Forward in Faith

The parishioners of St. Rita have undergone an amazing and successful growth in how we view the annual Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). Where once we may have been more apt to think of the CMA as “we” giving to “them”, we now understand more fully the unity among all the people in our Diocese and so it is now “we” are contributing for the good of “us”. The difficulty and struggle of what used to be an eight-month long trek has been transformed into a celebrated ten-week opportunity. For the past two years, we have not only fulfilled our CMA responsibility, but we have also done it before Christmas! We have done it with purpose, with humor, with determination, with faith, and with the generosity of everyone involved. And we will do it again!

The 2021-2022 Catholic Ministry Appeal

Even with the struggles of the pandemic, we rose to the occasion. Last year we had 83 new households join the CMA to offset those households who were not able to participate and the average gift for each of the 525 participating households increased to $320!

Think of all the ministries that your gift supports. Ministries like: Catholic Charities; Urban, Rural and Multicultural programs and ministries; IT support; Human Resources; Building and Property Management; and Educating Seminarians. These are all ministries that are done in our name. These are all ministries that no single parish could afford and for which smaller parishes would be especially at a disadvantage.

While the overall Diocesan CMA goal has not increased, they have updated their calculations and our share has increased by $7000. If our goal has increased, then I know that the goal of a struggling parish has decreased. This is one more ministry we are supporting. Last year we exceeded our goal by $7000, so our increase for the sake of those smaller churches, is doable.

We will be showing the CMA video before Masses this weekend (it is especially good this year). If you miss it, please find it online on our website. Please pray about your support this year. Please make your commitment as early as possible. Please strongly consider making a pledge over 7 or 8 months and in this way being able to increase the amount your household is able to give. Please speak positively about the CMA to others and support it with your prayer.

The CMA is a very important undertaking of our parish and, as we have discovered, it does not need to occupy the majority of a year in order to be successful. Moving “Forward in Faith” we will fulfill our parish share of the CMA together, and once again accomplish this before Christmas! Thank you very much for your understanding, cooperation, prayer, and participation! - Fr. Tim

For those new to the Diocese of Rochester

The Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) is the annual appeal inviting Catholics in the Diocese of Rochester to join in a partnership to advance the mission of our Church. This year's theme, Forward in Faith, reminds us that our faith has seen us through, and our faith will guide us forward so that we can set about the work to reinvigorate, rebuild, and renew our Church.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First ReadingGn 2:18-24

A reading from the Book of Genesis

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman,' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Second ReadingHeb 2:9-11

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels," that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers."

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel ReadingMk 10:2-16

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh.

Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

The Gospel of the Lord Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for The 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In our readings this Sunday, we hear about the sanctity of marriage; the enduring bond between a husband and wife as God's plan from the beginning of creation. Marriage is a divine institution that was created by God.

In our first reading from the very first book of the Bible (Genesis 2:18-24), we hear God say, "It is not good for the man to be alone". So God created man and woman for each other. She is "bone of his bones, flesh of his flesh", his coequal partner. We are created to live in covenant relationship with God and with one another.

In our Epistle reading (Hebrews 2:9-11), we learn that Jesus was made one of us ("lower than the angels") so that he might lead us to salvation. It is through his suffering that he consecrates us, that is he dedicates us to the sacred purpose of service to God.

In our Gospel reading (Mark 10: 2-16), We hear Jesus' teaching on marriage and divorce and attitude toward children. Jesus goes all the way back to the creation account in Genesis to describe God's plan and intent for us. He then adds the reverence for children as part of that plan. Jesus calls us to accept the kingdom of God as children do—with complete abandon and love.

Jesus makes clear to us in today's Gospel that marriage is a union made by God and is unbreakable. God is always the third party to the union of every husband and wife. It is within this cocoon of love that children are brought into the world and nurtured. This has been God's plan since creation. It is intended for our happiness.

Join us for an ALL NEW Bible Study Program

STARTS: Next Sunday, October 10 following 10:30am Mass

“The Eucharist”

By Bishop Robert Barron

Sign Up Now!

Christ is alive and fully present in the Eucharist. Join us as we delve into the “source and summit” of our Faith with Fr. Robert Barron’s DVD-based program: Eucharist: Sacred Meal, Sacrifice and Real Presence. This spiritual study will give you a deeper understanding of the precious gift of Christ’s body, blood, soul and divinity that you can receive at each and every Mass.

This fresh look at the Eucharist brings to light its reality as sacred meal, the sacrifice necessary for communion with God, and the Real Presence of Christ.

Groups meet for six 90-minute sessions to explore the Eucharist as sacred meal, which is foreshadowed in many parts of the Old Testament, the once-and-for-all sacrifice that reunited humanity with God, and the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Christ, present through transubstantiation.

- ◆ There are 6 sessions.
- ◆ We will begin in the Gym at 11:30am (following 10:30am Mass) for refreshments.
- ◆ After the video, we will break into groups to discuss a series of guided questions from the workbook.
- ◆ Each discussion group will end at its own pace. The session will conclude by 1:00pm

Sessions are on Sunday mornings at 11:30am: October 10, 17, 24, 31 and November 7 & 14

TO REGISTER for this exciting program, please E-mail Karen at the office at karen.geer@dor.org or call her at 671-1100 (press ext. 11). The cost of materials (workbook) is $20. If you have specific questions please call or email Jerry Lupien at 794-3666 or galupien@gmail.com

Are you a Christmas Angel?

We’re looking for someone new to oversee our Christmas Angel Gift Project.

This is an exciting ministry with an already established, highly organized, great group of volunteers!

The role includes communicating and scheduling with the volunteers and parish staff, moving and sorting donated items from the greeting area to Room 1 between the weekend after Thanksgiving and first week of December (which this year is November 27 - December 9), coordinating with shoppers, and finding solutions for any issues.

We are also looking for someone to join the team as an agency contact. This person would connect with an agency we currently service to see what their requests are and assist with sorting and delivering items.

If you are interested in either of these positions, please contact Elizabeth.kwiatkowski@dor.org or call 369-0906.

We thank Diane Langen for her many years of dedication to this ministry!

From the Desk of Deacon Jim . . .

Oh, to Be Like a Child!

Jesus often calls upon us to view children as the model of behavior for us to aspire. I wonder at times what particular qualities of a child we should seek to emulate; the crying, the impatience, the self-centeredness? I suspect not! Fr. Walter Burghardt, SJ, in “Lovely in Eyes Not His”, seems to hit the mark. Sometimes it’s best for me to let others words speak when they speak so clearly.

“To enter the kingdom . . . is not to lapse into second childhood . . . to reproduce the baby and the adolescent. It is to recapture...the openness and nakedness, the sheer receptivity and utter dependence, that called out to a compassionate Christ, that made him see in children what he wants to see in his disciples”

Children are trusting. They receive love and affection so freely, without the jadedness of years on earth. Find a moment or two this week to rest with these words. Let them touch you. Perhaps we can all recapture a bit of the utter dependence, the purity of trusting in God’s love.

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Jim

And You Will be Entered into a Drawing for a FAMILY DINNER - DELIVERED TO YOUR HOME!

Please fill out this survey.
It only takes about 5 minutes.

St. Rita staff and our newly formed Reach Out Ministry would like to know how we can meet some of the Spiritual and Physical needs of our parishioners and the wider community. We have developed a short survey that will help us develop programs, provide prayer opportunities, plan fun social events for singles, couples, children, families, teens, young adults, empty nesters, seniors, etc.

We do appreciate your time. To show our appreciation there will be a drawing for a free family dinner from a local restaurant delivered to your home.

When you complete this survey, you will be entered in a drawing to win a dinner for your family delivered to your home! HOWEVER(!!!) Only when you submit this survey will you become eligible to receive this gift. We will notify the winner during the week of November 7, 2021.

This link will take you to the survey:
<https://tinyurl.com/ReachOutMinistrySurvey>

If you do not have access to a computer, NO PROBLEM!

There are paper copies of the survey in the Church Library and in the Greeting Area. Take a copy, fill it out, and return it to us. You will be entered in the drawing.

If you cannot get to church we still want to hear from you! Just let us know and we will mail you a copy of the survey. Then return it to us. You will be entered in the drawing.

After filling the survey out, you can mail it to us, you can put it in an envelope and drop it off at the office in the mail slot on the door, or you can put it in an envelope and drop it in the donations slot at church.

Thank you and may God bless you!

Companions in Grief Group will meet on Thursday, October 14 at 6:30pm in Room 1

There is no formula for dealing with grief and the emotions that go along with it. Join us for this informal meeting with others who are experiencing the loss of someone they love. We begin with a short presentation, a video for example, or a guest speaker. We offer some discussion for those who choose to share. Then we end with a little social time. We meet on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 6:30pm in Room 1. We do not offer counseling; we offer support to one another.

All are welcome!

Let us know if you need a ride to the meeting.
