WORD TO THE FAITHFUL

I have been hearing quite a bit from people not only here in Wethersfield

but also from other parishes in which I have served over the years, all of whom are dealing with, or trying to come to grips with, the restructuring of parishes in our Archdiocese. On the surface, it appears to be a lot of upheaval, and most people have a difficult time trying to understand why this has to happen, why what they have known and loved for so many years has to be changed or taken away. Having gone through one round of such consolidation beginning in 2017 here at Christ the King and preparing for a second round, we can understand and commiserate with them. I recently read the following from Fr. Richard Rohr which I found helpful, and so I share it here:

'Jesus said to his disciples, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away." (Mark 13: 31) This is Jesus' way of showing that everything is passing away. If we don't hold this counterpoint in mind, we do one of two things: we take this world far too seriously, or we try to hold on to everything. We think it's all going to last, but it isn't. The 21st century, the United States of America, capitalism, our churches and our political parties, and all the rest are passing away. We might recall the Buddhist heart sutra "Gone, gone, entirely gone" when we watch old movies—even celebrities and stars die. We can take this as a morbid lesson, or we can receive it as the truth ahead of time, so we're not surprised, disappointed, and angry when it happens in our generation.

The spiritual message is really quite simple, although a very hard one for us to learn. It is saying that nothing is permanent. Apocalyptic literature tells us to be prepared for that, so we won't be shocked or scandalized when someone dies, or something is destroyed. You might learn this truth the moment after you hear of the death of your mother or father, when the rug is pulled out from beneath you. Or, during that moment when you go to the doctor and get a fatal diagnosis and are told you have three months left to live. Or when your house is destroyed by a tornado or flood in seconds. Apocalyptic literature describes such moments and crises. Again, this message is not meant to be heard as a threat, but as a truth that nothing lasts forever. Our great hope is that there will be something we can grasp onto, something that's eternal, something that's God. We want the absoluteness of God, the eternity of God, and we can't fully find it here.

God puts us in a world of passing things where everything changes and nothing remains the same. The only thing that doesn't change is change itself. It's a hard lesson to learn. It helps us appreciate that everything is a gift. We didn't create it. We don't deserve it. It will not last, but while we breathe it in, we can enjoy it, and know that it is another moment of God, another moment of life. People who take this moment seriously take every moment seriously, and those are the people who are ready for heaven. If religion isn't leading us into an eternal now, an eternal moment, an always-true moment, an always-love moment, then we have not lived the moment at all.'

Father Nick

*Dear friends,
For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven.*

*Ecclesiastes 3:1,
God has ordained seasons and cycles in our lives. Sometimes, when our dreams are not coming to pass on our timetable,*

*we can be tempted to get frustrated.
But we have to be careful not to allow our attitude to keep us from moving forward. Understand that in God's kingdom, every season is not harvest. Every season is not springtime, with beautiful flowers, gorgeous sunshine, and cool breezes. There are plowing seasons, planting seasons and* *watering seasons.

Sure, we would love for every season to be a time of increase, but without the other seasons, we wouldn't be prepared for promotion. You have to choose to rejoice today. God has given you not only the grace to endure this season but to enjoy the season.*

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

FROM FATHER'S DESK—Continued

When you're content, you see each day as a gift, appreciate the people in your lives, and are grateful for what God has given you. That is not only developing your character, but you are passing the test. You will come out of winter and into your springtime.

PRAYER:

Father in heaven, thank You for Your faithfulness in all seasons of my life. I trust that my time is coming, and I choose to remain faithful. I submit my ways to You today and trust that You have the best plan for my life. I love You and praise Your Name today. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Have a great week and here is a thought:

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could, trying not to be late for Bible class. As she ran, she prayed, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Dear Lord, please don't let me be late!" As she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her dress. She got up, brushed herself off, and started running again. As she ran, she once again began to pray, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late ... But please don't shove me either!"

Father George

8TH ANNUAL K OF C GOLF FUNDRAISER

The Honorable W. Patrick Donlin Knights of Columbus Assembly 2459 will hold our annual golf tournament on Tuesday September 7, 2021 at Racebrook Country Club in Orange.

This event is our fundraiser which allows us to support our Veterans causes & Military programs. See bulletin board and future bulletins for more information.

OUR CHRISTIAN LIVES

There are two approaches in modern Christian tradition on how to respond to suffering of peoples: works of mercy and social action. When we see people hurting, our instinct is to help. We perform works of mercy by directly helping others. The corporal works of mercy are to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, visit the sick, shelter the homeless, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. By following the works of mercy, we will become the persons God meant us to be. But we must also continually work for justice to help find solutions to the social problems that cause people to be homeless, hungry, imprisoned, etc.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education
Registration for the 2021-2022
school is now open!

Our middle school and high school programs have begun the Christ the King Parish merger with the Church of the Incarnation.

These programs will take place at both locations.

Please click on the link on the parish website for the registration form.

FRIDAY, August 13. 6:00pm

The Archdiocese of Hartford will celebrate a synod closing Mass Friday, August 13 at the Oakdale Theater in Wallingford. To make it easy to attend, we have rented a bus.

To reserve a seat on the bus from Corpus Christi Church to the Oakdale, please call the Rectory office at 860-529-2545 and leave your name and phone number.

*Synod: *"an assemblage of clergy and/or laity who convene to address timely matters of the faith and the local Catholic Church, for the purpose of providing recommendations to the bishop or archbishop."*
