Looking to Easter

Easter Flower Fund

You may make offerings in memory of deceased loved ones, and these souls will be remembered in the holy Masses of the Easter Octave. Please print the names clearly on one of the flower envelopes available in your envelope packets or at the church doors. The deadline to return your donation to the parish office is THIS Tuesday, April 5th, so that the names may be listed in the Easter bulletin.

Easter Food Baskets

There is a wonderful tradition of putting together an Easter Food basket, to share at your Easter table, that has various symbolic foods for the Paschal Solemnity. It can be a GREAT family activity and teachable moment for the kids! We urge you to consider it! The baskets are then brought to the church for blessing on Holy Saturday. The blessing takes place before the image of the Lord's Tomb. This tradition helps to really set the tone and underscore the focus of what we celebrate in these most sacred days of the year! Multi-colored brochures are available in baskets at the church doors. Consider taking one as your guide in embracing this tradition. We began offering this here in 2012 and many have been blest in this way of strengthening the domestic church and living the Liturgical seasons! The Blessing will be given on Holy Saturday, April 16th, at 4:00 PM.

Easter Extra Effort

As in past years, we ask you to prayerfully consider what you can do in your Easter Sunday offering. We count on the Christmas and Easter "Extra Efforts" to meet our budget for parish operation and ministries. You have always shown such remarkable generosity, whether in the almsgiving of Lent, the Flower Fund for the Liturgies of the Season, or this opportunity to continue to sustain and develop the operation of our parish. Thanks in advance for whatever you can share!

Sanctuary Lamp & Votives

The sanctuary lamp will burn this week in memory of Lorraine Dupuis, requested by her daughter.

The votives at the Mary altar will burn for Jill Armitage, as requested by her husband Phil.

At the St. Joseph altar, the votives will burn for the intentions of the family of Maria Jaber.

The votives at the Black Madonna shrine will burn with Birthday Blessings for Richard Spataro, from his wife.

The Pastor's Letter

Dear Family in the Lord,

As we gather, surrounded by shrouded images, the tone of the Liturgy embraces more and more in these coming days that of solemn and somber entry into recalling the great events of our salvation in the Passion and Death of our Lord. Traditionally, this final period of Lent is known as "Passiontide," and the focus in our scripture readings in this coming week is on the historical events that led up to the arrest, condemnation, and ultimate crucifixion of our Lord. Next week, we enter into the "heart" of these mysteries as we live Holy Week.

Elsewhere in today's bulletin, we give you a brief overview of the diverse celebrations that will mark these holiest days of the year and will then lead us into the paschal joy of the Solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection at Easter, and the subsequent unfolding of these great mysteries in the fifty days of the Easter Season. I urge you now to clip and post this outline on your fridge and plan your calendar to join us for these solemn days, most especially the great Paschal Triduum—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday! You will also note that we begin the Divine Mercy Novena on Good Friday, leading us up to the Feast of Divine Mercy on the Sunday after Easter. On Tuesday this week, at 6:30 PM in church, I will give an overview and share insights on the "Sights, Sounds, and Symbols" of Holy Week to enhance our ability to truly enter in and make this a Holy Week like none other! Join us as we go deeper! At the end of the talk, we will pray with our catechumens, the seven men and women who will be baptized, confirmed, and share in the Eucharist for the first time at the Easter Vigil, and will celebrate the Anointing with Oil of Catechumens.

This is the final week of penitential preparation! Join us for Lamentations and Benediction tonight (Sunday) at 6:00 PM. Perhaps plan to join in adoration, weekday Mass, and Stations of the Cross on Friday. On Wednesday night, we will gather for the last of our Faith Enrichment Series after the 6:30 PM Mass, focusing on the reality of Spiritual Warfare. Finally, if you have yet to bring the calm of Lenten renewal and reconciliation home to heart with a good confession, these are the days to do that! Confession should be our preparation to enter Holy Week. Please don't wait until the last minute! The schedule for each day this week is elsewhere in this bulletin, and, note that the last opportunity for confession will be Monday of Holy Week, April 11th, from 8:30 to 9:30 AM, 12:00 Noon to 1:00 PM, and 5:30 to 6:15 PM.

I look forward to living these days with you once again as we enter Holy week with the Liturgies of Passion (Palm) Sunday next weekend. Please keep in your prayers all who will invest so much of themselves, their time and their talent, to make it possible for the liturgies of this Holy Week to be celebrated with great beauty and solemnity. Invite friends! Plan now to be with us!

With you on the Journey,

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Pilgrimage to Italy ~ Don't Delay!

Side tracked by Covid when scheduled for Spring 2020, then rescheduled for last Fall, but canceled due to restrictions still in place that would have made travel cumbersome and with too many variables, we now are happy to announce that we are set to embark on our pilgrimage to Italy with Fr. Gary and Fr. Joseph! If you were planning to join us in the past we hope you'll sign up again, and, if you were not able then, but can now, we would love to have you with us!

The pilgrimage is set for October 10 through 19, and includes round trip airfare, breakfast and dinner, hotel, motor coach, and full time tour manager. Brochures with details and info on how to register can be obtained from Fr. Gary after Mass in the sacristy or by dropping in to the parish office. Space is limited, so first come, first served! At this point, we have more than half the slots filled, so if you're interested, don't delay!

Calvary Cemetery will soon be undergoing its annual spring cleanup. In accordance with our published regulations, our cemetery staff will begin discarding non-compliant articles left on the graves, including unused shepherd's hooks, tattered flags, and out-of-season artificial flowers and decorations. Please protect your articles by taking them home. We appreciate your cooperation as we prepare the cemetery for the spring and summer seasons.

Parish Scholarships

Each year, Corpus Christi parish offers a number of partial scholarships to students who will be/are attending college for undergraduate studies. Father David Alexander Sullivan Scholarships are available to parish members who've attended area high schools. Applications are available from the parish office or at www.corpuschristinh.org. The deadline to apply is May 27th.

Whether alone at home, with family, or joining with us for the communal daily prayer opportunities listed below, please consider this grace-full opportunity!
