and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading*Is 50:5-9

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame. He is near who upholds my right; if anyone wishes to oppose me, let us appear together. Who disputes my right? Let that man confront me. See, the Lord GOD is my help; who will prove me wrong?

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Second Reading*Jas 2:14-18

A reading from the Letter of St. James

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well, " but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead. Indeed someone might say, "You have faith and I have works." Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Reading*Mark 8:27-35

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ." Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it."

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for The 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

(Readings can be found on Page 2)

“Whoever Loses His Life For My Sake And That Of The Gospel Will Save It”

One theme found in our readings for this Sunday is the suffering servant, meekly submitting to his persecution but with the knowledge that he would be vindicated by God. This is not the picture the disciples had for the messiah. They expected a victorious, triumphant leader who would vanquish the Romans. No, said Jesus. The messiah is to be much like the suffering servant of Isaiah found in today's first reading.

In our first reading (Isaiah 50:5-9), we listen to a portion of the Prophet Isaiah's "Songs of the Suffering Servant", a prophesy that would ultimately be fulfilled in Jesus Christ. He meekly and willing submitted to his suffering, yet with full faith that God would deliver him.

In our Epistle reading (James 2:14-18), St. James brings clarity to the age-old discussion of whether we are justified by faith alone or by faith and (good) works. James' argument is that true faith is expressed through good works. Without works, faith is dead, says James. Good deeds is the evidence that faith exists. "I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works."

In our Gospel reading (Mark 8:27-35), we hear an exchange between Jesus and his disciples. Jesus asked the question, "Who do you say that I am." Peter, speaking for the disciples, proclaimed, "You are the Christ." But then, Jesus began to teach them about his impending death and resurrection. Peter took Jesus aside and rebuked him, for this simply didn't compute with their vision of the Messiah. Jesus responded by rebuking Peter, and then teaching them the paradox of discipleship - You must take up your cross and follow me.

Our world today is suffering; our Church today is suffering; many of our families today are suffering. One thing we might learn today is that by embracing our cross, in union with Jesus' passion and death, we can find meaning and purpose in our suffering. May we embrace the concept of salvific (redemptive) suffering, wherein we find redemption in our suffering. May we take up our cross and follow him.

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you so much for supporting my backpack and body care collection. Your kindness is SO appreciated.

I am happy to share with you that because of your generosity, my family and I brought 44 brand new backpacks / book bags to the Community Clothing Center in Wolcott. Each bag was filled with a large bath towel, several washcloths and/or hand towels and a variety of personal hygiene items. We also gave a box filled with feminine hygiene products. It didn't end there.

The kindness of some of our parishioners allowed me to give even more! We also brought over 11 jumbo sized boxes of diapers in a variety of sizes, 4 jumbo sized boxes of baby wipes and a bag of teething rings and pacifiers. The people at the Center were very grateful for everything. Parents and grandparents were taking back packs for their children as we were bringing them in. Many of the diapers and wipes were also being handed out immediately.

Thank you so much for helping to make my senior community service project so successful. Thank you for all of your support, kind notes and words of encouragement.

I will never forget this experience. THANK YOU.

Sincerely,
Olivia

Dear St. Rita's Parishioners,

On behalf of the Community Clothing Center in Wolcott, I would like to THANK each one of you for your very generous support of the free backpack giveaway this summer.

Children and parents were so very grateful, and the kids were excited to pick out their own backpacks which were size and age appropriate. Then they were surprised to discover the extras items inside for their families.

A special shout-out goes to Olivia Momot, a senior, who orchestrated this drive. Thanks! After such a difficult year, it has been a joy for them to get back on the school track and your contributions truly made a difference.

In sincere gratitude and faith,

Jill Lee and staff

Come and explore how to find God in the midst of life's graces and challenges. We all experience transitions throughout our lives. How we cope with the unexpected; how we discern 'what next' and how we draw strength and wisdom from others will be the focus of the talks and prayer experiences throughout the retreat weekend. Give yourself the gift of retreat this year. Come for all or just part of it!
