If you can't feed a hundred people, then just feed one.

~ St. Teresa of Calcutta

Sports on Sunday may seem like an interference with one's Faith life. Traditionally, Sunday mornings are for Religious Education class and Mass. Both are very important, and I am not minimizing them in any way. I do also feel that sports provide a great opportunity to live one's faith. God gives us our talents so using those talents in a way that respects and honors God can be a wonderful testament to our faith. By playing fairly, displaying good sportsmanship, being an encouraging teammate, and taking care of our bodies we are also praising God and being a living example of our faith. For me, one of the most moving examples of a faith opportunity during a sporting event is when a player falls or is injured and all the other players on both teams "take a knee". It is automatic and inspiring to see. I'm sure not all of them are praying but I am also very sure a lot are. As a mom to 2 athletes, I am always a bit on edge for serious injuries, but knowing if anything were to happen, there'd be immediate prayers is a comfort. That's my mind's musing for this week.

Just a reminder there is no class next Sunday November 12, in honor of Veterans' Day,

Have a wonderful and blessed week, ~ Eileen Frasier

WOULD YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

- November 5 All Priests in the Diocese
- November 6 Rev. Daniel Lacroix
- November 7 Rev. Matthew Laird
- November 8 Rev. Roger Landry
- November 9 Rev. Paul Caron
- November 10 Rev. Thomas Lopes
- November 11 Rev. David Lupo, SSCC

Eternal Father, we lift up to you these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them, into likeness and holiness of your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to you. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.
