrificed, overlooked, or undervalued. Not that we can't get excessive with gift giving. We can and do. But we should never lose the perspective of what exchanging gifts means on a transcendental level. That is, it is a tradition that echoes the love of Christ that we are all called to imitate in our lives. And if this generosity only comes about in such force every December 25th, then so be it. Let it be a moment of conversion. A moment of grace.

In conclusion, what may be considered an over commercialized Christmas culture in the United States is actually a closer manifestation of the spirit of Christmas. That is, we should properly order our passion for decoration and grandeur to the reverence due to the King of kings. And we should not hold back a spirit of generosity and love revealed in the tradition of exchanging gifts. And there you have it. My weak defense for commercialized Christmas.

Never forget that Americans are considered a very generous people. It is a stereotype I hope we never lose. It hints a reminiscence of a genuine Christian worldview that clings to the heart of America and her people. Generosity and gratitude are complimentary virtues. One must be grateful before one can be generous. Perhaps that is why Thanksgiving is positioned so closely to Christmas. A season of gratitude followed by a season of generosity. Or maybe I'm just crazy and reading into it too much. Regardless, merry Christmas. And as always, know that you are in my prayers each morning. All I ask is that you do the same for me.

May God be praised.

CHRISTMAS EXTRA EFFORT UPDATE

As I mentioned in Advent, our operating budget sets a goal each year for our Christmas collection. This year's goal was $50,000. With a grateful heart, it's my pleasure to report that we have exceeded the goal and we still have folks completing steps to make their contribution! A total of $ 54,036.00 has been received as of January 4th, when this bulletin goes to press!

Your generosity, not only in this, but in so many diverse expressions of time, talent, and treasure shared is a rich blessing and tangible sign of your care, support, and investment in our future full of hope!

In addition to this, your consistent support of SHARE, our sister community in Ecuador, as well as payments on Capital Campaign pledges, additional offerings from past donors, and new donations from those who had yet to invest, are further signs of your generous hearts!

May our Lord, never outdone in generosity, bless you in abundance!

Your Grateful Pastor,
Fr. Gary

Do you now use Online Giving and don't need offertory envelopes mailed to you anymore? Please call the Parish Office at 603-436-4555 to let us know so we can update our records!

NEW! Called Home to the Lord

Please remember in prayer the repose of the souls of Barbara LaSala, Helen Burnham, Rose Zubkus, Vincent Brown, and Pauline Dowd, whose Funeral Masses were recently celebrated in our parish. To their families we extend our heartfelt sympathy and prayerful support as well.

NEW! Income Tax Statements

To support married couples during this time of social distancing, Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring virtual marriage experiences. Some are held on weekends, while others are seven sessions on weekdays, from 7:00 to 9:30 PM. Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God's plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority. Registration is limited, and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, visit them at <https://wwmema.org/>. Bring the Holy Spirit into your marriage. Sign up today to attend an upcoming Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience.

Recently found in the parking lot: a post earring, circular, about a 1/4" diameter, gold with a small stone in the center encircled by smaller stones.

Thank You

Our gratitude to John Leith at Farrell Funeral Home for sponsoring our parish calendars once again. They are available on the tables in the back of church for you to take home this weekend.

CATHOLICS COMING HOME

SAVE THE DATE!

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19

6:30 PM at Vianney House,
Our Rectory at 98 Summer Street

Who's this for?

- YOU! If you've recently returned to the practice of your Catholic faith
- SOMEONE YOU KNOW who may have joined us for Christmas and is considering returning to the practice of faith. Or, just fell away, or have some obstacles that got in the way and kept them away or led to drifting away.

Let's Talk!

This will be a simple, informal evening hosted by Fr. Gary at his house. An opportunity to look at faith practice from a new perspective. A time to ask questions and question answers. No obligations or expectations... just come and see! You? Someone you know? Show this to them! Invite them and offer to come with them! Many have found this a great way to come home! RSVP by Monday, January 17th, so we can plan for seating and light refreshments that will be served. Please let Fr. Gary know you're coming by Monday, January 17th, at frgary.ccnh@gmail.com or call 603-436-4555, Ext 125. Pass the word!

Want to Be a Part of Our Prayer Line?

Would you like to be a part of our parish Prayer Line, responding to requests for prayer by parishioners in need? Prayer requests are received by phone or email, and then the requests are mailed/emailed to our list of prayer volunteers. It's a simple but important way to stay spiritually connected to our brothers and sisters in the parish. If you'd like to participate in our Prayer Line, or if you have an intention to include, please email it to prayerline.ccnh@gmail.com.

Young Adult Ministry

Our Young Adult Ministry is open to all aged 18 to 30-something, and is meant to foster fellowship, enrichment, and support for all who seek to live as faithful disciples of Jesus. Bring friends! Watch this weekly column and links given below for upcoming opportunities!

An Invitation

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY TRAINING

Those who responded to Fr. Gary's request for extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion when it was put out in October and November are asked to attend a brief session with him, which will also include commissioning, after any of the Masses next weekend, January 15/16. The schedule will then go into effect the first weekend of February.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

Any young people, in grade 4 and up, who would like to be trained for serving Holy Mass, would be welcome! Parents should email Father at frgary.ccnh@gmail.com.

MASTERS OF CEREMONY

Men of high school or college age, or young adults who would like to join the ranks of our MCs should email Fr. Gary (frgary.ccnh@gmail.com) to set up training time with other current MCs.

LECTORS

High school youth and adults are welcome to serve as readers at Holy Mass. To express interest and set up time for training please email Carol Jacques-Dow, our Pastoral Associate, at pastoralassoc.ccnh@gmail.com.

SACRISTANS

As we enter a new year, Fr. Gary would like to establish the ministry of Sacristan in our parish for both weekday and weekend Masses. This would include training in sacristy procedures and care for sacred vessels, as well as set up and clean up before/after liturgies. If you might be interested, please see Father for more information. We hope to begin training later this month.

Snow Days & Daily Mass

Once again, it's time for this winter reminder! Since we offer Holy Mass in the building next door to Vianney House, the residence of our pastor, he is able and will celebrate Mass, offering the intention given for that day's Mass, regardless of weather conditions. That being said, there are no expectations that scheduled liturgical ministers would feel obligation to get there on days of adverse weather. There is no assurance that the parking lot, walkways, or paths will be all clear by early morning hours, so all should use common sense and good judgment on such days to avoid hazardous conditions.
