Members and guests of St. Ambrose Messengers of Hope Community and the St. Ambrose Pro Life Ministry gathered at the Roman Delight Restaurant for an evening of delicious food, wonderful fellowship, and discussion on future plans and events. A few highlights of the evening were the unveiling of the Messengers of Hope Logo, the announcement of the fall program, Oremus: A Catholic Guide to Pray, and the start of a Living Rosary Team. Dana Seisler, Pro Life Ministry Coordinator, shared what this Ministry is currently working on. Each attendee received a favor, prayer cards, and the book, “Amazing Possibilities” by Matthew Kelly. The next get together will be held before the first session of Oremus, which begins on September 29th. Do you desire to grow in faith through a shared experience of prayer and reflection? Learn more by reaching out to the parish office, and we’ll connect you with Roseanne Bedway Ladue, Messengers of Hope Coordinator.
