Pentecost Sunday

New NY State COVID-19 Policies Mean That Nothing Is New The policies do not allow for a change in any of St. Rita's protocols

There was great anticipation about the most recent updated guidance of the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and how it might affect the policies of New York State and St. Rita Parish in particular. For now, however, there will be no changes to St. Rita's Covid-19 protocols or policies. Here is why:

The guidance of the CDC was recently updated to recommend the lifting of mask mandates and physical distancing mandates only for those who are fully vaccinated. New York State updated its policies based on the CDC's recommendations and the changes are meant for individuals who are fully vaccinated and for gatherings when everyone present is known to be fully vaccinated.

Practically, for St. Rita, this means that if anybody present at a Mass is not fully vaccinated, or if the vaccine status of anybody present is not known, then the Mask Mandate is strongly encouraged, and the physical distancing mandate is still required. Continuing to wear masks and practice distancing will help protect the youngest members of our parish who currently are not eligible to be vaccinated.

On the ny.gov website, there is a May 17, 2021 article titled, Governor Cuomo Announces New York State to Adopt New CDC Guidance on Mask Use and Social Distancing for Fully Vaccinated Individuals. (<https://www.governor.ny.gov/news/governor-cuomo-announces-new-york-state-adopt-new-cdc-guidance-mask-use-and-social-distancing>) The article makes it clear that the updates only apply for those who are fully vaccinated.

In the section of the article Business Mask Rules, it states, "The Department of Health strongly recommends masks in indoor settings where vaccination status of individuals is unknown." The reason behind this strong recommendation is that only 52% of the people of New York State are fully vaccinated. This is not a large enough number to allow us to let up the requirements for masking at Church. St. Rita will continue to follow the strong recommendation of the CDC and require all those in our buildings to wear masks.

In the section Business Capacity Rules, it states, "Businesses will only be limited by the space available for patrons or parties of patrons to maintain the required social distance of 6 feet." And it further states:

"businesses may eliminate the 6 feet of required social distancing, and therefore increase capacity, only if all patrons within the establishment -- present proof of full vaccination status . . . For areas where vaccination status of individuals is unknown and for patrons who do not present proof of full vaccination status, the required social distance of 6 feet still applies until more New Yorkers are fully vaccinated (emphasis added)."

Again, while this is specifically talking about businesses, it applies equally to our Church. St. Rita will not be checking for proof of vaccine which would require us to turn away those who are not vaccinated. So, we will continue to require physical distancing of six feet.

As previously announced, beginning Pentecost Weekend,

St. Rita is no longer asking parishioners to let us know which Mass they will be attending. Thank you for understanding that we will be continuing to require all people in our buildings to wear a mask and to maintain physical distancing. And thank you for understanding that our Hospitality Ministers will continue to seat you to assure that we are able to seat as many people as possible while maintaining the physical distancing that is required.

Our next weekends include our celebration of the Holy Trinity, the reality that the nature of God includes relationship, and The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, which reminds us of Jesus' enduring gift of himself to us. May God bless St. Rita and may the good work of the parish and of its parishioners bear much good fruit!

Fondly Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tim

Sequence

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours, and our inmost being fill! Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore and confess you, evermore in your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 2:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Thanks be to God

Second Reading

1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Reading

John 15:26-27; 16:12-15

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me. And you also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning. "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for Pentecost Sunday

“Lord Send Out Your Spirit, and Renew the Face Of The Earth” (Psalm 104)

On this Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate the birthday of our Universal Church. This is the day when, as promised, the Holy Spirit of God descended upon the disciples and gave them the wisdom, the courage, and the tenacity to build Christ’s Church on earth. Pentecost was the harvest festival commemorating the day God gave the Torah to the people of Israel. It was celebrated fifty days after the Passover Feast. So it is fitting that God chose this day as the day we became Christians.

Our first reading (Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11) tells this story of Pentecost vividly. Fifty days after Jesus’ Passover supper, the disciples were celebrating the harvest festival of Pentecost or Shavuot (feast of weeks). Suddenly, the Advocate descended upon them and enlightened and emboldened them. From that day forward, they would not be driven by fear but by courage and faith. Love for Jesus and for one another would be their medium in which they extended Christ’s Church to the ends of the earth.

In our Epistle reading (1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13), St. Paul reminds us that even though there is one Spirit that binds us and leads us, there are many different gifts and charisms that the Spirit gives to each of us, “for some benefit”. Even though each us has a different gift, we are all “one body”. “For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.”

In our Gospel reading (John 15:26-27; 16:12-15) Jesus promised his disciples that the Advocate (the Holy Spirit) would come. He “will guide you to all truth”. Everything the Father and Jesus shared will be declared to them.

This Advocate, the Holy Spirit, came just as Jesus had promised. It was a thrilling and earthshaking event that changed the world. This “Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father and the Son” lives and remains active in our world today. This is our prayer today and always, “Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you shall renew the fact of the earth.”

God Always Shows Up!

God shows up in our lives in many different ways. He can come blustering in and knock us off our feet; as in our first reading.

"And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit."

Or perhaps He makes himself known through the birth of a child or when we find true love. God is also subtle like in the chirping of a bird or the face of someone in trouble. But no matter what, He shows up. He shows up for each of us and in each of us. We need to ask ourselves why? Why does God keep showing up; over and over, through the centuries, in all of our lives? The answer is in our Gospel today.

*"Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you."*

He shows up to send us. To send us out. Empowered by the Holy Spirit to do as Jesus did- to love one another. So, say you're sorry to someone. Comfort someone who is suffering. Make an effort to understand more about their suffering.

God shakes us up! He ignites us, excites us, gives us energy and joy! Come to think of it, isn't that how love should be!

Have a blessed week!
Deacon Jim

Beginning this weekend, May 22 & 23 we are no longer taking reservations for any of our Masses.

Seating: When you arrive, you will be asked to stop at one of the two tables to have a Hospitality Minister direct you to a seat. Due to the layout of our pews we are still limited in the number of people we can accommodate in church due to social distancing requirements.

We appreciate your cooperation in arriving a few minutes early and being flexible with where you are seated. While masking and social distancing requirements remain in place, we will continue to leave every other pew empty and bring communion to your seat.

Votive Prayer Candles Return: Starting this weekend we are bringing back our votive prayer candle lights for you to offer special intentions. You may place your offering directly in the Donation slot.
