16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome Ms. Jensen!

We are delighted to welcome Ms. Elizabeth Jensen as our new St. Rita School principal. As we wish Ms. Mary Ellen Wagner Godspeed on her retirement, we are very pleased to have Ms. Jensen join our amazing school and parish family! Our hope is that she feels the warm and welcoming atmosphere that our St. Rita community is known for.

Here is a note from Ms. Jensen:

"As someone who benefited greatly from the foundation provided by my Catholic School experiences, I have spent the past 5 years being an advocate for our schools. I am so thankful to see enrollment increase in many of our schools as families are able to give their children the gift of a faith-based, safe, and high-quality education. As I bring the lessons I learned from my time at St. Agnes School to St. Rita's, I look forward to continuing to see the beauty of Catholic education in action. I am excited to see all of the traditions, instructional excellence, and wonderful children I have been told so much about."

- ◆ Principal at St. Agnes School for 5 years
- ◆ Prior to that taught for 10 years – Liverpool Central School District, Rochester Prep and PUC Achieve
- ◆ Served 2 terms on the Diocese of Rochester School Board
- ◆ Chair of the Middle States Accreditation Math Team
- ◆ Certifications: Childhood Education 1 – 6, School Building Leader and School District Leader (Sept. 2021)
- ◆ Master's of Teaching and Master's of Educational Leadership
- ◆ Graduate of St. Ambrose School, Our Lady of Mercy, and Webster High School

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First ReadingJer 23:1-6

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Second ReadingEph 2:13-18

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel ReadingMark 6:30-34

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for The 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"I Myself Will Gather The Remnant Of My Flock"

This Sunday's scripture readings are all about shepherds - good ones and bad ones. God promised that he himself will shepherd his people Israel and raise up an heir to the throne of David who will reign as a righteous king. He will gather the flock from the nations to which they were scattered and bring them back.

In our first reading (Jeremiah 23:1-6), the prophet chastised the weak and sinful kings (shepherds) of his day for leading their people into sin and their resulting scattering into exile to many foreign lands. Jeremiah then spoke on behalf of God as he promised a righteous shoot from King David will reign as King and Israel shall dwell in security. God will also appoint shepherds for them (Apostles) who will shepherd them "so that they need no longer fear." This messianic prophecy is fulfilled by Jesus and the apostles as we will hear in today's Gospel reading.

In our Epistle reading (Ephesians 2:13-18), St. Paul wrote to the Gentile Ephesian community that through the blood of Christ, the dividing wall of enmity has been broken down. The Gentiles and Israel have been united into one people; just as God had promised in our first reading, God has created "in himself a new person in place of the two."

In our Gospel reading (Mark 6:30-34), the twelve apostles returned from their missions elated by the response but exhausted (see last Sunday's Gospel). Jesus took them to a deserted place to rest but the crowd followed. Jesus revealed himself as the faithful shepherd of the new Israel as he was "moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." In the next passage that follows this, Jesus will feed the five thousand with just five loaves and two fish.

Let us think that this talk about shepherds of old does not concern us, we should keep in mind that we are all shepherds in one way or another - either for our family, our friends, or those in our care or charge. We are blessed to have the apostles and Jesus himself as our role models. May we live up to our calling.

HELPING THOSE IN NEED

HOPE Ministry, Saint Peter's Soup Kitchen, St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, and House of Mercy have all expressed their sincere gratitude to Saint Rita Parishioners for helping with food and toiletry donations and have humbly asked us to continue to support their work.

HOPE Ministry Needs:

Dish soap, Body wash, Laundry soap, Shampoo & Conditioner, Canned beets, Crunchy peanut butter and Salad dressings.

They also welcome your FRESH PRODUCE!

If you are in need of assistance, their hours are:
Monday 4-7pm, Tuesday 10-Noon, Wednesday 2-5pm

(Please note that HOPE will be closed August 2-6)

Non-perishable items for all agencies may be dropped off in our church greeting area or non-perishable and perishable items may be dropped off at the home of Tony & Linda Barbeau, 33 Simone Terrace, Webster. Please call Tony at 585-781-4311 if you leave perishable items.

Saint Rita Shrine

Weather permitting, we invite you to bring your own chair and sit in front of, or around our Saint Rita Shrine (located in front of the Rectory). For those who may not know, the Shrine is the location of our original church built in 1950 and the metalwork you see was also part of our original church.

We thank all of our volunteer gardeners who have put in many long hours in the heat this past month who care for the many landscaped areas around our campus. Stop by and enjoy the Saint Rita Shrine and our beautiful grounds!

Women ~ Save the Date!
St. Rita's Women's Fall Retreat
October 1-3

"Finding God in Life's Transitions"
 at Notre Dame Retreat House
 Canandaigua NY
 585-394-5700 or www.notredameretreat.org

The retreat begins at 7:30pm Friday and ends Sunday at noon. Come and meet others from our parish and surrounding parishes. Bring a friend - women have come with sisters, close friends, even those from other denominations.

Format: The TEAM of Fr. Frank Jones, C.Ss.R., Fr. Tom Travers, C.Ss.R., Sr. Carole Proia, SSJ and Nancy Lynch will give talks on the theme. There will be prayer services, Mass celebrated twice, the opportunity to receive the sacrament of reconciliation and special prayer times.

Come and explore how to find God in the midst of life's graces and challenges. We all experience transitions throughout our lives. How we cope with the unexpected; how we discern 'what next' and how we draw strength and wisdom from others will be the focus of the talks and prayer experiences throughout the retreat weekend. Give yourself the gift of retreat this year. Come for all or just part of it!

Cost: We give suggestions for the cost of the retreat but never want the fee to deter anyone from receiving retreat. Give What You Can!

Single room = $160 per person
 Double room shared = $130 per person
 Double Alone = $210 per person
 Commuter = any amount you wish to give

You Can Help Your Marriage!

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue or have you stopped talking to each other? Does talking only make it worse? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi, meaning rediscovery) helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. So many couples struggle alone with their difficulties. Retrouvaille offers those in troubled and painful marriages the chance to rediscover a loving relationship in their marriage. You are NOT alone. This world-wide Catholic program has helped tens of thousands of couples experiencing difficulties in their marriage. This year we have two Fall programs beginning with a weekend on August 13th or September 17th, please call 585-293-1552 with confidential questions or visit the web site at www.HelpOurMarriage.org

Reach Out Ministry

INVITATION TO JOIN A NEW MINISTRY!

The Reach Out Ministry is a group of St. Rita Parishioners who feel called by the Holy Spirit to show Christ's love for His people.

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world." - Teresa of Avila

Some of the goals of this new ministry are:

- to make new parishioners, long-time parishioners and everyone in between feel that they are loved and not forgotten.
- to invite people who have yet to come back to church after the pandemic or who have chosen to attend other churches to come back.
- to touch base with parishioners who have lost a spouse or family member.
- to reach out to young families with children and let them know we welcome them and want them to come and worship with us.
- to reach out to school families and help bridge the gap between parish and school.
- to plan new activities and/or invite parishioners to come to activities and programs we already offer.
- to be in touch with and aid our homebound parishioners.

In no way is this a complete list - the possibilities for reaching out to others are endless.

We would LOVE to have anyone who has a passion for reaching out to others.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact
 Julie Cohn, Pastoral Minister
Julie.cohn@dor.org, 671-1100 ext. 13, 585-738-1603.

Attention Liturgical Ministers

Please see the current ministry schedule
