If you can't feed a hundred people, then just feed one.

~ St. Teresa of Calcutta

Last week I asked my son for an idea to write about in the bulletin, so, to keep things fair, this week I asked my daughter. She has not been to Mass in person for a few weeks due to various illnesses. She has watched it on TV each week but she was actually so glad to be back in person this Sunday. She was happy to see her friends and be able to receive Communion. We are very fortunate to have TV Mass and the Livestream. During illness or bad weather, we are still able to participate in the Mass to an extent. However, it is just not the same as being there in person to fully participate. I am very thankful my daughter realized this. Kids often are much more perceptive than we give them credit for. A good reminder to us all that kids are always watching our example.

Have a wonderful and blessed week, ~ Eileen Frasier
