Our Craft Fair is this weekend. Be sure to get your raffle tickets in before the fair or you can drop them in the collection basket or bring them to the fair. We can always use more volunteers. Don't forget to bring your lottery tickets so we can put them on the tree. We also can use new gifts to give out for prizes. Remember that the fair supports all three parishes so tell your family, friends and anyone you can think of to attend the fair. Come and have lunch with us and look at our new kitchen and enjoy the food. We also need donations of baked goods. Our booths have lots of nice items for sale, so start your Christmas shopping early. We will see you at the fair. Chairman Daryl Sylvia darylsylvia@gmail.com

Scout Troop 24 & 24G As usual, the scout troop will have an outside booth to take orders for Christmas wreaths. These wreaths are decorated by the scouts and their parents. This year we got a great price for the wreaths and we will have them as a preorder at $20 with a red ribbon and pinecones and $25 with a ribbon of your choice of color and pinecones. Be sure to visit our troop booth and order a wreath or more early for your house. Daryl Sylvia darylsylvia@gmail.com

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What's in it for me?

I think we've all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what's in it for us. It doesn't matter if it's a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you'll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: "If I do this, what will I get?"

Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship.

In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us.

But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don't give up just because they keep failing at it.

We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives.

Remember, they're just like us. If they can do it, we can too.
