Do This in Memory of Me. This year’s 82nd Catholic Appeal speaks to the many ways our world is yearning for the nourishing power of Christ’s love and how we can build a brighter future within our Church. The agencies and apostolates supported by the Appeal provide opportunities for the youth of our diocese to grow in their faith, while establishing and deepening lifelong Catholic values. Your Appeal gift makes invaluable experiences possible, such as Campus Ministry, the Pope Pius X Youth Awards, Catholic Youth Day, and the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO). (PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

“These two Sacraments were born together,” wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, “and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world.”

The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible.

We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist.

Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. On this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let’s give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile.

“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.” — John 6:54

Faith Formation

In January, I started listening to “The Catechism in a Year” podcast. Well, as you can probably guess, I am waaaayyyy behind in it. I’m currently on Day 86 (the program is on Day 156). I’m not discouraged about it though. I knew I’d never be able to listen every day and that if I wanted to actually get something out of this, I would need to be flexible. I knew from the very beginning I would need to just stick with it without worrying about the timeframe. It’s funny how almost every day I am able to listen to an episode, I get something very timely out of it. So, things happening in my life are not on the podcast’s schedule either but God knows what I need to hear and when I need to hear it. It’s easy to get overwhelmed sometimes with how busy life is and we try to stick to schedules for so many things. I love the reminder that God is with us and knows just what we need to hear even if we’re way behind schedule. His time is always right.

Praying for peace in our hearts, minds, families, homes, and world. Have a wonderful and blessed week,

~ Eileen Frasier
