Gathering Hymn:

Gather Us In

Here in this place, new light is streaming,
Now is the darkness, vanished away,
See, in this space, our fears and our dreamings,
Brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in the lost and forsaken,
Gather us in the blind and the lame;
Call to us now and we shall awaken,
We shall arise at the sound of our name.

Here we will take the wine and the water,
Here we will take the bread of new birth,
Here you shall call your sons and your daughters,
Call us anew to be salt for the earth.
Give us to drink the wine of compassion,
Give us to eat the bread that is you;
Nourish us well, and teach us to fashion
Lives that are holy and hearts that are true.

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading:

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.

"For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

Responsorial Psalm: "Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live."

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again
on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Preparation of the Gifts: For the Healing of the Nations

For the healing of the nations, Lord we pray with one accord;
For a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love and action help us rise and pledge our word.

You, creator God have written your great name on humankind;
For our growing in your likeness bring the life of Christ to mind:
That by our response and service Earth its destiny may find.

Communion Hymn: Eye Has Not Seen

Refrain:

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom of God.

When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith and bear us up within your peaceful world. Refrain

Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made. Refrain

To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world. Refrain

Closing Hymn: O Christ the Great Foundation

O Christ the great foundation on which your people stand
To preach your true salvation in ev'ry age and land:
Pour out your Holy Spirit to make us strong and pure,
To keep the faith unbroken as long as worlds endure.

This is the moment glorious when he who once was dead
Shall lead his church victorious, their champion and their head.
The Lord of all creation his heav'nly kingdom brings
The final consummation, the glory of all things.

THE MISSION OF SAINT JULIA PARISH

We, the parishioners of Saint Julia Parish, seek to live our belief in Christ as we worship and serve Him according to His example and teachings. With appreciation of the diverse gifts of our individual members, we strive to gain the participation of each parishioner and work to ensure that everyone feels welcome in our community of faithful. We do this while mindful of God's love for us and the power of His Spirit that makes us holy, heals our brokenness and sustains us in all the good we do.

We are committed in the spirit of Christian stewardship to share generously our time, talent, and treasure.

Supporting Our Parish's Mission

Weekend of 7/2 and 7/3 = Due to early submission dates, this will be reported next week.

Welcome to our new Pastoral Assistant

Praised be God Now and Forever!

My name is Kenny Bouzan and it is truly an honor to be here at St. Julia Parish serving as your Pastoral Assistant. I grew up in Bridgewater, Massachusetts and am the oldest of six children who were blessed to have the Faith taught to us from the earliest days, especially in Catholic School and by our mother.

The Lord has lead me on quite a journey over the last twenty years or so and I have had the privilege of being in various Religious Communities and ministries, both as a Consecrated Brother and Layman. Following the Holy Spirit has been an adventure that has brought countless blessings and experiences.

I am so grateful to God for leading me here now to your St. Julia family in Weston/Lincoln and have felt very welcomed by many of you that I have met over these last few weeks. I am looking forward to praying with you and serving you as we continue to bring the Light of Christ to the world one person at a time.

Please pray for me...as you will be in my daily prayers as well.

God Bless you!

Peace, In Jesus through Mary Immaculate,

Kenny Bouzan

Nuestro Pequeños Hermanos

Many of you may recall when some of the NPH youth of Mexico visited our parish, performing traditional dance and sharing their stories. Due to the Pandemic, NPH has not yet been able to make their usual parish visits and fundraising activities. Many of our parishioners have sponsored a child, and NPH is very grateful for that support. If you are interested in assisting them in any kind of donation, please go to: nphusa.org/donate Please keep them in prayer, as they work through these difficult times.

It is through your generosity to the Catholic Appeal that we continue to provide support for our Catholic schools, operational support for our parishes, faith and formation programs at our parishes, and many services for those in our community who turn to our Church for assistance.

Thank you to all who have contributed to the Appeal. St. Julia Parish has reached 42% of our goal. Please consider donating. When you make a gift to the annual Appeal, you are helping put faith into action in countless and far-reaching ways and every gift makes a difference. Thank you.

St. Julia Church

What's that???

The Lectionary

St. Joseph Church

The Ambo is where the Word of God is spoken. We hear God's words in the readings from our Bible. We use a book called the Lectionary. The Lectionary gives us the readings of all the Sundays and weekdays of the year, in a three year cycle, called A, B, and C. In year A, we hear mostly from the Gospel of Matthew. In year B, we hear mostly from the Gospel of Mark. In year C, we hear mostly from the Gospel of Luke. During the Seasons of Christmas and Easter, we hear mostly from the Gospel of John. No matter what Roman Catholic Church you are in, you will hear the same readings, in whatever language the local people speak. So if you attend Mass in France, you will hear the same readings, but in French. This is the same in any Roman Catholic Church in the world. Usually the First Reading is from the Old Testament, then we respond with a psalm. The Second Reading is usually a letter from the New Testament, and then we always hear a Gospel story. During the Easter Season, all readings are from the New Testament!
