Reach Out Ministry

INVITATION TO JOIN A NEW MINISTRY!

The Reach Out Ministry is a group of St. Rita Parishioners who feel called by the Holy Spirit to show Christ's love for His people.

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world." - Teresa of Avila

Some of the goals of this new ministry are:

- to make new parishioners, long-time parishioners and everyone in between feel that they are loved and not forgotten.
- to invite people who have yet to come back to church after the pandemic or who have chosen to attend other churches to come back.
- to touch base with parishioners who have lost a spouse or family member.
- to reach out to young families with children and let them know we welcome them and want them to come and worship with us.
- to reach out to school families and help bridge the gap between parish and school.
- to plan new activities and/or invite parishioners to come to activities and programs we already offer.
- to be in touch with and aid our homebound parishioners.

In no way is this a complete list - the possibilities for reaching out to others are endless.

Our group will be having its first meeting on Wednesday, July 7 at 7:00 pm in Room 1 at church.

Please prayerfully consider joining us for this initial meeting. We would LOVE to have anyone who has a passion for reaching out to others. (Please let me know if you are interested but are unable to attend this meeting.)

If you have any questions, please contact me!

God bless,

Julie Cohn, Pastoral Minister

Julie.cohn@dor.org, 671-1100 ext. 13, 585-738-1603.

Attention Liturgical Ministers

Please see the current ministry schedule on our website at www.saintritawebster.org/ministry-schedule.html

If you have not yet been scheduled or would like to be a part of any of the ministries that support our liturgical celebration at weekend Masses, including Hospitality, Lector, and Eucharistic Minister, please contact Elizabeth at Elizabeth.kwiatkowski@dor.org to receive training information or you may fill out the form on our website under Parish Life -> Liturgical Ministers and she will be back in touch with you.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First ReadingEz 2:2-5

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD! And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house - they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Second Reading2 Cor 12:7-10

A reading from the 2nd letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians Brothers and sisters: That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel ReadingMark 6:1-6

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“My Grace Is Sufficient For You”

This Sunday, our readings call our attention to the trials and tribulations of the prophet. A prophet is someone called by God to speak God's truth, especially among the prophet's own people. Regardless of whether people listen, a prophet must remain faithful to his or her calling. In the words of St. Therese of Calcutta, "God has not called me to be successful. He has called me to be faithful."

In our first reading (Ezekiel 2:2-5), Ezekiel tells us it is the Holy Spirit who has entered into him that enables him to speak on behalf of God and sends him on his mission among his own people, a "rebellious house". Many will reject him. God tells Ezekiel that whether or not they listen to him, "They shall know that a prophet has been among them."

In our Epistle reading (2 Corinthians 12:7-10), St. Paul instructs us that is precisely through our weaknesses and our afflictions that "the power of Christ may dwell" within us. God can use our weakness and our struggles to strengthen us. Paul boasted and rejoiced in his weaknesses because he knew God's grace was sufficient for him.

In today's Gospel reading (Mark 6:1-6), Jesus, the ultimate prophet, returned to his home town and taught in the temple. They were "astonished" (not in a good way) at his words and deeds. They were scandalized that this familiar carpenter would presume to speak with such authority and wisdom and perform such wondrous deeds. "Where did this man get all this?" they asked. Even among his own kinfolk, Jesus was not accepted. In last Sunday's readings, we learned that faith is the key to unlock the mercy of Jesus. That point is made again in today's Gospel as their lack of faith prevented Jesus from performing "any mighty deeds there." It is clear from this teaching that our cooperation with God's healing love, mercy and forgiveness is critical. Without cooperation, there is rejection.

In case we are thinking that stories about prophets of old do not concern us directly, we should be reminded that through our own baptism, we are called to share in Christ's ministry as priest, prophet and king. Regardless of our individual callings and charisms, we are each called to be a prophet - to speak God's truth to those around us, especially among our own kind and within our own family. It is not up to us as to whether people listen. God wants us to be faithful to his truth and to speak it unabashedly. We have succeeded "when they shall know that a prophet has been among them." It is good to remember the words of St. Paul in today's Epistle, "My grace is sufficient for you."

From the Desk of Deacon Jim . . .

We are in good company!

Most of us probably smile a bit and nod our head to what St. Paul says in our second reading. He tells us that God's grace is sufficient for us, for power is made perfect in weakness and that we should be content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when we are weak, then we are strong.

Many of you are saying yep, been there! Heard the insults, felt constrained at times, certainly felt unworthy and not up to the task that God is asking of you.

Yet, when we look at the lives of most Saints, they too were not always the strongest or most qualified by human standards; and yes, they were persecuted for the sake of Christ. So, take a deep breath, we are in good company with the saints! This had me think of The Apostles Creed when we say..."I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints." What exactly is the communion of Saints?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "the term "communion of saints" ... has two ... meanings: communion "in holy things (sancta) and among holy persons (sancti)." Therefore, we the faithful, "are fed by Christ's body and blood (sancta) to grow in the communion of the Holy Spirit (koinonia) and to communicate it to the world." In other words, we are the communion of saints... holy people doing holy things ... and God's grace is all we need.

So, if you are living as God calls you to live and you begin to have doubts, if you think you are not up to the task, remember The Creed, remember the good company we are with, holy people doing holy things; indeed a communion of saints!

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Jim
