The Pastor's Letter

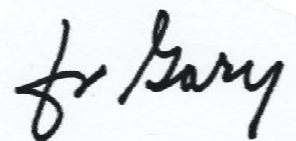

Dear Family in the Lord,

The Gospel Reading (Jn 2:1-11) of today presents us with the first miracle of our Lord Jesus Christ at the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee, where He changed water into wine, at the request of His Mother Mary, and by the obedience to His instruction to the host's servants. The concluding sentence of this Gospel pericope is very striking and recaptures the purpose of all of Jesus' words and actions in the Gospel of Saint John, and indeed in the entire Scriptures; "He let His glory be seen, and His disciples believed in Him." The entirety of the life of Jesus Christ was geared toward the manifestation of His glory, "glory as of the only Son from the Father" (Jn 1:14). This is the glory that attracts us and enwraps us with awe about the mystery of the person of Christ, the awe that leads us to recognize that here is something greater than Solomon; the glory that leads us to believe. To believe is not only a passive state of mind in which we assent to the truth of faith without any concrete change and effect in our lives. To believe is also an active state of the will that leads us to a commitment to the content of our faith, to communion with the person of our faith and to a concrete re-living of the life of Christ. The Christian faith is "the encounter with an event, with a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction" (Deus Caritas est, n. 1).

This New Horizon and the Decisive Direction which our faith encounter inspires within us were greatly manifested in the lives of the disciples and continue to manifest in the lives of His followers today. To fruitfully live this New Horizon opened to us by faith, and to successfully follow this Decisive Direction traced for us by Christ, God sends upon us, through the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit, different gifts from on high, as we read in the Second Reading (I Cor 12:4-11); not for our personal self-gratification and aggrandizement, or worse still, as means to cause division and confusion within the Body of Christ, but for the manifestation of the glory of God within the community of believers, for the glorification of God and for the edification of the community. These gifts are signs that, just as in the wedding at Cana, Christ is always with us as He promised till the end of time. Every gift from above serves the purpose of confirming us in the faith and keeping us focused on this New Horizon and this Decisive Direction. They are never to distract our focus on Christ or lead us to distract others from focusing on Christ. It is only in such manner that the integrity of our faith shines out to all nations, that the imprint of the glory of God is seen on our foreheads, that we become delightful to God and that our God will rejoice in us (Isaiah 62:1-5).

May God continue to confirm our faith by the manifestations of His glory in our lives and families and in the Church!

With you on the Journey,

Week of January 16, 2022

NEW! Mother & Child Shrine

As has been our custom over the past years, you will note that the image of the Infant Saviour has been enshrined, surrounded by flowers of Christmas, before our Lady's altar. This remains until the 40th day after Christmas—when we celebrate the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. On this day we bless and carry candles in procession to honor Him whom Simeon hailed as “a light of revelation,” hence this liturgical observance is also called “Candlemas Day.” Plan now to join us at 7:00 PM on Wednesday, February 2nd, for this beautiful celebration.

NEW! Thanks for the Helping Hands!

Last Sunday a great crew of women and men did a tremendous job to “undecorate” the church and transform our environment for Ordinary time. They worked like a “well oiled machine,” with efforts by our Martha & Mary Ministry, Men's Ministry and some young adults. Thanks also to those who attend to the little details day in and day out—minor repairs, changing votive candles, care of linens, help with salting and walkways, upkeep of altars/sanctuary, and many other things done with great care for the House of the Lord and service of His people!

NEW! Fasting and Prayer for Life

This Saturday, January 22nd, is the National Day of Prayer for Respect for Human Life. Consider voluntary special acts of prayer and fasting, perhaps as a family too. Join us for Mass for Life at 8:00 AM, followed by the Rosary. Exposition for Adoration time will be from 7:00 to 7:55 AM.

Let's be united with others who will be marching and praying for 2022 to be a year of great strides to protect the lives of the innocent preborn and convert hearts!

NEW! Called Home to the Lord

Please remember in prayer the repose of the souls of Mary Tosi, Mildred Grady, and Mary Ferrelli, whose Funeral Masses were recently celebrated in our parish. To their families we extend our heartfelt sympathy and prayerful support as well.

NEW! Income Tax Statements

If you would like to receive a statement for income tax purposes indicating your 2021 church contributions, please email aa7.ccnh@gmail.com or call Kathy at 603-436-4555. We can do this only for those who use envelopes, checks, or Online Giving, since we have no way of documenting what others give.

CATHOLICS COMING HOME

SAVE THE DATE!

THIS Wednesday
JANUARY 19

6:30 PM at Vianney House,
Our Rectory at 98 Summer Street

Who's this for?

- YOU! If you've recently returned to the practice of your Catholic faith
- SOMEONE YOU KNOW who may have joined us for Christmas and is considering returning to the practice of faith. Or, just fell away, or have some obstacles that got in the way and kept them away or led to drifting away.

Let's Talk!

This will be a simple, informal evening hosted by Fr. Gary at his house. An opportunity to look at faith practice from a new perspective. A time to ask questions and question answers. No obligations or expectations... just come and see! You? Someone you know? Show this to them! Invite them and offer to come with them! Many have found this a great way to come home! RSVP by Monday, January 17th, so we can plan for seating and light refreshments that will be served. Please let Fr. Gary know you're coming by Monday, January 17th, at frgary.ccnh@gmail.com or call 603-436-4555, Ext 125. Pass the word!

To Protect Yourself and Others

The City of Portsmouth Health Officer has instituted a mask mandate in order to protect the public health. The ordinance, effective January 8th, states that all individuals are required to wear face coverings inside all publicly accessible indoor areas and places of employment. In church, this means that masks are to be worn, lowered only when you stand before the priest/minister to receive communion, and then replaced. *Only young children and those with a medical exception and permission from Fr. Gary are exempt. The most basic precaution to protect yourself and others is that anyone who feels sick should stay home. Additionally, we ask that sick people stay home until they haven't had symptoms for at least 24 hours.

Welcome
THANK YOU FOR JOINING US

An Invitation

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY TRAINING

Those who responded to Fr. Gary’s request for extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion when it was put out in October and November are asked to attend a brief session with him, which will also include commissioning, after any of the Masses THIS weekend, January 15/16. The schedule will then go into effect the first weekend of February.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

Any young people, in grade 4 and up, who would like to be trained for serving Holy Mass, would be welcome! Parents should email Father at frgary.ccnh@gmail.com.

MASTERS OF CEREMONY

Men of high school or college age, or young adults who would like to join the ranks of our MCs should email Fr. Gary (frgary.ccnh@gmail.com) to set up training time with other current MCs.

LECTORS

High school youth and adults are welcome to serve as readers at Holy Mass. To express interest and set up time for training please email Carol Jacques-Dow, our Pastoral Associate, at pastoralassoc.ccnh@gmail.com.

SACRISTANS

As we enter a new year, Fr. Gary would like to establish the ministry of Sacristan in our parish for both weekday and weekend Masses. This would include training in sacristy procedures and care for sacred vessels, as well as set up and clean up before/after liturgies. If you might be interested, please see Father for more information. We hope to begin training later this month.

Snow Days & Daily Mass

Once again, it’s time for this winter reminder! Since we offer Holy Mass in the building next door to Vianney House, the residence of our pastor, he is able and will celebrate Mass, offering the intention given for that day’s Mass, regardless of weather conditions. That being said, there are no expectations that scheduled liturgical ministers would feel obligation to get there on days of adverse weather. There is no assurance that the parking lot, walkways, or paths will be all clear by early morning hours, so all should use common sense and good judgment on such days to avoid hazardous conditions.

Thank You!

Our gratitude to John Leith at Farrell Funeral Home for sponsoring our parish calendars once again. If there are any left, they are available on the tables in the back of church for you to take home this weekend.
