"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?' - JOHN 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

Catholic Life Explained

Question: Why do parishes have the Blessed Sacrament in a separate room?

Answer: While many Catholics of a certain age have memories of the Blessed Sacrament being housed in the tabernacle on the high altar of the church, many parishes in the decades since the Second Vatican Council have chosen to build a separate space - a reservation chapel - where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. Although the practice is not universal, it is in keeping with the guidance offered by the US Bishops in their document Built of Living Stones (see nos 77-78). The goal is to create a space that is separated from the nave and sanctuary, but which is "integrally connected with the church" which can foster "reverence and can provide the quiet and focus needed for personal prayer." It can be especially important for communities that have continuous Eucharistic Adoration, allowing people to come and pray in a space separate from the normal activities of parish life.

The practice of reserving the Eucharist in a separate space - or in a dignified location away from the altar where Mass is celebrated - is that it emphasizes the importance of the liturgy itself, which is the "source and summit" of the life of the Church.

As with many things in the Church, the practice of placing the tabernacle in the sanctuary or in a separate chapel is not universal. The important thing is that as communities question where to place the tabernacle, they listen to the voice of the Church, explore the ancient and varied liturgical tradition of the Church, consider the needs and life of the community, and take into account the architecture and limits of the spaces they might already have.

Gospel Meditation

Gospel Meditation Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Our faith is not just about ideas. It's really about having an encounter with God and, in particular, the Risen Christ! Once we give ourselves over to the notion of God's presence, we have to train ourselves to listen for God's voice and be attentive to God's call. Having companions on our faith journeys is so incredibly important as they can help us fine-tune our listening skills and discern God's voice from others we may be hearing. Faith is all about having these profound encounters not only with God but with our brothers and sisters, and creation itself. Anyone or anything that is alive with God's presence becomes an occasion for God to speak and call us to deeper graces and experiences. "Come, and you will see."

The example and teaching of Jesus, the lives of the saints, those living among us and those glorified in heaven, and the wonder and beauty of creation can all serve to help us listen more clearly and assist in positioning ourselves for this profound God meeting. It is an encounter that can quickly and easily lead to a friendship and intertwining of our souls to their Maker, making a claim on us like no other. Then, the Word of God moves from being just a body of ideas to something we simply accept and do. The person of Jesus Christ swiftly moves from being just a good prophet in word and deed to the incarnate presence of God Himself, the Lamb of God. The voice leads us to the Person behind it.

The Gospel is hard to follow. We can intellectually debate whether what Jesus said is really what we are asked to do. The Gospel ideas do not always make sense in our practical, secular world. The person of God always does. We can debate the practicality and sense of ideas and doing so often keeps the more difficult ones at a safe distance away from us. Jesus said to love our enemy, but we really don't need to do that, our minds try to convince us. It just doesn't make sense. Yet, if we are truly in love with the God who is behind the voice of those words, they make perfect sense. Our deep and intimate love of this God would even find us laying down our lives for Him if necessary. Speak Lord, your servant is listening.

Giving Tree 2020 - Thank you!

Thank you so much to all of you that supported the 2020 Giving Tree project. The unique circumstances of 2020 added a few changes to the project but, our parish family once again supported those in need in a wonderful way!

We collected for the following charities:

Dover Childcare Center - Coat sets for each child

Catholic Charities of NJ - toys, clothes and gift cards for needy families

Holy Trinity Parish - toys, clothes and gift cards for the need in our sister parish

JTs Kitchen in Dover - warm clothes and gift cards to feed and keep warm homeless in the area

Hermits of Mt. Carmel, Chester - gift cards for our sisters

 2020 certainly made all of us aware that many people found themselves in hardship. We thank you all so much for your participation and generosity to our neighbors and friends.

Special thank you to Fr. Brian and all the St. Matthew's staff who supported this project in so many ways, we couldn't have done it without you.

Blessings,
Liz Ritter & Carolyn Murphy

Once again we are offering a service opportunity you can do at home and then drop off at St. Matthew's on Sunday, January 24, 2021.

We are called to help those in need. We are reminded in scripture that when we care for those in need we are in fact seeing Jesus in every single person. Right now Bridges and Faith Kitchen need your help. You can either make sandwiches - just one or more than one, your choice OR you can donate items for sustainable meals (i.e. cans of tuna etc.) and/or toiletry items. Please see the Parish website for complete details. www.stmatthewsr Randolph.org.

We encourage you to have fun looking at this video from Fr. Brian and Jim Hill our youth group director.

2nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Our Parish

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

We have often heard it said that God is always calling but we are not always listening. It is not only that we are not listening but we are not familiar enough with God to recognize He is calling! We easily mistake God's voice for something else and miss some profound opportunities for connection. We have to train our minds, hearts and souls to listen for the voice of God. It is a voice that draws us to deeper places, leading us to moments of grace and more profound God awareness. To look at Jesus and be able to say, "Behold, the Lamb of God," means that I know something special about this person whom others know as simply a man. I will become more attentive and receptive when he says, "Come, and you will see." I may even be more willing to set aside what I am doing and actually go.

Online Giving via WeShare

The practice of Christian stewardship via online giving provides the opportunity for planned giving. Online Giving allows for a streamlined administrative process and allows for more accurate budgeting. Please prayerfully consider donating to St. Matthew's via our online system. Please access the WeShare link on the St. Matthew's website under the Support tab. If you are currently using WeShare, please take a few moments to update your information to ensure that credit card information is up-to-date.

If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Brian or MaryAnn in the Parish office at (973)584-1101. We are happy to assist you.

What is a Mass Card?

The dedication of a Mass is a special way to show an expression of support, sympathy and care for those who are ill and those who have passed. We remember the deceased and invite their family members to attend a special liturgy in honor of their loved one.

It is Catholic tradition to commemorate and pray for those who have gone before us with a special intention during the liturgy. The name of the person to be prayed for is shared in the Prayer of the Faithful. Mass cards are available in the parish office. Please stop in if you would like to have a Mass offering for your loved one.

Care Notes

CareNotes are written for people dealing with emotional situations who are looking for concise, easy-to-read guidance and support. These booklets are designed with small sections with sidebars to support the information, stimulate interest and offer support. The compact, 5" x 7", eight-page full color booklets offer strength, help and healing for those who are hurting. CareNotes provide emotional, recovery, health, grief and eldercare support and information. These wellness-oriented booklets address real-life emotional, psychological and spiritual needs and are an outstanding wellness resource.

CareNotes may be found in the Gathering Space. Please call the Parish office and we would happy to mail Care Notes to you (973) 584-1101.
