Mass for Peace

The Most Reverend Salvatore Matano invites the faithful to a Mass for Peace on Monday, July 26 at 7:00 p.m. at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Let us pray together for an end to senseless violence in our community, for the wisdom to address the many societal issues that plague us, and that God's abiding love and a reverence for all human life will prevail.

From the Desk of Deacon Jim . . .

The Miracles of Jesus

"The deeds and miracles of Jesus are not actions of the past. Jesus is waiting for those who are still prepared to take risks at His word because they trust His power utterly."

These words are posted on a sign on the shore of the Sea of Galilee at the site of the miracle of the loaves and fishes, which we hear in this week's Gospel from John. They are powerful words. Perhaps it is best for me to let them be. So, I think I will! Take time to be silent and reflect on that quote and these questions:

Do you believe in miracles?

What risks are you willing to take to follow Jesus?

What might these words be saying to you in your life?

Have a blessed week!
Deacon Jim

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading*2 Kgs 4:42-44

A reading from the second Book of Kings

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the first fruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Reading*John 6:1-15

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Second Reading*Eph 4:1-6

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for The 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's readings highlight the limitless love of God in caring for his flock. Both our Old Testament and New Testament readings share similar encounters with God's mercy and love for his people.

In our first reading (2 Kings 4:42-44), the Prophet Elisha calls upon the power of God to feed a hundred people with only twenty barley loaves. After the people had eaten their fill, there was food left over, “as the Lord had said.” A similar scene with much deeper layers of meaning is played out in today's Gospel passage.

In our Epistle reading (Ephesians 4:1-6), St. Paul explains what should be our response to God's grace - our calling to the unity of one people, one God, one baptism in one Spirit. This is how we are to live as Christians. Regardless of our individual gifts and charisms, we all share the same call to unity. It is the one Spirit that binds us all together in peace.

In our Gospel reading (John 6:1-15), we hear the story of the multiplication of the loaves, the feeding of the five thousand. It is the only miracle story found in all four Gospels. John's telling of it is the most complete, with rich Eucharistic overtones and Old Testament references. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, was moved with pity for the multitude of people who followed him and his disciples to the mountain. The Eucharistic reference is clear as Jesus took the bread, blessed it and distributed it. Some say that the twelve baskets left over is one for each apostle as they go forth fulfilling their mission of gathering the flock from all nations into “one person”.

Today's readings knit together Old and New Testament themes to reveal Jesus as the Messiah, the new Moses who has come to gather his people and feed them with his own body. While our readings mention physical food, the deeper meaning calls us to seek the spiritual food that is Christ himself, which is limitless in its quantity and efficacy. God's mercy and love knows no bounds. Our response, as St. Paul tells us is humility, gentleness, patience and love. And so we must.

BACKPACK AND BODY CARE COLLECTION

Hello. My name is Olivia. My family and I are parishioners of St. Rita and I will be a senior this fall at Our Lady of Mercy High School. For my senior community project, I will be helping families who come to the Community Clothing Center in Wolcott. This Center is a part of Catholic Charities of Wayne County. They provide clothing and necessities, free of charge, to children and adults in need.

I am collecting backpacks (for elementary and high school children) that will be filled with body care items such as towels, washcloths, soap, deodorant, toothbrushes, toothpaste, feminine hygiene products, shampoo, etc. I will distribute them this August to families at the Center.

If you would like to contribute to this collection, please drop off a new backpack and/or new body care items at the collection area in the Greeting Area in Church beginning next weekend through Sunday, August 15. THANK YOU so much for your time and consideration.

St. Rita has been fortunate to have so many dedicated volunteers caring for all of our landscaped areas around the church and school grounds. If you are interested in sharing your time to help keep our grounds in beautiful shape - even if it is just filling in for someone on vacation - please call Tom Bayer at (585) 481-1420.
