The 2021-2022 Catholic Ministry Appeal

Dear Friends,

We have entered this year's Catholic Ministry Appeal with great confidence. With energy, effort and generosity, St. Rita Parish continues to meet its share of the CMA each year. Our goal this year has increased by $7,000 to $167,000. This is a realistic challenge, because we exceeded our goal last year by $7,000. This is valid evidence that we can fulfill this responsibility together and so we can confidently make the ongoing assurance that

St. Rita Parish will again make our goal and fulfill our CMA responsibility by the middle of this December!

Why are we convinced we can do this?

- For the last two years we not only fulfilled our CMA responsibilities but have done this before Christmas!
- I have witnessed the well-known generosity and care of St. Rita parishioners and we can bring this to bear on the CMA.
- We have reached a consensus here at St. Rita that the Ministries of the Diocese of Rochester are also our ministries and it is our responsibility to support them through the CMA.
- We have reached a consensus here at St. Rita that there is a unique importance to our participation in the CMA. We also agree that the CMA is worthy of our prayer, energy, effort, determination, and participation. At the same time, there is no need or reason to let it occupy our attention for most of the year. We have found that a strong commitment and focus of ten weeks is sufficient for fulfilling our responsibilities.
- We always approach the CMA, not only with a sense of fiscal responsibility, but more importantly, with a God-given spirit of hope, unity, and courage that comes to us through Jesus Christ.

- a parishioner*

I am so grateful to God to be the pastor of St. Rita Church. Our success with the CMA is only a small piece of why I feel like I am very much in the right place. With your help, support, and understanding, St. Rita has emerged from this pandemic bursting with desire to get into full swing again and a commitment to recapture what is best about our parish and to extend our parish mission in new and creative ways.

~ Fr. Tim

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First ReadingIs 51:10-11

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Second ReadingHeb 4:14-16

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters: Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel ReadingMk 10:35-45

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reflections on our Readings for The 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For the Son of Man Did Not Come to be Served but to Serve and to Give His Life as a Ransom for Many”

Our three readings this Sunday give us three different views of the suffering servant - the one who will give his life as a substitutionary atonement for the sins of the people (our sins.) The image of the blameless lamb that is sacrificed in atonement for sins is as old as Israel itself.

In our first reading (Isaiah 51:10-11), we hear an excerpt from Isaiah's fourth Song of the Suffering Servant. Reading this passage in light of the resurrection of Jesus, it is clear that to use Christians, Jesus is this "servant who shall justify many and their guilt he shall bear."

In our Epistle reading (Hebrews 4:14-16), the author compares Jesus to the Jewish high priest who offered sacrifice once each year on the Day of Atonement or Yom Kippur. Because our "great high priest" gave his own body and blood as the sacrifice for the sins of the world (Once, for all), we can approach Jesus with the confidence that he understands our suffering as well.

In our Gospel reading (Mark 10:35-45), we hear the incredible request by James and John to share in Jesus' glory. Odd as that may seem, it was very much in keeping with the culture of the day. They expected a messiah that would ride triumphantly into Jerusalem as king and vanquish its enemies. His disciples would naturally take their places to the left and the right of his throne. Even after multiple warnings by Jesus of his impending passion and death, they just didn't understand. Jesus responded by asking them, "Can you drink the cup that I drink?" "We can", they readily replied. Little did they know that indeed they would.

Sometimes, like the apostles James and John, we may fail to understand the significance of the passion and death of Jesus for the atonement of our sins. Jesus indeed triumphed, but not in the way his disciples expected. Jesus triumphed over sin and death by rising from the dead after three days. Sometimes, we may act as if we haven't been saved, lacking the profound joy that salvation brings. Perhaps we can do better.

Ever wonder "what's their story?"

Our Racial Justice Ministry invites you to join us for the 2nd of 3 monthly sessions where, while we share a meal in a small group setting, share the stories of our ancestors, how they arrived in the United States, why they made the journey and the struggles and triumphs along the way. We will use Pope Francis's encyclical, Fratelli Tutti- on the Fraternity and Social Friendship, as our guide. Getting to know others through their stories, how they are similar and different from your own story, is how we open our hearts to be more empathetic to the obstacles and struggles some of our brothers and sisters endure.
