EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

Prayer of a Grandparent

Saints Anne and Joachim, I am a grandmother (grandfather) and indeed a very anxious grandparent. I worry, not only about my children, but also about my grandchildren. They are confronted with a life full of obstacles, dangers and difficult issues. They are not always aware of this. So, I beg you to take them under your maternal and paternal protection, you who have taken such good care of Jesus, your grandson.

You brought up your daughter, Mary. Together, you taught her how to observe the Commandments through love of God and neighbor. I now entrust my children to you.

When Jesus was born of Mary, how delighted you were! Out of the same love that you had and still have for your grandson Jesus, please extend your protection to my grandchildren of whom some are still young while others have grown up and are facing life's responsibilities. Bless them all. Help them to discover the importance of prayer, the beauty of Christian virtues and love for the Lord! Keep them away from physical, moral and religious obstacles to their happiness.

Saints Anne and Joachim, may we be reunited in heavenly bliss. Amen

Welcome, children, into the Catholic Church through the Sacrament of Baptism. Congratulations to your parents and godparents. We pray you will find love and happiness as you grow in your faith of the Lord.
