"Shake
The Dust Off
Your Feet!"

You get up in the morning, shower, and head to work. Hopefully, at the end of your day you finish with a sense of satisfaction. When you do something that matters for someone else, you know that your job is not just a job. It makes a difference. During His time on earth, Jesus prepared the disciples for a task that really mattered. It still does. When we fulfill His mission, we're making a difference.

Bringing His followers together, Jesus paired them off and sent them out. To this point, the message of the Kingdom had gone wherever Jesus had gone. His ministry expanded only where His feet could take Him. The disciples could move out in multiple directions so the Gospel could spread.

Jesus also gave them stern instruction that if the people refused to listen and welcome them, they were supposed to shake off the dust from their feet. Why they had to shake off the dust from their feet? Shaking the dust is a symbolic indication that one has done all that can be done in a situation and carries no further responsibility for it. Embedded within this symbolic gesture was the implication that God also saw the dust-shaking and would judge people accordingly. There was a spiritual significance to a disciple of Jesus shaking the dust off his feet. It was a statement of finality about people who had been given the truth and who had rejected it

Each Christian is called to witness to the kingdom of God. We have a mission not only to be a disciple but also to be an apostle. As disciples, we have to follow Jesus and imitate Jesus. As apostles, we have to evangelize the world. We are called to share with others not just words, or ideas, or doctrines but an experience, our experience of God and His Son, Jesus. We have a liberating and healing mission, liberating people from the clutches of the evil one, and to help people to be cured of their infirmities, not only the bodily sicknesses but psychological and emotional illnesses as well. Finally, we have a mission to live in the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God is a Kingdom of peace, justice and love. (catholic.net)
